Fifty Years of Economic Measurement Ernst R. Berndt, Jack E. Triplett, 2008-04-15 This volume contains papers presented at a conference in May 1988 in Washington D C commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Conference on Research in Income and Wealth CRIW The call for papers emphasized assessments of broad topics in economic measurement both conceptual and pragmatic The organizers desired and succeeded in obtaining a mix of papers that first illustrate the range of measurement issues that economics as a science must confront and second mark major milestones of CRIW accomplishment The papers concern prices and output Griliches Pieper Triplett and also the major productive inputs capital Hulten and labor Hamermesh Measures of saving the source of capital accumulation are covered in one paper Boskin measuring productivity the source of much of the growth in per capita income is reviewed in another Jorgenson The use of economic data in economic policy analysis and in regulation are illustrated in a review of measures of tax burden Atrostic and Nunns and in an analysis of the data needed for environmental regulation Russell and Smith the adequacy of data for policy analysis is evaluated in a roundtable discussion chapter 12 involving four distinguished policy analysts with extensive government experience in Washington and Ottawa Fifty Years of Forestry Research Pacific Southwest Forest and Range Experiment Station (Berkeley, Calif.), Vincent P. Aitro, 1977 Board of Actuaries of the Civil Service Retirement System Fifty-seventh Annual Report United States. Congress. House. Committee on Post Office and Civil Service, 1980 Global Development Fifty Years after Bretton Woods Albert Berry, Roy Culpeper, Frances Stewart, 2016-07-27 The international economic order created at Bretton Woods in 1944 was not crafted with the developing countries principally in mind Moreover the nature of the world community has changed profoundly in the last half century The problems and opportunities of developing countries have moved to centre stage in today's global economy The 16 contributors to this volume examine ways in which the international economic system could be reformed in order better to meet the needs and aspirations of the developing world in the coming decades The First Fifty Years, 1926-1976 Container Corporation of America, 1976 Speech Dynamics Felicitas Kleber, Tamara Rathcke, 2024-10-07 The relationship between diachronic change and synchronic variation at the articulatory auditory acoustic and social level is one of the greatest puzzles in the study of language Even though plentiful examples exist to suggest that dynamics of synchronic variation and diachronic change are tightly interconnected a unified theory to account for language change in its relationship to all layers of synchronic variation remains a desideratum This volume compiles new evidence from articulatory acoustic auditory sociolinguistic and phonological analyses of segmental and prosodic data and computational modelling and offers a refreshing theoretical angle on the ongoing debates in language change The volume is divided into three sections each focusing on one aspect of speech dynamics the historical the emerging and the theoretical each making a step toward a unified view of speech dynamics at the interface of synchronic variation and diachronic change The large range of methodologies and theories represented in this book will appeal to scholars from a variety of linguistic fields with an interest in speech dynamics including phoneticians phonologists sociolinguists typologists computational and historical linguists

The Mississippi Delta and the World James C. Cobb, 1995-05 No one knew the Mississippi Delta more intimately or told its story more eloquently than did David L Cohn 1894 1960 Between 1935 and 1960 he produced ten books including his best known God Shakes Creation later expanded into Where I Was Born and Raised and scores of articles and essays including more than sixty such pieces in the Atlantic Monthly alone One of his greatest frustrations however was not finding time to organize and prepare for publication the memoir he began in 1953 James C Cobb discovered Cohn's memoir in 1985 in the David L Cohn Collection at the University of Mississippi Struck by its richness and convinced that it should be published he undertook the task of arranging and editing the material What Cobb has brought forth is an immensely valuable and entertaining work of both literary and historical significance that plots one extraordinary man's course through the changes of the twentieth century Cohn was in essence a cosmopolitan provincial an observer who realized that the problems and circumstances of the Delta were at the same time unique and universal A native of Greenville he was educated at the University of Virginia and Yale University Law School A brief but highly successful career in business allowed him to pursue his dream of being a writer He traveled widely but remained faithful to his Delta roots counting among his close friends both William Alexander Percy and Hodding Carter He was intensely interested in politics and served as speechwriter for Democratic party leaders including Adlai Stevenson George McGovern and Lyndon Johnson Lamenting the trend toward overspecialization Cohn did not shrink from expressing his views on a wide array of topics race and religion free trade and internationalism technology and culture and materialism and matrimony among others Southern to the marrow and an almost zealously patriotic American he was also a Jew and he managed a harmonious integration of all three identities rather than the separation or suppression of any one In his Introduction Cohn describes his memoir as primarily an evocation of persons and places the physical and spiritual terrain of my youth a period that takes him from birth through approximately 1934 Cobb picks up the thread in a concluding essay surveying Cohn's later life and analyzing his literary career in light of his southern origins racial views ethnic ties and internationalist perspective Perhaps better than any other single work by Cohn The Mississippi Delta and the World reveals that he was a truly learned commentator on the human condition one who benefited enormously both from his travels and from his determination to maintain his ties to the place where he was born and raised

Introduction to Type® Dynamics and Development, 2007 Ghana: 50 Year of Independence Joseph Godson Amamoo, 2011-12-16 A comprehensive review of major political events in Ghana with critical comments during the past 50 years The book takes off where its predecessor The New Ghana the international best seller published in 1958 Ghana's first independence anniversary ended Absorbing balanced and detailed it is nevertheless controversial and challenging Unique for its vignettes on all the major personalities of the five decades that the author has been privileged to interact with

The book challenges certain myths about the Trans Atlantic Slave Trade The slow rate of development in Ghana in particular and Africa in general the reasons why Ghana despite its vast natural and mineral resources is still a developing country Traditions and customs which negate the rapid development of Ghana and robustly reviewed What killed Nkrumah Was Nkrumah anti white These are only a few of the interesting questions that the book attempts to answer The book which is unique in many ways ends on a note of hope and expectation that the next 5 years would be better than the last half century Only time can tell Peace Corps, the Next 50 Years United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations. Subcommittee on Western Hemisphere, Peace Corps, and Global Narcotics Affairs,2012 The Barbarous Years Bernard Bailyn,2013-08-13 Finalist for the Pulitzer Prize A compelling fresh account of the first great transit of people from Britain Europe and Africa to British North America their involvements with each other and their struggles with the indigenous peoples of the eastern seaboard The immigrants were a mixed multitude They came from England the Netherlands the German and Italian states France Africa Sweden and Finland and they moved to the western hemisphere for different reasons from different social backgrounds and cultures They represented a spectrum of religious attachments In the early years their stories are not mainly of triumph but of confusion failure violence and the loss of civility as they sought to normalize situations and recapture lost worlds It was a thoroughly brutal encounter not only between the Europeans and native peoples and between Europeans and Africans but among Europeans themselves as they sought to control and prosper in the new configurations of life that were emerging around them Fifty Years of Human Rights in Chile Valentina Infante-Batiste,Richard D. Wilkinson,2025-01-29 This book examines the struggle for human rights in Chile since 1973 and celebrates the academic work and activism of Latin Americanist Alan Angell It analyses Chileans collective memory of the Pinochet regime and the role of contemporary opponents of the advancement of human rights Its focus on a single country allows for a more detailed exploration of memory and human rights than those in comparable treatments of these topics in the Southern Cone The book brings together contributors connected to Angell Oxford University s Latin American Centre and the UK more broadly through their studies research and personal histories They include two former ministers in the Boric government one of whom is a former president of the Inter American Commission on Human Rights Through its unique structure timing and thematic approach the book provides valuable insights to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as lecturers and researchers Maritime Science and Technology: Changing Our World Nigel Watson,2015-01-01 This book addresses some key questions Did the marine sector drive the developing technologies Or did it just adopt them It would appear that the former is the case as the industry has moved from sail to steam from steam to internal combustion engines from wood to steel and to increasing sizes and types of specialist vessels the pioneers of naval architects and marine engineers have applied the latest technologies and our global society has benefited The Ephemeral Civilization Graeme Snooks,2002-09-11 The Ephemeral Civilization is an astonishing intellectual feat in which Graeme Snooks develops an original and ground breaking analysis of changing sociopolitical forms over the past 3 000 years Snooks challenges the prevailing theories of social evolutionism with an innovative approach which also looks ahead to the twenty first century The Ephemeral Civilization builds on the model of dynamic strategy outlined in the author s highly acclaimed companion volume The Dynamic Society The Ephemeral Society is divided into three parts theory history and future Annual Report Massachusetts. Board of Registration in Optometry,1916 The Economic Dynamics of Law David M. Driesen,2012-06-18 This book offers a dynamic theory of law and economics focused on change over time aimed at avoiding significant systemic risks like financial crises and climate disruption and implemented through a systematic analysis of law s economic incentives and how people actually respond to them This theory offers a new vision of law as fundamentally a macro level enterprise establishing normative commitments and a framework for numerous private transactions rather than as an analogue to a market transaction It explains how neoclassical law and economics sparked decades of deregulation culminating in the 2008 financial collapse It then shows how economic dynamic theory helps scholars and policymakers make wise choices about how to avoid future catastrophes while keeping open a robust set of economic opportunities with individual chapters addressing the law and economics of financial regulation contract property intellectual property antitrust national security and climate disruption The Christian Advocate ,1927 NASA Authorization for Fiscal Year 1960 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Aeronautical and Space Sciences.
