Forrest Landry, 2005-10 Avie Burkhardt is having a problem He doesn't know what he's here on Earth for All he knows is there is a strong feeling that SOMETHING is passing him by So he asks God to show him what he's supposed to be doing He didn't count on getting an Angel to tell him And he certainly didn't think he'd be able to do what She told him to do Kicking and screaming he's led to his life's work and work it is Avie labors for three long years by himself building something only God in all His Wisdom could have thought up And at long last he finishes it only to find it's lacking its major feature Once again the Angel steps in and Avie manages to finish it Forrest Landry's writing is framed in the recognition of God within us and observes how Man can communicate with God at all times Rated PG      Leaves from a hunting diary in Essex H.B.

Yerburgh, 1900      The Chicago of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2011 The importance of Chicago in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians While databases of bibliographical information on Chicago centered fiction are available they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s In The Chicago of Fiction A Resource Guide James A Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 1 200 works of fiction significantly set in Chicago and published between 1852 and 1980 The synopses include plot summaries names of major characters and an indication of physical settings An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies i.e. class ethnicity gender immigrant experience and race The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading particularly since genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included      The Military Half Jonathan Schell, 2013-01-02 In The Military Half legendary Vietnam War reporter for The New Yorker Jonathan Schell details the devastating effects of American bombings and ground operations on the provinces of Quang Ngai and Quang Tin in South Vietnam Schell provides first hand accounts of the bombing runs and how they contributed to the destruction of the two provinces giving a new generation of Americans an inside look at why the Vietnam War years after its conclusion is still a hot topic of debate in our country
