African Women Writers and the Politics of Gender Sadia Zulfiqar, 2016-09-23 This work examines the work of a group of African women writers who have emerged over the last forty years While figures such as Chinua Achebe Ben Okri and Wole Soyinka are likely to be the chief focus of discussions of African writing female authors have been at the forefront of fictional interrogations of identity formation and history In the work of authors such as Mariama B Senegal Buchi Emecheta Nigeria Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Nigeria Tsitsi Dangarembga Zimbabwe and Leila Aboulela Sudan there is a clear attempt to subvert the tradition of male writing where the female characters are often relegated to the margins of the culture and confined to the domestic private sphere This body of work has already generated a significant number of critical responses including readings that draw on gender politics and colonialism but it is still very much a minor literature and most mainstream western feminism has not sufficiently processed it The purpose of this book is three fold First it draws together some of the most important and influential African women writers of the post war period and looks at their work separately and together in terms of a series of themes and issues including marriage family polygamy religion childhood and education Second it demonstrates how African literature produced by women writers is explicitly and polemically engaged with urgent political issues that have both local and global resonance the veil Islamophobia and a distinctively African brand of feminist critique Third it revisits Fredric Jameson's claim that all third world texts are national allegories and considers these novels by African women in relation to Jameson's claim arguing that their work has complicated Jameson's assumptions

The Opposite House Helen Oyeyemi, 2013-07-11 Rich and witty it confirms Helen Oyeyemi as a true original Ali Smith Powerful wonderfully unsettling Oyeyemi's raw style is great Time Out Beautiful this is about the difficulties of knowing who you are especially if you are born of several incompatible cultures It has the ring of truth The Times Maja Carmen Carrera was only five years old when her black Cuban family emigrated from the Caribbean to London leaving her with one complete memory a woman singing in a voice both eerie and enthralling at their farewell party while little Maja peered out from beneath a table Now almost twenty years later Maja herself is a singer in love with Aaron pregnant and haunted by what she calls her Cuba Growing up in London she has struggled to negotiate her history and the sense that speaking the Spanish or the English of her people's conquistadors made her less of a black girl But she is unable to find in herself the Ewe Igbo or Swahili of her roots It seems all that's left is silence And on the other side of the reality wall Yemaya Saramagua Yemaya of the ocean lives in the Somewherehouse with two doors one opening to London the other to Lagos Yemaya is troubled by the ease with which her fellow gods have disguised themselves as saints and reappeared under different names and faces

_____ The Opposite House is about the disquiet that follows us across places and languages a feeling passed down from mother and father to son and daughter It is an unforgettable second novel from the author of The Icarus Girl

Telling it Slant Chloe Buckley, Sarah Illott, 2017-02-23 This collection develops a body of research around critically acclaimed author Helen Oyeyemi putting her in dialogue with other contemporary writers and tracing her relationship with other works and literary traditions Spanning the settings and cultural traditions of Britain Nigeria and the Caribbean her work highlights the interconnected histories and cultures wrought by multiple waves of enslavement colonization and migration This collection describes how Oyeyemi's work engages in an innovative way with Gothic literature reworking the tropes of a Western Gothic tradition in order to examine the fraught process of establishing identity in a postcolonial context It demonstrates ways in which Oyeyemi is also a trouble making feminist voice employing feminist strategies to rewrite genres parody literary forms and critique the characterization of woman in literature Finally it suggests that Oyeyemi s oeuvre marks a new direction in postcolonial studies as she writes within and about the former colonial centre of Britain whilst foregrounding enduring colonial legacies that are referenced through the physical and psychological trauma associated with migration displacement racism and contested national identities

Postcolonial Poetics Elleke Boehmer, 2018-06-27 Postcolonial Poetics is about how we read postcolonial and world literatures today and about how the structures of that writing shape our reading The book s eight chapters explore the ways in which postcolonial writing in English from various 21st century contexts including southern and West Africa and Black and Asian Britain interacts with our imaginative understanding of the world Throughout the focus is on reading practices where reading is taken as an inventive border traversing activity one that postcolonial writing with its interests in margins intersections subversions and crossings specifically encourages This close sustained focus on reading reception and literariness is an outstanding feature of the study as is its wide generic range embracing poetry essays and life writing as well as fiction The field defining scholar Elleke Boehmer holds that literature has the capacity to keep reimagining and refreshing how we understand ourselves in relation to the world and to some of the most pressing questions of our time including resistance reconciliation survival after terror and migration
