George At The Seaside:

George at the Seaside Anne Gutman, Georg Hallensleben, 2001 George and Lily are curious and full of ideas but their adventures always seem to end in disaster Each title features either one or both characters on a different topic and the stories make that topic familiar and reassuring for children George and Lily will be enjoyed by pre school children and first readers who will enjoy the tenderness of the stories George is Jealous For her birthday Lily is given a pair of skates just like the ones that George wanted He is very jealous but when he gets his own skates he soon realizes it is much more fun to go skating with Lily George at the Seaside George wants to go wind surfing and he boasts to all the other children that he is a swimming champion But finally the truth comes out that he can't swim at all and so they all learn together in the pool

Coastal Works Nicholas Allen, Nick Groom, Jos Smith, 2017 In all the complex cultural history of the islands of Britain and Ireland the idea of the coast as a significant representative space is critical For many important artists coastal space has figured as a site from which to braid ideas of empire nation region and archipelago They have been drawn to the coast as a zone of geographical uncertainty in which the self definitions of the nation founder they have been drawn to it as a peripheral space of vestigial wildness of island retreats and experimental living as a network of diverse localities richly endowed with distinctive forms of cultural heritage and as a dynamically interconnected ecosystem which is at the same time the historic site of significant developments in fieldwork and natural science This collection situates these cultures of the Atlantic edge in a series of essays that create new contexts for coastal study in literary history and criticism The contributors frame their research in response to emerging conversations in archipelagic criticism the blue humanities and island studies the essays challenging the reader to reconsider ideas of margin periphery and exchange These twelve case studies establish the coast as a crucial location in the imaginative history of Britain Ireland and the north Atlantic edge Coastal Works will appeal to readers of literature and history with an interest in the sea the environment and the archipelago from the 18th century to the present Accessible innovative and provocative Coastal Works establishes the important role that the coast plays in our cultural imaginary and suggests a range of methodologies to represent relationships between land sea and cultural work
