Love Me to Life Veronica Sites,2020-12-21 An unacknowledged crisis haunts the church as we fail to deal with the causes and aftermath of suicide and the stigma society often places on victims and their loved ones How can we stand up for life and love these people as the Body of Christ In Love Me to Life Veronica Sites responds from personal experience serious research and training and a biblical perspective Combining these crucial elements she presents a plan for responding with the gospel message as we live out the message of Jesus in our churches Crucial to this plan is involving leaders but also in educating and empowering all members to understand and positively impact those in need of support In support of this she provides detailed information on the situation as we find it in most churches She then looks at scripture for guidance in how we should deal with those who most need our support and sometimes active intervention Finally she looks at how the church can follow up and build the lives and ministries of the church to those in need This book is filled with practical experience detailed data and scriptural support It can provide the basis for a church to plan how they will acknowledge and respond to the suicide crisis Individuals and small groups can benefit greatly as well but we recommend studying this issue at the congregational level so that everyone is prepared to love their neighbors whether down the pew or down the street into a life of restoration and identity in Christ and not identified by a tragic event Thus this book is for everyone K'oria Misyõn P'ildũ ,1919

Muslims in America Paul S. Biswas, 2020-07-13 This book explores and articulates perceptions of Christianity among South Asian Muslims in America. The South Asian Muslim population in America includes many immigrants and their families. This book analyzes the perceptions of Christianity held by South Asian Muslims in three areas: theological, sociocultural, and ethical/moral. This book addresses both positive and negative perceptions of Christianity, although it mainly focuses on the misperceptions that give rise to conflicting views between Muslim and Christian. The primary goal of this book is to consider how flawed perceptions hinder the effective communication of the Christian gospel in efforts to witness to Muslims in America. This book further explores the sociocultural and ethnic differences among South Asian Muslims and the ways in which their perceptions of Christianity differ. More specifically, this book identifies the factors most likely to influence both positive and negative perceptions of Christianity among South Asian Muslims in America. This book also briefly explores the multi-faceted historical background of Islam in South Asia and the impact Islam has had on the assumptions and perceptions of Christianity of South Asian people in general and specifically on the thinking and perceptions of South Asian Muslims in America. This book includes qualitative research using an ethnographic case study approach. Data presented in this book are collected from two different sources: scholarly literature related to the focal group and structured interviews with a representative sample of South Asian Muslims in America. The anticipated result is to provide useful information and insights so Christian practitioners can develop useful tools for building harmonious relationships with South Asian Muslims in America and effectively communicating the gospel to them.
