The Cellist's Vivaldi Nancy Price, 2014-07-17 Review of Antonio Vivaldi music for cello or violoncello 25 complete concertos and 9 sonatas Also other Vivaldi music for strings Making Music in Selznick's Hollywood Nathan Platte, 2018 This book tells the fascinating story of the evolution of David O Selznick's style through the many artists whose work defined Hollywood sound Music by Max Steiner Steven C. Smith, 2020-04-10 During a seven decade career that spanned from 19th century Vienna to 1920s Broadway to the golden age of Hollywood three time Academy Award winner Max Steiner did more than any other composer to introduce and establish the language of film music Indeed revered contemporary film composers like John Williams and Danny Elfman use the same techniques that Steiner himself perfected in his iconic work for such classics as Casablanca King Kong Gone with the Wind The Searchers Now Voyager the Astaire Rogers musicals and over 200 other titles And Steiner's private life was a drama all its own Born into a legendary Austrian theatrical dynasty he became one of Hollywood's top paid composers But he was also constantly in debt the inevitable result of gambling financial mismanagement four marriages and the actions of his emotionally troubled son Throughout his chaotic life Steiner was buoyed by an innate optimism a quick wit and an instinctive gift for melody all of which would come to the fore as he met and worked with luminaries like Richard Strauss George Gershwin Irving Berlin the Warner Bros David O Selznick Bette Davis Frank Sinatra and Frank Capra In Music by Max Steiner the first full biography of Steiner author Steven C Smith interweaves the dramatic incidents of Steiner's personal life with an accessible exploration of his composing methods and experiences bringing to life the previously untold story of a musical pioneer and master dramatist who helped create a vital new art with some of the greatest film scores in cinema history Radicals and Rogues Lottie

Whalen, 2024-01-22 From artists to activists an explosive and eye opening new history of the women who gave us New York This is the story of a group of women whose experiments in art and life set the tone for the rise of New York as the twentieth century capital of modern culture Across the 1910s and 20s through provocative creative acts shocking fashion political activism and dynamic social networks these women reimaged modern life and fought for the chance to realize their visions Taking the reader on a journey through the city's salons and bohemian hangouts Radicals and Rogues celebrates the tastemakers collectors curators artists and poets at the forefront of the early avant garde scene Focusing on these trailblazers at the center of artistic innovation including Beatrice Wood Mina Loy the Stettheimer sisters Clara Tice the Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney Marguerite Zorach and Louise Arensberg Lottie Whalen offers a lively new history of remarkable women in early twentieth century New York City Bernard Herrmann's The Ghost and Mrs. Muir David Cooper, 2005-08-04 In this guide Cooper considers Herrmann's musical technique and theorizes some of the ways in which music can be meaningful in film He also explores nonmusical contexts of the film including the screenplay's relationship to the popular novel from which it was adapted as well as the contribution of director Joseph L. Mankiewicz, the performances of Gene Tierney and Rex Harrison and the editing of Dorothy Spencer Cooper also provides a quantitative evidence-based study of the score. A rundown of all the cues in Herrmann's manuscript is followed by an examination of the score as a musical artifact. In his evaluation of the overall approach to the soundtrack, the author considers the musical detail of the score's structure, its themes and their orchestration. The Violin Mark Katz, 2006. This book is the only complete and up-to-date annotated bibliography available on women's activities and contributions in the creation and performance of music through the ages. Encompassing major books, articles and recordings published over the past five decades, the book examines a broad cross-section of contemporary thought with each entry with over 500 devoted to resources from countries outside the US including annotation along with a critical description of content. The Oxford Handbook of Film Music Studies David Neumeyer, 2014. The Oxford Handbook of Film Music Studies gathers two dozen original essays that chart the history and current state of interdisciplinary scholarship on music in audiovisual media focusing on four areas: history, genre and medium analysis and criticism and interpretation. Samuel Barber Wayne Wentzel, 2012-12-06. An annotated reference guide to Barber's life, works and achievements, it will prove valuable for anyone seeking information on him. Gregor Piatigorsky Terry King, 2014-01-10. Forced to provide for his family from the age of 8 and thrown out of his home into a bitter Moscow winter at age 12, cellist Gregor Piatigorsky began his career as an archetypal struggling artist using secondhand and borrowed instruments. When the October Revolution forced his escape to Warsaw, he enjoyed initial success with the Warsaw Philharmonic. Relocating to Berlin a few months later, he again struggled in poverty before eventually emerging as solo cellist with the Berlin Philharmonic. Settling in the United States during World II, Piatigorsky continued a brilliant career that cemented his place as one of the twentieth century's greatest musicians. This all-embracing chronicle of Piatigorsky's tempestuous life and career finally reveals the full life story of a musical legend.

Samuel Barber Remembered Peter Dickinson, 2010. Samuel Barber is one of America's most popular classical composers. The main source for this book is a panoply of vivid and eminently readable interviews by Peter Dickinson for a BBC Radio 3 documentary in 1981. The book also includes three of the few interviews extant with Barber himself. Adolf Busch, The Cue Sheet, 2002. Symphony, 2003. The Music of Charlie Chaplin Jim Lochner, 2018-09-20. Charlie Chaplin, the actor, is universally synonymous with his beloved Tramp character. Chaplin, the director, is considered one of the great auteurs and innovators of cinema history. Less well known is Chaplin, the composer, whose instrumental theme for Modern Times (1936) later became the popular standard Smile, a Billboard hit for Nat King Cole in 1954. Chaplin was prolific yet could not read or write music. It took a rotating cast of talented musicians to translate his unorthodox humming, off-key singing and amateur piano and violin playing into the singular orchestral vision he heard in his head. Drawing on numerous transcriptions from 60 years of original scores, this comprehensive study reveals the untold story of Chaplin, the composer.
