Fifty Contemporary Filmmakers Yvonne Tasker, 2002 From Luc Besson to Quentin Tarantino Fifty Contemporary Film makers offers an up to date guide to the individuals who are shaping modern cinema

Contemporary American Independent Film Chris Holmlund, Justin Wyatt, 2005 This anthology addresses the salient aesthetic ideological and economic determinants of independent American cinema over the past three decades

Gurdjieff: The Key Concepts Sophia Wellbeloved, 2013-04-15 This unique book offers clear definitions of Gurdjieff's teaching terms placing him within the political geographic and cultural context of his time Entries look at diverse aspects of his Work including possible sources in religious Theosophical occult esoteric and literary traditions the integral relationships between different aspects of the teaching its internal contradictions and subversive aspects the derivation of Gurdjieff's cosmological laws and Enneagram the passive form of New Work teaching introduced by Jeanne de Salzmann

The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture Tom Brown, Belén Vidal, 2013-12-17 The biographical film or biopic is a staple of film production in all major film industries and yet within film studies its generic aesthetic and cultural significance has remained underexplored The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture fills this gap conceptualizing the biopic with a particular eye toward the life of the genre internationally New theoretical approaches combine with specially commissioned chapters on contemporary biographical film production in India Italy South Korea France Russia Great Britain and the US in order to present a selective but well rounded portrait of the biopic's place in film culture From Marie Antoinette to The Social Network the pieces in this volume critically examine the place of the biopic within ongoing debates about how cinema can and should represent history and real lives Contributors discuss the biopic's grounding in the conventions of the historical film and explore the genre's defining traits as well as its potential for innovation The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture expands the critical boundaries of this evolving versatile genre

The Oxford Handbook of American Film History Jon Lewis, 2025 In a series of newly commissioned chapters The Oxford Handbook of American Film History offers a new and fully compelling discussion of American film as marked by significant moments of industrial and artistic change Many of the chapters are built upon primary sourced research while others detail aspects of form and style Together the chapters in this book show a history shaped by multiple theses and voices and interests Historical Dictionary of Taiwan Cinema Daw-Ming Lee,2012-11-08 Taiwan was able to solidly build and sustain a film industry only after locally produced Mandarin films secured markets in Hong Kong and Southeast Asia during the 1960s and 1970s Though only a small island with a limited population in its heyday Taiwan was among the top 10 film producing countries areas in the world turning out hundreds of martial arts kung fu films and romantic melodramas annually that were screened in theaters across Southeast Asia and other areas internationally However except for one acclaimed film by director King Hu Taiwan cinema was nearly invisible on the art cinema map until the 1980s when the films of Hou Hsiao hsien Edward Yang and other Taiwan New Cinema directors gained recognition at international film festivals first in Europe and later throughout the world Since then many other Taiwan directors have also become an important part of cinema history such as Ang Lee and Tsai Ming liang The Historical Dictionary of Taiwan Cinema covers the history of cinema in Taiwan during both the Japanese colonial period 1895 1945 and the Chinese Nationalist period 1945 present This is accomplished through a chronology highlighting the main events during the long period and an introduction which carefully analyses the progression The bulk of the information however appears in a dictionary section including over a hundred very extensive entries on directors producers performers films film studios and genres Photos are also included in the dictionary section More information can be found through the bibliography Taiwan cinema is truly unique and this book is a good place to find out more about it whether you are a student or teacher or just a fan The Routledge Companion to Film History William Guynn,2010-09-13 The Routledge Companion to Film History is an indispensable guide for anyone studying film history for the first time Incorporating a series of 11 introductory critical essays on key subject areas with a dictionary of key names and terms it serves to introduce the reader to the field of film history in a comprehensive and well rounded manner Chinese Modernity and Global Biopolitics Sheldon H. Lu,2007-05-31 This ambitious work is a multimedia interdisciplinary study of Chinese modernity in the context of globalization from the late nineteenth century to the present Sheldon Lu draws on Chinese literature film art photography and video to broadly map the emergence of modern China in relation to the capitalist world system in the economic social and political realms Central to his study is the investigation of biopower and body politics namely the experience of globalization on a personal level Lu first outlines the trajectory of the body in modern Chinese literature by focusing on the adventures pleasures and sufferings of the male and female body in the writings of selected authors He then turns to avant garde and performance art tackling the physical self more directly through a consideration of work that takes the body as its very theme material and medium In an exploration of mass visual culture Lu analyzes artistic reactions to the multiple uneven effects of globalization and modernization on both the physical landscape of China and the interior psyche of its citizens This is followed by an inquiry into contemporary Chinese urban space in popular cinema and experimental photography and art Examples are offered that capture the daily lives of contemporary Chinese as they struggle to make the transition from the vanishing space of the socialist lifestyle to the new capitalist economy of commodities Lu reexamines the history and implications of China's belated integration into the capitalist world system before closing with a postscript that traces the genealogy of the term postsocialism and points to the real relevance of the idea for the investigation of everyday life in China in the twenty-first century

The Asian Influence on Hollywood Action Films Barna William Donovan, 2014-09-17 Filmmakers of the Pacific Rim have been delivering punches and flying kicks to the Hollywood movie industry for years This book explores the ways in which the storytelling and cinematic techniques of Asian popular culture have migrated from grainy low budget martial arts movies to box office blockbusters such as The Magnificent Seven, Star Wars, The Matrix and Transformers While special effects gained prominence the raw and gritty power of live combat emerged as an audience favorite spawning Asian stars Bruce Lee and Jackie Chan and martial arts trained stars Chuck Norris and Steven Seagal As well as capturing the sheer onscreen adrenaline rush that characterizes the films discussed this work explores the impact of violent cinematic entertainment and why it is often misunderstood

David Bowie and Film Stephen Glynn, 2022-10-31 This book constitutes the first monograph dedicated to an academic analysis of David Bowie's appearances in film Through close textual analysis together with production and reception histories Bowie's silver screen career is explored in full The book covers performance documentaries such as Ziggy Stardust and the Spiders from Mars star vehicles ranging from the eulogised The Man Who Fell to Earth to the excoriated Just a Gigolo plus roles from the horror chic of The Hunger and cult fantasy of Labyrinth to the valiant high brow Baal and vainglorious high budget Absolute Beginners ending with Bowie as Bowie in Bandslam and others as Bowie in Velvet Goldmine and Stardust Alongside showing his willingness to experiment and at times fail across a variety of genres this study investigates Bowie's performative style that while struggling to accommodate the requirements of cinematic realism fits more harmoniously with alternative production codes and aesthetics More broadly by exploring the commercial socio cultural and ideological significance of Bowie on film the book demonstrates how notions of gender sexuality and identity formation plus commodity and cultural capital function and fluctuate in contemporary society

Journeys of Desire Alastair Phillips, Ginette Vincendeau, 2019-07-25 A comprehensive guide to European actors in American film this book brings together 15 chapters with A-Z entries on over 900 individuals It includes case studies of prominent individuals and phenomena associated with the emigres such as the stereotyping of European actresses in bad women roles and the irony of Jewish actors playing Nazis

Studies on Cinematography and Narrative in Film: Sequels, Serials, and Trilogies Seçmen, Emre Ahmet, 2024-07-18 Visual continuity in sequels poses a daunting challenge for filmmakers as they strive to maintain coherence while expanding upon established narratives and visual aesthetics With cinema's evolution audiences' expectations have grown more sophisticated demanding seamless transitions and immersive experiences across film series However achieving this continuity requires a delicate balance between honoring the original work and introducing innovative elements to captivate viewers Addressing this complication is the book Studies on Cinematography and Narrative in Film Sequels Serials and Trilogies which emerges with a comprehensive approach By delving into the interplay between cinematography and narrative structure this book offers invaluable insights for filmmakers seeking to navigate the complexities of sequel production Through meticulous analysis of prominent film series and theoretical frameworks it provides a roadmap for achieving visual coherence while pushing creative boundaries

Negotiating the auteur Julia Dobson, 2019-01-25 This book provides the first detailed analysis of the work of four important contemporary directors whose work falls between the reductive labels of auteur cinema and popular cinema Their work is contextualised within this timely investigation into the shifting relationship between the privileged status of the auteur and questions of genre gender and cinematic production in France today This important contribution to understanding the shifting landscapes of contemporary French film identifies an essential intermediacy in the films of these directors which works to undo a series of dominant oppositions generic template and contestation public collectivity and personal intimacy to offer a new perspective on the location of the political in contemporary French cinema The four chapters provide detailed critical analysis of films by Dominique Cabrera Laetitia Masson No mie Lvovsky and Marion Vernoux and present common thread including the possible construction of social intimacy the political demystification of romance narratives and the role of nostalgia to argue that their work uses popular genres in order to challenge dominant cultural representation that resonates beyond the immediate parameters of contemporary French cinema This book will be of interest to researchers working in French and European cinema to students of Film Studies and French and Francophone Studies and to film enthusiasts

Historical Film Jonathan Stubbs, 2013-03-28 Although precise definitions have not been agreed on historical cinema tends to cut across existing genre categories and establishes an intimidatingly large group of films In recent years a lively body of work has developed around historical cinema much of it proposing valuable new ways to consider the relationship between cinematic and historical representation However only a small proportion of this writing has paid attention to the issue of genre In order to counter this omission this book combines a critical analysis of the Hollywood historical film with an examination of its generic dimensions and a history of its development since the silent period Historical Film A Critical Introduction is concerned not simply with the formal properties of the films at hand but also the ways in which they have been promoted interpreted and discussed in relation to their engagement with the past
