administration of the Institute Under Bohr's direction the Copenhagen Institute was a central workplace in the development and the formulation of quantum mechanics in the 1920s and later became an important center for nuclear research in the 1930s Dr Aaserud brings together the scholarship on the internal origins and development of nuclear physics in the 1930s with descriptions of the concurrent changes in private support for international basic science particularly as represented by Rockefeller Foundation philanthropy In the process the book places the emergence of nuclear physics in a larger historical context This book will appeal to historians of science physicists and advanced students in these areas Encyclopedia of World Biography, 1998 Presents brief biographical sketches which provide vital statistics as well as information on the importance of the person listed Pedagogy and the Practice of Science David Kaiser, 2005 Studies examining the ways in which the training of engineers and scientists shapes their research strategies and scientific identities George de Hevesy Hilde Levi, 1983 The Biographical Dictionary of Women in Science: L-Z, 2000 Volume 2 of 2 Physics and National Socialism Klaus Hentschel, 2011-10-03 1 Aim and General Description of the Anthology The purpose of this anthology is to introduce the English speaking public to the wide spectrum of texts authored predominantly by physicists portraying the actual and perceived role of physics in the Nazi state Up to now no broad and well balanced documentation of German physics during this time has been available in English despite the significant role physics has played both politically e g in weaponry planning and ideologically e g in the controversy over the value of theoretical Jewish vs experimental Aryan physics and even though prominent figures like the scientist philosopher and emigre Albert Einstein and the controversial nuclear physicist Werner Heisenberg have become household names This anthology will attempt to bridge this gap by presenting contemporary documents and eye witness accounts by the physicists themselves Authors were chosen to represent the various political opinions and specialties within the physics community omitting some of the more readily accessible texts by leading physicists e g Einstein Heisenberg Lenard in favor of those by less well known but nonetheless important figures e g Finkelburg Max Wien Ramsauer In this way we hope not only to circumvent the constricted Great Men approach to history but also to offer a broader picture of the activities and conflicts within the field and the effects of the political forces exerted upon them Nobel Laureates in Chemistry, 1901-1992 James K. Laylin, 1993-10-30 Through new perspectives from a mix of original monographs biographies autobiographical memoirs edited collections of essays and documentary sources translations classic reprints and pictorial volumes this series will document the individuals ideas institutions and innovations that have created the modern chemical sciences Great Lives from History: Her-Mar Frank Northen Magill, 1990 Center on the Periphery Svante Lindqvist, 1993 The Nobel Prize Winners: 1938-1968 Frank Northen Magill, 1990 V 1 1901 1937 v 2 1938 1968 v 3 1969 1989 Chemical History Gerrylyn K Roberts, Colin A Russell, 2007-10-31 This book provides an historical overview of the recent developments in the history of diverse fields within chemistry It follows on from Recent Developments in the History of Chemistry a volume published in 1985 Covering
