Georges Bataille Benjamin Noys,2000-05-20 This is a guide to the life and work of the French intellectual Georges Bataille best known as the author of the celebrated erotic novel The Story of the Eye Benjamin Noys introduces Bataille as a writer out of step with the dominant intellectual trends of his day surrealism and existentialism and shows that it was his very marginality that accounted in large part for his subsequent importance for the post structuralists and the counterculture in Europe and in the United States Treating Bataille s work as a whole rather than focusing as other studies have done on aspects of his work i e as social theory or philosophy Noys study is intended to be sensitive to the needs of students new to Bataille s work while at the same time drawing on the latest research on Bataille to offer new interpretations of Bataille s oeuvre for more experienced readers This is the first clear introductory reading of Bataille in English challenging current reductive readings and stressing the range of disciplines affected by Bataille s work at a time when interest in Bataille is growing

Georges Bataille Mark Hewson,Marcus Coelen,2015-12-14 Georges Bataille 1897 1962 was a philosopher writer and literary critic whose work has had a significant impact across disciplines as diverse as philosophy sociology economics art history and literary criticism as well as influencing key figures in post modernist and post structuralist philosophy such as Jacques Derrida and Michel Foucault In recent years the number of works published on Georges Bataille as well as the variety of contexts in which his work is invoked has markedly increased In Georges Bataille Key Concepts an international team of contributors provide an accessible introduction to and survey of Bataille s thought The editors introduction provides an overview of Bataille s work while the chapters in the first section cover the social political artistic and philosophical contexts that shaped his thought In the second part each chapter engages with a key theme in Bataille s philosophy including art eroticism evil inner experience heterology religion sacrifice and sovereignty The final chapter addresses Bataille s literary writings Georges Bataille Key Concepts is an invaluable guide for students from across the Humanities and Social Sciences coming to Bataille s work for the first time Contributors Giulia Agostini Elisabeth Arnould Bloomfield Tiina Arppe Marcus Coelen Simonetta Falasca Zamponi Patrick ffrench Marina Galletti Nadine Hartmann Mark Hewson Andrew Hussey Stuart Kendall Claire Nioche Gerhard Poppenberg and Mich le Richman

The Late Medieval Origins of the Modern Novel Rachel A. Kent,2015-10-07 Dramatically refreshing the age old debate about the novel s origins and purpose Kent traces the origin of the modern novel to a late medieval fascination with the wounded and often eroticized body of Christ A wide range of texts help to illustrate this discovery ranging from medieval Piet s to Thomas Hardy to contemporary literary theory

Sex, Race, and Family in Contemporary American Short Stories M. Bostrom,2007-08-06 This book reveals a female sexual economy in the marketplace of contemporary short fiction which locates a struggle for sexual power between mothers and daughters within a larger struggle to pursue that object of the American dream whiteness

An Aesthetics of Injury Ian Fleishman, 2018-03-15 An Aesthetics of Injury exposes wounding as a foundational principle of modernism in literature and film Theorizing the genre of the narrative wound texts that aim not only to depict but also to inflict injury Ian Fleishman reveals harm as an essential aesthetic strategy in ten exemplary authors and filmmakers Charles Baudelaire Franz Kafka Georges Bataille Jean Genet H l ne Cixous Ingeborg Bachmann Elfriede Jelinek Werner Schroeter Michael Haneke and Quentin Tarantino Violence in the modernist mode an ostensible intrusion of raw bodily harm into the artwork aspires to transcend its own textuality and yet as An Aesthetics of Injury establishes the wound paradoxically remains the essence of inscription Fleishman thus shows how the wound once the modernist emblem par excellence of an immediate aesthetic experience comes to be implicated in a postmodern understanding of reality reduced to ceaseless mediation In so doing he demonstrates how what we think of as the most real object the human body becomes indistinguishable from its nonreal function as text At stake in this tautological textual model is the heritage of narrative thought both the narratological workings of these texts how they tell stories and the underlying epistemology exposed whether these narrativists still believe in narrative at all With fresh and revealing readings of canonical authors and filmmakers seldom treated alongside one another An Aesthetics of Injury is important reading for scholars working on literary or cinematic modernism and the postmodern philosophy narratology body culture studies queer and gender studies trauma studies and cultural theory

Beyond Human Charlie Blake, Claire Molloy, Steven Shakespeare, 2012-03-08 Beyond Human investigates what it means to call ourselves human beings in relation to both our distant past and our possible futures as a species and the questions this might raise for our relationship with the myriad species with which we share the planet Drawing on insights from zoology theology cultural studies and aesthetics an international line up of contributors explore such topics as our origins as reflected in early cave art in the upper Palaeolithic through to our prospects at the forefront of contemporary biotechnology In the process the book positions the human in readiness for what many have characterized as our transhuman or posthuman future For if our status as rational animals or animals that think has traditionally distinguished us as apparently superior to other species this distinction has become increasingly problematic It has come to be seen as based on skills and technologies that do not distinguish us so much as position us as transitional animals It is the direction and consequences of this transition that is the central concern of Beyond Human

Things with a History Héctor Hoyos, 2019-10-29 Can rubber trees silicone dolls corpses soil subatomic particles designer shoes and discarded computers become the protagonists of contemporary literature and what does this tell us about the relationship between humans and objects In Things with a History Héctor Hoyos argues that the roles of objects in recent Latin American fiction offer a way to integrate materialisms old and new transforming our understanding of how things shape social and political relations Discussing contemporary authors including Roberto Bola o Ariel Magnus C sar Aira and Blanca Wieth chter as well as classic writers such as Fernando Ortiz and Jos Eustasio Rivera Hoyos considers how Latin American literature has cast things as repositories of history with an emphasis on the radically transformed circulation of artifacts under globalization He traces a tradition of thought transcultural materialism that draws from the capacity of literary language to defamiliarize our place within the tangible world Hoyos contrasts new materialisms with historical materialist approaches exposing how recent tendencies sometimes sidestep concepts such as primitive accumulation commodity fetishism and conspicuous consumption which have been central to Latin American history and literature He contends that an integrative approach informed by both historical and new materialisms can balance seeing things as a means to reveal the true nature of social relations with appraisals of things in their autonomy Things with a History simultaneously offers a sweeping account of the material turn in recent Latin American culture and reinvigorates social theory and cultural critique

Nietzsche and the Politics of Reaction Matthew McManus, 2023-01-01 This book is intended as a major interdisciplinary contribution to the study of Nietzsche's thought in particular and the political right more generally Historically the assessment of Nietzsche's politics has ranged from denouncing him as a forerunner to Nazism to claiming he effectively did not have articulated political convictions During the latter half of the 20th century he surprisingly became a major theoretical influence on a variety of post structuralist radical critics who saw in his perspectivism and genealogy of power useful tools to critique existent structures of domination This collection of essays reframes the debate by looking at Nietzsche's constructive political project defending aristocratic values from the levelling influence of the herd and its liberal socialist and democratic spokesmen The essays will also explore how this defense of aristocratic values continues to have an influence on the political right inspiring moderates like Jordan Peterson and far right authors and activists like Aleksandr Dugin and Steve Bannon

A New Political Imagination Tony Fry, Madina Tlostanova, 2020-11-12 The book presents the case for the making of a new political imagination by offering a critique of existing political institutions philosophy and practices that are unable to provide the thinking means and leadership to deal with the complexity and crises of specific locales and the world at large The authors make clear that there is a fundamental disjuncture between the complexity of the combined critical conditions that are now putting life on Earth at risk and the divisions and theories of knowledge that are dominantly and instrumentally trying to understand the situation In response this work makes the case for the need for a new political imagination that rejects the sufficiency of existing political ideologies including democracy being the end point of politics The book tackles the political underpinnings of social and economic life in a world still embedded in the inequities of the afterlife of colonialism and state socialism Thereafter it engages narratives of change rethinks imagination and critical practices to finally present a relationally connected way to move forward This trans disciplinary volume is directed at those working in political philosophy and epistemology critical global and security studies decoloniality and postcolonial studies design critical anthropology and the post humanities It is accessible to both academic audiences and activists and practitioners

Education in Radical

Uncertainty Stephen Carney, Ulla Ambrosius Madsen, 2021-07-15 Drawing upon the long tradition of recalcitrant thought in Western humanist scholarship this book rethinks education and educational research at a time of intense social transformation By revisiting a range of post foundational ideas and developing their own methodological experiment Stephen Carney and Ulla Ambrosius Madsen reimagine the possibilities for the comparative study of education Exploring the experiences of young people in Denmark South Korea and Zambia this book illustrates how these very different contexts are increasingly connected by common narratives of purpose as well as overheated promises of success Focusing on the writings of Jean Baudrillard the authors examine them in the context of works by other theorists of modernity to explore processes of simulation and disappearance that are shaping life worldwide In the process the authors paint a rich portrait of education and schooling as a site of joy hope pain and ambivalence Encompassing both theoretical and methodological innovation Education in Radical Uncertainty provides inspiration for scholars and students attempting to approach the fields of comparative education education policy and youth studies anew

Lacan's Ethics and Nietzsche's Critique of Platonism Tim Themi, 2014-04-10 Bringing together Jacques Lacan and Friedrich Nietzsche Tim Themi focuses on their conceptions of ethics and on their accounts of the history of ethical thinking in the Western tradition Nietzsche blames Plato for setting in motion a degenerative process that turned ethics away from nature the body and its senses and thus eventually against our capacities for reason science and a creative flourishing life Dismissing Plato's Supreme Good as a mirage Lacan is very much in sympathy with Nietzsche's reading Following this premise Themi shows how Lacan's ethics might build on Nietzsche's work thus contributing to our understanding of Nietzsche and also how Nietzsche's critique can strengthen our understanding of Lacan

Human Rights and Constituent Power Illan Wall, 2013-03 Engaging the current political and jurisprudential thought on constituent power with a radical political rethinking of human rights Ilan Wall develops the idea that human rights must be considered as a non metaphysical process of righting

States of Crisis and Post-Capitalist Scenarios Heiko Feldner, Fabio Vighi, 2017-05-15 States of Crisis and Post Capitalist Scenarios engages with the crisis of our capitalist world with a view to explaining its origins unravelling its symptoms and demystifying the anodyne corrective solutions so far proposed At the same time it endorses the necessity for utopian interventions aimed at drastically rethinking our social order Organised around the themes of economy and politics critical theory and culture in order to offer an impressive range of thematic perspectives and critical angles the book delves into the most pressing of today's quandaries by combining stringent critical analysis with creative foresight A rigorous examination of the current crisis of late capitalist society States of Crisis and Post Capitalist Scenarios develops paradigms that promise to rekindle the desire to move beyond capitalism towards a different social order As such it will appeal to scholars and students across the humanities and social sciences with particular interests in social and political theory contemporary philosophy and the crises faced by the current capitalist order

Caught In-Between Agnes Petho, 2020-05-04 This collection of essays explores intermediality as a new perspective in the interpretation of the cinemas that have emerged after the collapse of the former Eastern bloc As an aesthetic based on a productive interaction of media and highlighting cinema's relationship with the other arts intermediality always implies a state of in-betweenness which is capable of registering tensions and ambivalences that go beyond the realm of media The comparative analyses of films from Hungary Romania Poland the Czech Republic Bosnia and Herzegovina and Russia demonstrate that intermediality can be employed in this way as a form of introspection dealing with complex issues of art and society Appearing in a variety of sensuous or intellectual modes intermediality can become an effective poetic strategy to communicate how the cultures of the region are caught in between East and West past and present emotional turmoil and more detached self awareness The diverse theoretical approaches that unravel this in-betweenness contribute to the understanding of intermedial phenomena in contemporary cinema as a whole

History, Imperialism, Critique Asher Ghaffar, 2018-09-03 This book examines anti imperialist thought in European philosophy It features an international group of both emerging and established scholars who directly respond to Timothy Brennan's far reaching call to rethink intellectual histories literary histories and the reading habits of postcolonialism in relation to the anti imperialist tradition of critique Each contributor rethinks postcolonial and world literature Continental thought and intellectual history in relation to anti imperialist histories and traditions of critique through geographically diverse analysis This book provides a forum for the next generation of scholars to draw on and engage with the marginal yet influential work of the first generation of dissidents within postcolonial studies It will appeal to researchers and students in the field of postcolonial studies world literature geography and Continental thought

Representing the Experience of War and Atrocity Ronnie Lippens, Emma Murray, 2019-04-26 This book explores how the experience of war and related atrocities tend to be visually expressed and how such articulations and representations are circulated and consumed Each chapter of this volume examines how an image can contribute to a richer understanding of the experience of war and atrocity and thus they contribute to the burgeoning field of the criminology of war Topics include the destruction of war in oppositional cultural forms comparing the Nazi period with the ISIS destruction of Palmyra and the visual aesthetics of violence deployed by Jihadi terrorism The contributors are a multi disciplinary team drawn mainly from criminology but also sociology international relations gender studies English and the visual arts This book will advance this field in new directions with refreshing original work

Albert Camus as Political Thinker Samantha Novello, 2010-10-12 An intense genealogical reconstruction of Camus's political thinking challenging the philosophical import of his writings as providing an alternative aesthetic understanding of politics political action and freedom outside and against the nihilistic categories of modern political philosophy and the contemporary politics of contempt and terrorisms

The Phantom of the Ego Nidesh Lawtoo, 2013-10-01 The Phantom of the Ego is the first comparative study that shows how the modernist account of the unconscious anticipates contemporary discoveries about the importance of mimesis in the formation of subjectivity Rather than beginning with Sigmund Freud as the father of modernism

Nidesh Lawtoo starts with Friedrich Nietzsche's antimetaphysical diagnostic of the ego his realization that mimetic reflexes from sympathy to hypnosis to contagion to crowd behavior move the soul and his insistence that psychology informs philosophical reflection Through a transdisciplinary comparative reading of landmark modernist authors like Nietzsche Joseph Conrad D H Lawrence and Georges Bataille Lawtoo shows that before being a timely empirical discovery the mimetic unconscious emerged from an untimely current in literary and philosophical modernism This book traces the psychological ethical political and cultural implications of the realization that the modern ego is born out of the spirit of imitation it is thus strictly speaking not an ego but what Nietzsche calls a phantom of the ego The Phantom of the Ego opens up a Nietzschean back door to the unconscious that has mimesis rather than dreams as its via regia and argues that the modernist account of the mimetic unconscious makes our understanding of the psyche new

The Kurdish Issue in Turkey Zeynep Gambetti, Joost Jongerden, 2015-04-10 This volume gives a thorough and comprehensive analysis of the Kurdish issue in Turkey from a spatial perspective that takes into account geographical variations in identity formation exclusion and political mobilisation Although analysis of Turkey's Kurdish issue from a spatial perspective is not new spatial analyses are still relatively scarce More often than not Kurdish studies consist of time centred work In this book the attention is shifted from outcome oriented analysis of transformation in time towards a spatial analysis The authors in this book discuss the spatial production of home identity work in short of being in the world The contributions are based on the tacit avowal that the Kurdish question in addition to being a question of group rights is also one of spatial relations By asking a different set of questions this book examines which spatial strategies have been employed to deal with Kurds Which spatial strategies are developed by Kurds to deal with state and with the neo liberal turn How are these strategies absorbed and what counter strategies are developed both in cities populated by the Kurds in south eastern Turkey and in other regions Emphasizing that identity or place its particularity or uniqueness arises from social practices and social relations this book is essential reading for scholars and researchers working in Kurdish and Turkish Studies Urban and Rural Studies and Politics more broadly
