Sincerity's Shadow Deborah FORBES, Deborah Forbes, 2009-06-30 In a work of surprising range and authority Deborah Forbes refocuses critical discussion of both Romantic and modern poetry Sincerity's Shadow is a versatile conceptual toolkit for reading poetry Ever since Wordsworth redefined poetry as the spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings poets in English have sought to represent a sincere self consciousness through their work Forbes's generative insight is that this project can only succeed by staging its own failures Self representation never achieves final sincerity but rather produces an array of sincerity effects that give form to poetry's exploration of self In essays comparing poets as seemingly different in context and temperament as Wordsworth and Adrienne Rich Lord Byron and Anne Sexton John Keats and Elizabeth Bishop Forbes reveals unexpected convergences of poetic strategy A lively and convincing dialectic is sustained through detailed readings of individual poems By preserving the possible claims of sincerity longer than postmodern criticism has tended to while understanding sincerity in the strictest sense possible Forbes establishes a new vantage on the purposes of poetry the ground upon which the paradoxes of self consciousness can move most freely one of the acts most skeptical about the authority of any individual claim to self understanding In undertaking its experiments poetry may separate itself from certain contexts economic political historical but is itself as local and concrete as these contexts an experience as well as a meditation on our experiences In its particularity its flexibility its sensual and sonic complexity its consideration of the extra rational experiences of pleasure and desire and above all in the ways in which it speaks with both more and less authority more and less presence than an actual human voice poetry offers us the experience of the unknown at the core of proposed self knowledge This is lyric poetry s enduring though not sole claim on us A Concordance to the Poems of John Keats
