Encyclopedia of the Harlem Renaissance Aberjhani, Sandra L. West, 2003 Presents articles on the period known as the Harlem Renaissance during which African American artists poets writers thinkers and musicians flourished in Harlem New York The Shadowed Country Josh Gosciak, 2006-01-31 One of the most important voices of the Harlem Renaissance

Claude McKay is largely recognized for his work during the 1920s which includes a major collection of poems Harlem Shadows as well as a critically acclaimed novel Home to Harlem. But McKay was never completely comfortable with his literary reputation during this period. Throughout his world travels he saw himself as an English lyricist. In this compelling examination of the life and works of this complex poet, novelist, journalist, and short story writer, Josh Gosciak sheds light on McKay's literary contributions beyond his interactions with Harlem Renaissance artists and writers. Working within English literary traditions, McKay crafted a verse out of hybridity and diaspora. Gosciak shows how he reinvigorated a modern pastoral through his encounters with some of the major aesthetic and political movements of the late Victorian and early modern periods. Exploring new archival material as well as many of McKay's lesser-known poetic works, The Shadowed Country provides a unique interpretation of the writings of this major author.
