Epiphanies in the Modernist Short Story Valeria Taddei,2024-04-10 The poetics of epiphany have long been recognised as a broad aesthetic trend of modernism related to the power of art to reveal the hidden essence of reality Yet the critical use of the concept is still contested complicated by the fact that in many modernist works exceptional moments are anything but revealing This book embraces the blurred nature of epiphanies and sets out to explore their effects in a comparative journey paralleling Anglophone and Italian modernist short fiction The work of four modernist short story writers Luigi Pirandello James Joyce Federigo Tozzi and Katherine Mansfield illuminates epiphanies as complex phenomena connected to multiple aspects of modernist culture which appear in artistic experiences developed independently in the same decades The ideas of Henri Bergson William James Martin Heidegger and Maurice Merleau Ponty among others nuance our understanding of the stories and of the author s vision behind them At least three threads emerge as a result as common characteristics of modernist epiphanies First they are a result of the inward turn and of the curiosity about the psyche s subconscious processes Second they attempt to rediscover lived experience as a source of partial but reliable knowledge Third they re actualise mystical experiences as conduits to a secular insight about life The main appeal of these modernist moments of enlightenment is precisely that they establish an atmosphere of ambiguity where multiple and sometimes irreconcilable potential meanings can be found By so doing they succeed in evoking the undifferentiated creative potential that according to the widespread vitalist philosophies of the age constitutes the essence of life In reframing ambiguity and indeterminacy as spaces of creation and choice epiphanies thus bring out a lesser known life affirming but not naive vein of modernist inspiration
