Fields Of Love:

Love, Sex, and Marriage Julie Coleman, 2022-06-13 If the language we use influences and reflects the way that we see the world then the fields of LOVE SEX and MARRIAGE will show how speakers of English view their closest social and emotional relationships Love Sex and Marriage provides a classification of English terms for these three fields from the earliest written records of the language until the present day This volume makes it possible to trace changing attitudes towards social and sexual ties and to understand those ties as earlier speakers of English did through the language they used The terms are arranged by meaning and are listed chronologically within semantic fields with their dates of usage Notes on individual terms provide further information about their connotations and development Language does not exist in isolation from the people who speak it so background information about changes in social conditions religious beliefs and medical advancements is also included A brief introduction to basic semantic terminology explains the principles behind the classification and an alphabetical index facilitates the location of individual terms

In Love with Movies Daniel Talbot, 2022-04-13 All that I do is go out and look at films and choose the ones I want to play films that stimulate and give some insight into our lives I hope that people will come but if they don t that s okay too Daniel Talbot changed the way the Upper West Side and art house audiences around the world went to the movies In Love with Movies is his memoir of a rich life as the impresario of the legendary Manhattan theaters he owned and operated and as a highly influential film distributor Talbot and his wife Toby opened the New Yorker Theater in 1960 cultivating a loyal audience of film buffs and cinephiles He went on to run several theaters including Lincoln Plaza Cinemas as well as the distribution company New Yorker Films shaping the sensibilities of generations of moviegoers The Talbots introduced American audiences to cutting edge foreign and independent filmmaking including the French New Wave and New German Cinema In this lively personal history of a bygone age of film exhibition Talbot relates how he discovered and selected films including future classics such as Before the Revolution Shoah My Dinner with Andre and The Marriage of Maria Braun He reminisces about leading world directors such as Semb ne Godard Fassbinder Wenders Varda and Kiarostami as well as industry colleagues with whom he made deals on a slip of paper or a handshake In Love with Movies is an intimate portrait of a tastemaker who was willing to take risks It not only lays out the nuts and bolts of running a theater but also tells the story of a young cinephile who turned his passion into a vibrant cultural community      Four Fields Tim Dee,2015-01-01 In this book Tim Dee tells the story of four green fields spread around the world their grasses their hedges their birds their skies and both their natural and human histories These four fields walkable mappable man made mowable knowable but also secretive mysterious wild contested and changing play central roles in the sweeping panorama of world history and in the lives of individuals In Dee s telling a field is never just a setting for great battles or natural disasters though it is often this as well A field is the oldest and simplest and truest measure of what a man needs in life especially when looked at contemplated worked in lived with and written about Dee s four fields which he has known and studied for more than twenty years are the fen field at the bottom of his private garden a field in southern Zambia a prairie in Little Bighorn Montana and a grass meadow in the Exclusion Zone at Chernobyl Ukraine Meditating on these four fields Dee makes us look anew at where we live and how He argues that we must attend to what we have made of the wild      Over There in the Air John A. Adams,2020-01-27 Over There in the Air tells the little known story of the contribution of Texas A M University to early aviation in World War I Over two thousand students served in the war in one capacity or another and of those about 250 were involved in the newest martial development military aviation The Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas as it was then known was regarded as one of the top leading academic institutions in the country for contributions to the nation s effort in the Great War Through painstaking research using unit records after action reviews alumni newsletters and countless other university documents John A Adams Jr paints a portrait of the Aggie aviator in the Great War Texas A M aviators flew in European air forces hunted German U boats went on scouting missions and served as attack pilots Adams has identified often for the first time those Aggies who served and follows them through training life on the front and the return home While much of the World War I story occurred over there just as much took place over here Adams explores the home front as well as the battlefield capturing campus life in the midst of mobilization recruitment and a devastating influenza epidemic that claimed as many as fifty campus lives Over There in the Air is a riveting book about an important contribution of a university to the World War I effort It is sure to catch the attention of all Aggies and those interested in aviation history      The Path of Love Ronald D. Cowen,2015-02-06 The Buddha was a scientist Instead of using a microscope or a particle accelerator the Buddha used ESP He had several psychic powers that allowed him to perceive in detail the psychology of karma the evolution of consciousness and subatomic particles He discovered love and self love to be organizing principles that evolved early in the history of intelligent consciousness especially with regard to feelings and emotions Every person has the deepest need to love and be loved He solved the mind body problem by perceiving the physical basis of intelligent consciousness These psychic powers are acknowledged in Hindu and Buddhist scriptures but extremely few people have them This book is essentially a meditation report written by someone who has them While this sounds like an invitation to return this book to the shelf in a bookstore it also documents in depth another report by a physicist Stephen Phillips who relates in comprehensive detail the relationship between modern superstring theory and extrasensory observation of the elements of the periodic table by Annie Besant and Charles Leadbeater of the Theosophical Society This strong connection between modern physics and psychic powers of the Buddha is a real challenge to both the modern scientist and the modern Buddhist

Demorest's Monthly Magazine ,1885 The Energies of Love Donna Eden,David Feinstein,2016-01-19 The bestselling authors of Energy Medicine and Energy Medicine for Women present a complete program for using energy medicine to heal and strengthen romantic relationships A relationship begins with the meeting of two unique energies This union of energies though invisible determines the way you communicate fight love and want to be loved In this groundbreaking book the bestselling authors of Energy Medicine draw on the real life experiences of couples who have attended their popular Energies of Love workshops as well as their own experience as husband and wife to show how an understanding of your energy system and that of your partner can help you build a more harmonious and loving bond We all have different ways of making sense of the world around us but when faced with conflict especially with those we care most about we tend to revert to one of four Energetic Stress Styles Visuals are extremely passionate and inspire others to care about the things they care about but in moments of conflict their take on the situation can overshadow what is actually occurring undermining their ability to empathize with their partner Kinesthetics are generous compassionate and accepting of other people but their caring nature pulls them in too many directions They try to meet others needs at the expense of their own which can cause mounting resentment Digitals are rational and principled and have a gift for quickly understanding complex situations but they can become closed to others perspectives and feelings Tonals have a gift for understanding others and their dilemmas but during moments of conflict their ability to read between the lines can morph into hearing what was never said felt or thought According to the authors the strongest relationships are those in which the two parties feel that they are partners on a shared spiritual journey By helping you better understand your own unique energy system as well as that of your partner you will be able to recognize your strengths as a couple and avoid the pitfalls The Energies of Love serves as a powerful resource for anyone who wishes to build a rich partnership while maintaining the spark that keeps a relationship exciting
