The National Forgotten League Dan Daly,2012-10-01 The first fifty years of America s most popular spectator sport have been strangely neglected by historians claiming to tell the complete story of pro football Well here are the early stories that complete story has left out What about the awful secret carried around by Sid Luckman the Bears Hall of Fame quarterback whose father was a mobster and a murderer Or Steve Hamas who briefly played in the NFL then turned to boxing and beat Max Schmeling conqueror of Joe Louis Or the two one armed players who suited up for NFL teams in 1945 Or Steelers owner Art Rooney postponing a game in 1938 because of injuries These are just a few of the little known facts Dan Daly unearths in recounting the untold history of pro football in its first half century These decades were also full of ideas and experimentation such as the invention of the modern T formation that revolutionized offense unlimited player substitution and soccer style kicking as well as the emergence of televised pro football as prime time entertainment Relying on obscure sources original interviews old game films and statistical databases Daly s extensive research and engaging stories bring the NFL s formative years and pro football s folk roots to life

Scoreless John Dechant,2016-09-01 In October 1960 Omaha Central and Creighton Prep met for what many Nebraskans consider the greatest high school football game ever played Future NFL Hall of Famer Gale Sayers scored seventy points while leading Central s powerful offense through its first four games Prep s strong defense on the other hand allowed only twenty points all season Legendary coaches patrolled both sidelines and Prep was aiming for its third straight state championship The stage was set for a Friday night showdown Fifteen thousand fans packed into Omaha s Municipal Stadium to watch the early season championship clash Stubborn defenses ensured parity Back and forth the teams battled mired around the 50 yard line punt after punt soaring into the sky With no overtime to settle things and the defenses holding fast the game ended in a scoreless tie When both teams won their remaining games they shared the state title that year Scoreless retells the details of this legendary game the buildup to it and the story behind the teams and their renowned coaches and players It is the tale of one of the most remarkable football games in Nebraska high school sports history
