Indonesian Islamic Fiction in the 21st Century: Representations of the Other in the Works of Forum Lingkar Pena Muh Arif Rokhman , 2022-01-28 THIS BOOK examines a selection of fictional works by writers belonging to the Indonesian association of writers Forum Lingkar Pena Pen Circle Forum hereafter referred to as FLP Figures from 2010 suggest that this organisation had around 5 000 members across 93 Indonesian branches and ten overseas branches Writers recruited and trained by FLP have produced approximately nine hundred published works Their works are often categorised as Islamic or religious literature sastra religi This label ling of FLP s literary output as Islamic literature has arisen principally be cause of the publicly expressed aims and beliefs of key FLP figures which include such notions as sastra dakwah literature for religious propaga tion In order to contextualise the emergence of FLP in the final years of the twentieth century and to locate this organisation within wider Indo nesian literary developments it is necessary to take account of cultural debates that came to the fore with the profound social and political changes which accompanied the end of the New Order regime in 1998 Conflict and Colonialism in 21st Century Romantic Historical Fiction Hsu-Ming Teo, Paloma Fresno-Calleja, 2024-06-13 This book explores how postmillennial Anglophone women writers use romantic narrativisations of history to explore revise repurpose and challenge the past in their novels exposing the extent to which past societies were damaging to women by instead imagining alternative histories The novelists discussed employ the generic conventions of romance to narrate their understanding of historical and contemporary injustice and to reflect upon women s achievements and the price they paid for autonomy and a life of public purpose The volume seeks firstly to discuss the work of revision or reparation being performed by romantic historical fiction and secondly to analyse how the past is being repurposed for use in the present It contends that the discourses and genre of romance work to provide a reparative reading of the past but there are limitations and entrenched problems in such readings Musing the Mosaic Matthew Roberson, 2012-02-01 In Musing the Mosaic prominent critics of postmodern and contemporary fiction and culture discuss the fictional and theoretical works of Ronald Sukenick one of the most important American writers to emerge from the late 1960s Sukenick has been a prolific participant in reshaping the American literary tradition for two generations and played a pivotal role in the creation and growth of the Fiction Collective and FC2 publishing houses as well as the journals American Book Review and Black Ice Magazine In his work he argues that contemporary fiction can neither perform traditional functions nor rely on any conventions in an ever more dynamic world Staying true to Sukenick's own creative style one that takes the seams out of writing before re stitching it in ways that are truly novel the contributors examine how and why his writing comes closer to the dissolving fragmentary nature of reality and its lack of closure than perhaps anything written before it Science and

Routledge Handbook of International Law and the Humanities Shane Chalmers, Sundhya Pahuja, 2021-05-19 This Handbook brings together 40 of the world's leading scholars and rising stars who study international law from disciplines in the humanities from history to literature philosophy to the visual arts to showcase the distinctive contributions that this field has made to the study of international law over the past two decades Including authors from Australia Canada Europe India South Africa the UK and the USA all the contributors engage the question of what is distinctive and critical about the work that has been done and that continues to be done in the field of international law and the humanities For many of these authors answering this question involves reflecting on the work they themselves have been contributing to this path breaking field since its inception at the end of the twentieth century For others it involves offering models of the new work they are carrying out or else reflecting on the future directions of a field that has now taken its place as one of the most important sites for the study of international legal practice and theory Each of the book's six parts foregrounds a different element or cluster of elements of international law and the humanities from an attention to the office conduct and training of the jurist and jurisprudent Part 1 to scholarly craft and technique Part 2 to questions of authority and responsibility Part 3 history and historiography Part 4 plurality and community Part 5 as well as the challenge of thinking and rethinking international legal concepts for our times Part 6 Outlining new ways of imagining and doing international law at a moment in time when original critical thought and practice is more necessary than ever this Handbook will be essential for scholars students and practitioners in international law international relations as well as in law and the humanities more generally

Novels of Everyday Life Laurie Langbauer, 2019-05-15 Laurie Langbauer argues that our worldview is shaped not just by great public events but also by the most overlooked and familiar aspects of common life the everyday This sphere of the everyday has always been a crucial component of the novel but has been ignored by many writers and critics and long associated with the writing of women Focusing on the linked series of novels characteristic of later Victorian and early modern fiction such as Margaret Oliphant's Carlingford Chronicles or the Sherlock Holmes stories she investigates how authors make use of the everyday as a foundation to support their versions of realism What happens when in the series novel or in contemporary theory the everyday becomes a site of contestation and debate Langbauer pursues this question through the novels of Margaret Oliphant Charlotte Yonge Anthony Trollope and Arthur Conan Doyle and in the writings of Dorothy Richardson Virginia Woolf and John Galsworthy as they reflect on their Victorian predecessors She also explores accounts of the everyday in the works of such theorists as Henri Lefebvre Michel de Certeau and Sigmund Freud as well as materialist critics including George Lukacs Max Horkheimer and Theodor Adorno Her work shows how these writers link the series and the everyday in ways that reveal different approaches to comprehending the obscurity that makes up daily life

Encyclopedia of New Populism and Responses in the 21st Century Joseph Chacko Chennattuserry, Madhumati Deshpande, Paul Hong, 2024-12-02 This book mainly seeks to explain define and update the recurring forms of populism in the 21st century Examples used in this Introduction are limited to English speaking countries But populism's existent expressions are ecumenically global Like any long lasting perennial organism it is sturdy and comes in a variety of forms adaptable to environmental changes In political or cultural terms its expression has been neither exclusively left center nor right Populism contains multitudes dates back centuries before it was identified with its modern name Populism has become a hot button issue in the recent times The UK's Sunday heavy The Guardian published about 300 articles in 1998 that used the term populism or populist and by 2016 its use had skyrocketed to over 2 000 And growing Probably the single greatest catalyst to date that injected populism into the world's Internet common discourse that infused it into journalism right left and center and awakened populist political activism was the Great Recession of 2007 08 and the subsequent global deprivations it engendered In today's world populism promises to remain and renew its intensity due to the covid 19 pandemic's deleterious effects on most nations middle and low income groups specially minorities These are some reasons among many why it is time for populism to be relocated identified and given refreshed 21st understandings It has a shifting nature among people events causes that constantly demands fresh studies It is a social and cultural phenomenon both universal and particular In our 21st century world it is a product of our shared cultures and each our own exceptional deep culture This Encyclopedia is unique in its composition as it includes all the major disciplines of Social Sciences and thus will be a one stop source of nine different disciplines looking at new populism David Madden Randy Hendricks, James A. Perkins, 2006 For four decades Knoxville Tennessee native David Madden has been writing compelling bestsellers such as Bijou and The Suicide's Wife as well as highly respected literary novels such as Sharpshooter David Madden A Writer for All Genres is the first full length critical work devoted to the whole of Madden's oeuvre and collectively the essays make the case that the attention paid to Madden's novels has overshadowed his innovative work as a critic poet short story writer and dramatist Madden is indeed a writer for all genres poetry fiction drama and criticism David Madden A Writer for all Genres will introduce a new generation of readers to an important and multitalented writer and begin a well deserved serious discussion of his place in the American literary tradition
