Ian Hamilton Finlay, Tom Lubbock

Ian Hamilton Finlay:

Ian Hamilton Finlay Ian Hamilton Finlay, 2012-04-02 The Scottish concrete poet visual artist short story writer aphorist editor and avant gardener Ian Hamilton Finlay is one of the great polymaths of our time His writings alone would put him in the pantheon of twentieth century poets Finlay's son Alec himself a poet has now given us a selection of his father's writings beautifully edited and annotated lavishly illustrated and with a superb new introduction to the work I consider this book long overdue to be a milestone in publishing Marjorie Perloff author of The Futurist Moment and Unoriginal Genius Poetry by other means in the 21st Century Ian Hamilton Finlay was an entirely original and continuously challenging voice in the poetry of the English speaking world over the second half of the twentieth century This promises to be the first book in which his early verse his concrete poetry and his distinctive compilations of aphorisms and sentences are all substantially represented Stephen Bann author of Ways Around Modernism When I was young and trying to figure out how to think about landscapes and gardens and their cultural histories no one opened the garden gates wider than Ian Hamilton Finlay in his poetic and sometimes provocative print projects garden sculptures concrete poems sometimes in actual concrete or stone aphorisms and other works Finlay was a loner a visionary looking backward to think on revolution and paradise Arcadia and insurrection and this book put together by his artist son Alec makes that work available for the first time in a long while and as gorgeously as possible Alec's long biographical essay is itself a hugely valuable resource for anyone interested in the elder Finlay's works and then there are the poems and the pictures Rebecca Solnit author of Infinite City A San Francisco Atlas Only a handful of poets working in the visual tradition in the twentieth century have a profile that shows up in the broader scenes of fine art and modern culture Among them Ian Hamilton Finlay is probably the most frequently cited But the work and thinking of this complex enigmatic and sometimes controversial figure is not necessarily well understood This new volume documenting the many facets of Finlay's work as a poet sculptor and thinker across many media and a lifetime of creative activity will make it possible to study and appreciate his work anew This collection makes a welcome addition to studies in book arts visual poetry and conceptual art through the presentation of an artist whose contributions have registered across these fields Johanna Drucker Breslauer Professor of Bibliographical Studies at the University of California Los Angeles While Ian Hamilton Finlay's career is one of complexity as a creator he was a champion of the simple Engaging regional melodies quotidian objects and native terrain he took poetry back to its Greek root to make This half century journey from folk poem to concrete poem to poem in the world is at all points filled with a vital restlessness Lisa Jarnot author of Night Scenes One must never forget that poets are makers most vividly so in Scotland where William Dunbar's Lament for the Makaris must still echo with uncanny poignance Poetry is a made thing as Robert Duncan put it No poet will ever manage a word much less a line without all the resources of that art in timeless history sounding there as each word finds its place in turn There is no way to learn simply the intimacy of voice that Finlay has always bringing one in to his physical person It is a constant of his art in all its forms Robert Creeley from the foreword to the 1996 edition of Ian Hamilton Finlay's The Dancers Inherit the Party and Glasgow Beasts and a Burd Ian Hamilton Finlay, 1994 Table Talk of Ian Hamilton Finlay Ian Hamilton Finlay, 1985 Ian Hamilton Finlay Yves Abrioux, Stephen Bann, 1992 Ian Hamilton Finlay A Visual Primer will be an indispensable source for readers interested in any aspect of his work Ian Hamilton Finlay, 1991 Ian Hamilton Finlay Ian Hamilton Finlay, 2012-04-02 This volume surveys the life and work of the Scottish poet Ian Hamilton Finlay who is best known for his extraordinary garden Little Sparta a unique poem of place in which poetry sculpture and horticulture intersect This book directs sustained attention to Finlay the verbal artist revealing the full breadth and richness of his poetics It illuminates the evolution from his early years of composing plays stories and lyrical poems to his discovery of Concrete poetry and his emergence as a key figure in the international avant garde of the 1960s Ian Hamilton Finlay Ian Hamilton Finlay, 1971 Ian Hamilton Finlay Ian Hamilton Finlay, Tom Lubbock, 2002 The renowned Scottish artist Ian Hamilton Finlay is principally a poet a Modernist artist who has consistently exploited nature literature and the potency of words in his art Ian Hamilton Finlay - poet of the woodland, 1991 Fragments: Ian Hamilton Finlay Hb SIMIG, 2025-05-08 Includes introductory essays by Emeritus Professor of History of Art Stephen Bann and art critic Tom Lubbock Two hundred color illustrations of Finlay's most noteworthy artistic creations Each artwork is accompanied by a short text either by the artist or by a noted writer on Finlay's work In celebration of the centenary of artist poet and landscape designer Ian Hamilton Finlay's birth Fragments draws together 100 of his artworks With each piece accompanied by a short text either by the artist or by a noted writer on Finlay's work this book accompanies a series of eight exhibitions taking place in Basel Brescia Edinburgh Hamburg Palma de Mallorca London New York and Vienna in May 2025 Best known for his Little Sparta a seven acre site at Stonypath farm in Scotland that has attained almost mythical status and for his installed guillotines A View to the Temple at Documenta Kassel 1987 Finlay's large body of work can be found in museums parks and gardens worldwide His artistic creations also incorporate short stories poems and concrete poetry many of which have been published by his own publishing house Wild Hawthorn Press and which with a mixture of wit and beauty engage with the relationship between violence and civilization Ian Hamilton Finlay Ian Hamilton Finlay, 1990 Works Ian Hamilton Finlay, 1989 Hommage to Ian Hamilton Finlay Yves Abrioux, 1987 Single Words for Ian Hamilton Finlay Ian Hamilton Finlay, 1996 Ian Hamilton Finlay Ian Hamilton Finlay, 1990 Ian Hamilton Finlay Ian Hamilton Finlay, 1977 Ian Hamilton Finlay, 1972 Ian Hamilton Finlay Ian Hamilton Finlay, 1990 Ian Hamilton Finlay - a Memoir Christopher McIntosh, 2014-10-27 This is a personal portrait of the Scottish poet and artist Ian Hamilton Finlay his life and work by Christopher McIntosh his friend of nearly three decades who took part in many of his battles and campaigns McIntosh recounts Finlay's emergence as an avant garde writer and poet in the 1950s the creation together with his wife Sue of his famous garden at his home Stonypath Little Sparta in Lanarkshire his espousal of the ideals of the French Revolution his defence of classical values his idiosyncratic form of paganism Little Sparta was dedicated to Apollo his struggle against what he called the secular terror his many battles with the local taxation authorities with the French cultural establishment with publishers and with authors who misunderstood his work In many ways he was a paradoxical figure on the cultural scene a contemporary artist who opposed modern culture and fiercely upheld tradition in other words a kind of radical traditionalist Having been seen by many as an enfant terrible he was in his later years fettered by the establishment given honorary doctorates and an honorary professorship awarded a CBE and hailed as Scotland's greatest artist Today he has a world wide reputation and in 2004 a panel of artists and arts professionals voted the garden at Stonypath Little Sparta the most important work of Scottish art This lively personal tribute is a must for Finlay scholars and admirers A Collection of 45 Items by Ian Hamilton Finlay Ian Hamilton Finlay, 2000
