Fictional Genders Role Representation:

Fictional Genders Dorothy Kelly,1989 Literati Identity and Its Fictional Representations in Late Imperial China Stephen Roddy,1998 Examining three works of vernacular fiction dating from 1750 to 1828 this book studies the intellectual and literary factors that in the mid Qing dynasty contributed to the development of vernacular fiction of unprecedented scholarly and satirical sophistication

Youth Fiction and Trans Representation Tom Sandercock,2022-07-29 Youth Fiction and Trans Representation is the first book that wholly addresses the growth of trans and gender variant representation in literature television and films for children and young adults in the twenty first century Ranging across an array of media including picture books novels graphic novels animated cartoons and live action television and feature films Youth Fiction and Trans Representation examines how youth texts are addressing and contributing to ongoing shifts in understandings of gender in the new millennium While perhaps once considered inappropriate for youth and continuing to face backlash trans and gender variant representation in texts for young people has become more common which signals changes in understandings of childhood and adolescence as well as gender expression and identity Youth Fiction and Trans Representation provides a broad outline of developments in trans and gender variant depictions for young people in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries and closely analyzes a series of millennial literary and screen texts to consider how they communicate a range of often competing ideas about gender identity expression and embodiment to implied child and adolescent audiences

Gender and Representation in British 'Golden Age' Crime Fiction Megan Hoffman,2016-05-17 This book provides an original and compelling analysis of the ways in which British women s golden age crime narratives negotiate the conflicting social and cultural forces that influenced depictions of gender in popular culture in the 1920s until the late 1940s The book explores a wide variety of texts produced both by writers who have been the focus of a relatively large amount of critical attention such as Agatha Christie Dorothy L Sayers and Margery Allingham but also those who have received comparatively little such as Christianna Brand Ngaio Marsh Gladys Mitchell Josephine Tey and Patricia Wentworth Through its original readings this book explores the ambivalent nature of modes of femininity depicted in golden age crime fiction and shows that seemingly conservative resolutions are often attempts to provide a modern yet safe solution to the conflicts raised in the texts

Gender and Representation Lou Charnon-Deutsch,1990-01-01 Applying recent European and Anglo American feminist scholarship to the problems of gender representation Charnon Deutsch challenges the prevailing idea that the 19th century Spanish novel is woman centered The author s examination of novels by Valera Pereda Alas and Galdos demonstrates that these works are instead a complex exploration of male identity Decoding the gender ideology of women s roles discourse and representations Charnon Deutsch uncovers in the novels multiple configurations of androcentricity as well as voyeuristic tendencies which she interprets as a means of mastering what is threatening to the male psyche

Class Representation in Modern Fiction and Film K. Gandal,2007-04-16 A fresh exploration of the representation of poverty and class in American literature and film through the juxtaposition of films writings and the unusual lives of Zora Neale Hurston Stephen Crane Henry Miller and Michel Foucault The book argues for Hurston s centrality not merely to the African American canon but to the American tradition

Hard-boiled Fiction as a Realistic Representation of American Gender Identities? Analyzing Masculinity and Femininity in "The Maltese Falcon"

,2021-08-23 Seminar paper from the year 2017 in the subject Didactics for the subject English History of Literature Eras grade 2 0 University of Paderborn language English abstract In this term paper I am going to argue that the reason for the gender conflict as well as the gender development in hard boiled detective fiction can be found in the historical background and historical incidents of which the United States suffered during the Twenties Further I will support Seesslen s claim that after World War I there was the public s desire for a more honest and harsh view of America which is fulfilled by the post war realism used in hard boiled fiction For this I will try to outline the realism in Dashiell Hammett s The Maltese Falcon 1930 as a representation and or critique of the United States in the 1920s This particular novel is used because it can be seen as representative for many other hard boiled fictions and the hard boiled genre in general as Dashiell Hammett s work redefined crime fiction His stories mark an obvious shift from the classical detective story in which the detective is the main crime solver in middle class suburban places to an urban space in the United States where organized crime gangsters and corruption pervade the city The characters involved in The Maltese Falcon will help to draw a certain connection between the historical development of the United States and the development of men and women in hard boiled fiction For that reason in chapter 2 I will try to define the hard boiled genre and in which way its plot structure and themes are shaped by the historical events and social issues of that time In chapter 3 I will present the two archetypal characters the Femme fatale and the tough guy in hard boiled fiction Because both of them can be found in The Maltese Falcon I will use this novel to analyse masculinity or more precisely the protagonist Sam Spade and femininity mainly Brigid O Shaughnessy in chapter 4 and 5 By means of the conclusion in chapter 6 I will summarize the main results in order to support my thesis that the hard boiled fictions plot especially the gender identities mirror historical incidents and social developments the United States underwent during 1920 onward In addition I will put the insights on femininity and masculinity in hard boiled detective fictions in a broader context concerning the film industry and the hard boiled fiction s impact on following genres just like Film noir

Our Henry James in Fiction, Film, and Popular Culture John Carlos Rowe,2022-07-12 Our Henry James in Fiction Film and Popular Culture addresses the interesting revival of Henry James s works in Anglo American film adaptations and contemporary fiction from the 1960s to the present James s fiction is generally considered difficult and part of high culture more appropriate for classroom study than popular appreciation However this volume focuses on the adaptation of his novels into films challenging us to understand James s popular reputation today on both sides of the Atlantic The book offers two explanations for his persistent influence James s literary ambiguity and his reliance on popular culture Part I His Times considers James's reliance on sentimental literature and theatrical melodrama in Daisy Miller Guy Domville The Awkward Age and several of his lesser known short stories Part II Our Times focuses on how James's considerations of changing gender roles and sexual identities have influenced Hollywood representations of emancipated women in Hitchcock's Rear Window and Peter Bogdanovich's The Last Picture Show among others Recent fiction by authors including James Baldwin and Leslie Marmon Silko also treat Jamesian notions of gender and sexuality while considering his part in contemporary debates about globalization and cosmopolitanism Both a study of James's works and a broad range of contemporary film and fiction Our Henry James in Fiction Film and Popular Culture demonstrates the continuing relevance of Henry James to our multimedia interdisciplinary globalized culture The Black Imagination, Science Fiction and the Speculative Sandra Jackson, Julie Moody Freeman, 2013-10-18 This book expands the discourse as well as the nature of critical commentary on science fiction speculative fiction and futurism literary and cinematic by Black writers The range of topics include the following black superheroes issues and themes in selected works by Octavia Butler selected work of Nalo Hopkinson the utopian and dystopian impulse in the work of W E B Du Bois and George Schuyler Derrick Bell's Space Traders the Star Trek Franchise female protagonists through the lens of race and gender in the Alien and Predator film franchises science fiction in the Caribbean Diaspora commentary on select African films regarding near future narratives as well as a science fiction speculative literature writer's discussion of why she writes and how This book was published as a special issue of African Identities An International Journal Indonesian Islamic Fiction in the 21st Century: Representations of the Other in the Works of Forum Lingkar Pena Muh Arif Rokhman, 2022-01-28 THIS BOOK examines a selection of fictional works by writers belonging to the Indonesian association of writers Forum Lingkar Pena Pen Circle Forum hereafter referred to as FLP Figures from 2010 suggest that this organisation had around 5 000 members across 93 Indonesian branches and ten overseas branches Writers recruited and trained by FLP have produced approximately nine hundred published works Their works are often categorised as Islamic or religious literature sastra religi This labelling of FLP's literary output as Islamic literature has arisen principally because of the publicly expressed aims and beliefs of key FLP figures which include such notions as sastra dakwah literature for religious propagation In order to contextualise the emergence of FLP in the final years of the twentieth century and to locate this organisation within wider Indonesian literary developments it is necessary to take account of cultural debates that came to the fore with the profound social and political changes which accompanied the end of the New Order regime in 1998 The Routledge Companion to Gender and Science Fiction Lisa Yaszek, Sonja Fritzsche, Keren Omry, Wendy Gay Pearson, 2023-02-10 The Routledge Companion to Gender and Science Fiction is the first large scale reference work of its kind critically assessing the relations of gender and genre in science fiction SF especially but not exclusively as explored in speculative art by women and LGBTQ artists across the world This global volume builds upon the traditions of interdisciplinary inquiry by connecting established topics in gender studies and science fiction studies with emergent ideas from researchers in different media Taken together they challenge conventional generic boundaries provide new ways of approaching familiar texts recover lost artists and introduce new ones connect the revival of old hate based politics with the increasing visibility of imagined futures for all and show how SF stories about new kinds of gender relations inspire new models of artistic technoscientific and political practice Their chapters are grouped into five conversations about the history of gender and genre theoretical frameworks subjectivities medias and transmedialities and transtemporalities that are central to discussions of gender and SF in the current moment A range of both emerging and established names in media literature and cultural studies engage with a huge diversity of topics including eco criticism animal studies cyborg and posthumanist theory masculinity critical race studies Indigenous futurisms Black girlhood and gaming This is an essential resource for students and scholars studying gender sexuality and or science fiction Women's Tanci Fiction in Late Imperial and Early Twentieth-century China Li Guo,2015 In Women s Tanci Fiction in Late Imperial and Early Modern China Li Guo presents the first book length study in English of women s tanci fiction the distinctive Chinese form of narrative written in rhymed lines during the late imperial to early modern period related to but different from the orally performed version also called tanci She explores the tradition through a comparative analysis of five seminal texts Guo argues that Chinese women writers of the period position the personal within the diegesis in order to reconfigure their moral commitments and personal desires By fashioning a feminine representation of subjectivity tanci writers found a habitable space of self expression in the male dominated literary tradition Through her discussion of the emergence evolution and impact of women s tanci Guo shows how historical forces acting on the formation of the genre serve as the background for an investigation of cross dressing self portraiture and authorial self representation Further Guo approaches anew the concept of woman oriented perspective and argues that this perspective conceptualizes a narrative framework in which the heroine s are endowed with mobility to exercise their talent and power as social beings as men s equals Such a woman oriented perspective redefines normalized gender roles with an eye to exposing women s potentialities to transform historical and social customs in order to engender a world with better prospects for women This work will be a significant contribution to scholarship Chinese women s tanci novels in late imperial Qing and early twentieth century China are numerous in collections however their scholarly studies are still insufficient This book covers some understudied tanci texts and sheds new insights in the studied area It also brings in association study with other Chinese writing genres during the late Qing period as well as comparative perspective within the world culture when possible Qingyun Wu California State University Los Angeles Language, Gender and Children's Fiction Jane Sunderland,2011-01-13 Looks at gender in relation to children s fiction And The role that language plays in this relationship Representations of the Post/human Elaine L. & TV Studies - WP 2010/2: Gender Representations in Belgian Children's Programmes ,      Racial, Ethnic, Gender and Class Representations in Margaret Laurence's Writings Andreea Topor-Constantin,2013-07-26

Racial Ethnic Gender and Class Representations in Margaret Laurence s Writings is a study on Canada Canadian literature and Margaret Laurence s works in particular thus addressing various kinds of readership This book avoids the danger of limiting the approach to solely focusing attention on Canada by presenting a thorough analysis of various literary genres allowing the book to be of interest to all literature lovers Furthermore the book explores the parallelism between life and fiction emphasising Laurence s biographic and realist elements and their influence on the writer s fictional writing revealing real and imaginary worlds which would appeal to anybody s literary needs This major contribution to the already existent criticism of Margaret Laurence s works lies in the analysis of her work as an entity balancing both terms of the common binary oppositions fiction versus non fiction Africa versus Canada white versus Black or Metis In spite of critical comments which might be raised Andreea Topor Constantin comments on how the voice of the marginal makes itself heard throughout the author s books underlying Laurence s emphasis on characterisation and her genuine concern for people This book covers all aspects of Laurence s life and fiction from the African to the writer s Canadian background from adults to children s literature from novels to short stories from essays to letters in order to challenge readers perceptions of race ethnicity gender and class      Subverting Sex, Gender, and Genre in Cuban and Mexican Detective Fiction Ailsa Peate,2024-09-25

The presence of bodies and sex in detective fiction has been a long term feature of this internationally popular genre Titillation is at the centre of narratives reliant upon discovery and revelation motives and criminals are slowly revealed along with sexualized and violated bodies from femmes fatales to the corpses of victims A satisfying gratifying genre for its readership the detective novel promises the disruption and subsequent restoration of order in societies tarnished by disillusionment which hope for a better future This book takes as its focus examples of detective fiction from Cuba and Mexico during or in the aftermath of huge social upheaval the Special Period and the War on Drugs analyzing representations of sexualities bodies and the genre itself Through an investigation of novels by Leonardo Padura and Amir Valle of Cuba and Belf and Rogelio Guedea of Mexico this work investigates increasingly fluid sexualities and bodies in challenging examples of metaphysical detective fiction a particularly anxious subgenre which challenges both the structures and limits of the detective novel and the reader s understanding of true and false and right and wrong representative of troubling periods of severe social disruption for Cuba and Mexico      Gender Roles and Political Contexts in Cold War Spy Fiction Sian

MacArthur,2022-10-31 This book analyses the gender roles and political contexts of spy fiction narratives published during the years of the Cold War It offers an introduction to the development of spy fiction both in England and in the United States and explores the ways in which issues such as the atomic bomb double agents paranoia propaganda and megalomania manifest themselves within the genre The book examines the ongoing marginalization of women within spy fiction texts exploring the idea that this unique period in global history is responsible for the active promotion and celebration of masculinity and male superiority From James Bond to Jason Bourne the book evaluates the ongoing enforcement of patriarchal ideas and oppressions that in the name of national security and patriotic duty have contributed to the development of a genre in which discrimination and bias continue to dominate

Teaching Crime Fiction Charlotte Beyer, 2018-07-18 More than perhaps any other genre crime fiction invites debate over the role of popular fiction in English studies This book offers lively original essays on teaching crime fiction written by experienced British and international scholar teachers providing vital insight into this diverse genre through a series of compelling subjects Taking its starting point in pedagogical reflections and classroom experiences the book explores methods for teaching students to develop their own critical perspectives as crime fiction critics the impact of feminism postcolonialism and ecocriticism on crime fiction crime fiction and film the crime short story postgraduate perspectives and more

Women Scientists in Fifties Science Fiction Films Bonnie Noonan, 2015-02-18 In the 1950s science was rapidly advancing and so were scientific opportunities for women Modern science fiction films reflected these simultaneous social developments This book proposes that the social ideology of the 1950s which was partly concerned with gender issues saturated the B science fiction films of that era and inspired a new appreciation for the role of women in scientific advancements and other social achievements Drawing on feminist literary and cultural theory the author argues that the emergence of the modern American science fiction film in 1950 and the situation of post World War II female scientists together created a film genre That genre was explicitly amenable to exploring the tension between a woman s place in her home and her place in the work force particularly in scientific fields Early chapters provide a general introduction to the science fiction genre and specifically describe 1950s B science fiction films as they resonate with concerns proper to feminist theory Subsequent chapters offer detailed historically situated readings of 10 B science fiction films from the 1950s that feature women in science The cinematic representations of female scientists are compared and contrasted with real female professionals of the time illuminating the changing gender dynamics reflected in popular film in the 1950s Films analyzed include Rocketship X M It Came from Beneath the Sea Them Tarantula The Deadly Mantis Beginning of the End Kronos Cat Women of the Moon World Without End and Queen of Outer Space
