L. Rowe,Linda Merryman,1977 The Making of Indian Diplomacy Deep K. Datta-Ray,2015-05-21 Diplomacy is conventionally understood as an authentic European invention which was internationalised during colonialism

For Indians the moment of colonial liberation was a false dawn because the colonised had internalised a European logic and performed European practices Implicit in such a reading is the enduring centrality of Europe to understanding Indian diplomacy This Eurocentric discourse renders two possibilities impossible that diplomacy may have Indian origins and that they offer un theorised potentialities Abandoning this Eurocentric model of diplomacy Deep Datta Ray recognises the legitimacy of independent Indian diplomacy and brings new practices He creates a conceptual space for Indian diplomacy to exist forefronting civilisational analysis and its focus on continuities but refraining from devaluing transformational change

The Ideal Home Educator ,1905 Utopia and the Ideal Society J. C. Davis,1983-07-28 This text provides a major study for all those working in the fields of 16th and 17th century political and social thought Personnel Management Abstracts ,1980 Windows into The West Wing Patrick Webster,2020-05-05 The West Wing first broadcast in 1999 is thought by many to have been one of the most significant dramas shown on network television Despite its overly idealized depiction of American political life and blatant contradictions in the way we consider America its values its aspirations and its behavior in the world The West Wing nonetheless succeeds in attaining popular national and international aesthetic appeal This book aspires to explain the appeal of the show by considering issues such as race religion sexuality disability and education from both a practical and theoretical perspective through the lenses of feminism gender theory Marxism psychoanalytical theories structuralism poststructuralism postcolonialism and more It seeks to offer informative and revealing readings of one of the most significant television productions of recent times Ethical Materialities in Art and Moving Images Silke Panse,2024-12-26 Starting from the premise that after modernism and postmodernism in the Anthropocene an artwork cannot rest upon its separation from the planet this volume develops new ethical practice and thought with respect to art philosophy and moving images Practitioners and theorists examine how the relations between the ethical and the material figure in a context in which a dearth of ethical practice and thought has caused the materialities of the Anthropocene and the climate catastrophe Ethics are generally regarded as constituted through immaterial relations guided by moral imperatives By contrast this volume argues that the singular ethicalities that are manifested in a work cannot be captured by abstract ethics The explorations of the ethical here are not prescriptive but creative Through artistic and philosophical thought and practice the contributions move beyond the division between an active practice of ethics and a contemplative theory of aesthetics They ask what ethicalities and materialities are at play in the relations between the artist the art their worlds and the planet after new materialism and posthumanism Rather than transcending the ethical through the material or the material through the ethical the contributions articulate the singular relations between them and consider the inter and intra active ethical and material relations of art and images in biodiverse environments They suggest that to bring out the ethical dimensions of the material and the material dimension of the ethical without identifying one with the other is a responsibility of art and images Lee Lozano Jo Applin,2018-01-01 An illuminating study of an overlooked artist from the 1960s whose work has recently returned to the limelight This is the first in depth study of the idiosyncratic ten year career of Lee Lozano 1930 1999 assuring this important artist a key place in histories of post war art The book charts the entirety of Lozano s production in 1960s New York from her raucous drawings and paintings depicting broken tools genitalia and other body parts to the final exhibition of her spectacular series of abstract Wave Paintings at the Whitney Museum of American Art in 1970 Highly regarded at the time Lozano is now perhaps best known for Dropout Piece 1970 a conceptual artwork and dramatic gesture with which she quit the art world Shortly afterwards she announced she would have no further contact with other women Her dropout and boycott of women lasted until her death by which time she was all but forgotten This book tackles head on the challenges that Lozano poses to art history and especially to feminist art history attending to her failures as well as her successes and arguing that through dead ends and impasses she struggled to forge an alternative mode of living Lee Lozano Not Working looks for the means to think about complex figures like Lozano whose radical politically ambiguous gestures test our assumptions about feminism and the right way to live and work Parenting Sayyed Ali Samadi,2022-05-04 Parenting is a lifelong task and parents are always remaining as a parent Parenting in the present situation faces many challenges which need to be reviewed and understood with profuse equanimity and alacrity This book tries to consider the process of parenting in different conditions such as during COVID 19 lockdown in the refugee camps and in different cultural structures and economic conditions Situations that families face due to changing conditions such as global changes which cause lifestyles immigration patterns social conflicts and raising children with developmental disabilities have been discussed Topics such as professional concern with child care and education gender roles and caregiving and father s involvement in parenting have been covered in different chapters of the book Human Behavior ,1974 Electrical Merchandising Week ,1928 Includes annually 1961 Home goods data book Nineteenth Century Prose ,2013 The Plant Disease Bulletin ,1956 The Plant Disease Reporter ,1956
