Bruggeman,2011-08-15 In Here George Washington Was Born Seth C Bruggeman examines the history of commemoration in the United States by focusing on the George Washington Birthplace National Monument in Virginia s Northern Neck where contests of public memory have unfolded with particular vigor for nearly eighty years Washington left the birthplace with his family at a young age and rarely returned The house burned in 1779 and would likely have passed from memory but for George Washington Parke Custis who erected a stone marker on the site in 1815 creating the first birthplace monument in America Both Virginia and the U S War Department later commemorated the site but neither matched the work of a Virginia ladies association that in 1923 resolved to build a replica of the home The National Park Service permitted construction of the replica house until a shocking archeological discovery sparked protracted battles between the two organizations over the building s appearance purpose and claims to historical authenticity Bruggeman sifts through years of correspondence superintendent logs and other park records to reconstruct delicate negotiations of power among a host of often unexpected claimants on Washington s memory By paying close attention to costumes furnishings and other material culture he reveals the centrality of race and gender in the construction of Washington s public memory and reminds us that national parks have not always welcomed all Americans What s more Bruggeman offers the story of Washington s birthplace as a cautionary tale about the perils and possibilities of public history by asking why we care about famous birthplaces at all Washington's Birthday Robert Haven Schauffler,1918 Poems essays et cetera by Oliver Wendell Holmes and others History of the George Washington Bicentennial Celebration ... United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission,1932 George Washington Jeremy Roberts,2003-05-01 Chronicles the life of George Washington from his youth in Virginia through his leadership in the Continental Army to his years as the first president of the United States Orations and Essays of the George Washington Bicentennial Nation-wide Oratorical, Essay, and Declamatory Contests in Schools and Colleges ... United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission,1932 The United States Congress on George Washington, to July 16, 1932 United States.
