German Idea:

The German Idea of Militarism Nicholas Stargardt, 1994-03-17 This 1994 book examines the development of the modern idea of militarism from its inception in the 1860s until the outbreak of World War I Often regarded as the archetypal militarist state imperial Germany in fact witnessed a major controversy over the issue which became a touchstone of political opposition Issues like the arms race and the military industrial complex displaced more traditional concerns about authoritarian rule and militarism gradually acquired its modern meaning The book is part of a wider discovery by historians of the way political identities and ideas intermeshed contributing to the rise of civil society and new types of politics in modern Europe The political history of the main protagonist of anti militarism German social democracy is examined as Nicholas Stargardt reveals the lasting influence of older radical traditions and reappraises the role played by its espousal of Marxism

German Ideas From The Mid 1920s, Early 1930s & Secretly During WW2 For A Proposed Space Program ,2014-02-18 Early German rocketeers from the mid 1920s and throughout the 1930s include such talents as Hermann Oberth Johannes Winkler Max Valier Wernher von Braun orbiting space wheel designer Hermann Potocnik and others In the early 1920s little rocket societies sprang up all over Germany to promote the spirit of adventure of rocket travel What of all these men mentioned and numerous other rocketeers interested in space travel when the Nazis came into power in 1933 It didn't end and these men remained interested and fascinated and their dreams of space Although the Nazi Party put a stop to all public rocket demonstrations and any talk of space travel under penalty of prison and or death attached are images of what these men were privately thinking Absolute fantasy in the late 1920s and 1930s here are images of what they were thinking Thanks to Mario Merino for the computer generated digital images Enjoy Property and the German Idea of Freedom

Dostoevsky's Worldview Nikolay Alexandrovich Berdyaev, The Educated Subject and the German Concept of

Bildung Rebekka Horlacher, 2015-11-06 German education plays a huge role in the development of education sciences and modern universities internationally It is influenced by the educational concept of Bildung which defines Germany's theoretical and curricular ventures This concept is famously untranslatable into other languages and is often misinterpreted as education instruction training upbringing and other terms which don't encompass its cultural ambitions Despite this hurdle Bildung is now being recognized in current discussions of education issues such as standardization teaching to the test evidence based policy and high stakes testing This volume clears up the confusion and misunderstandings surrounding Bildung by examining the origins of the concept and how it has been applied throughout history It paves the way for educators to fully understand and benefit from this model and all it has to offer Fatherlands Abigail Green,2001-09-06

An exploration of the nature of identity in nineteenth century Germany British Images of Germany R. Scully,2012-10-30

British Images of Germany is the first full length cultural history of Britain's relationship with Germany in the key period leading up to the First World War Richard Scully reassesses what is imagined to be a fraught relationship illuminating the sense of kinship Britons felt for Germany even in times of diplomatic tension A History of Military Thought Azar Gat,2001

From the ideas of Clausewitz to contemporary doctrines of containment and cold war this is a definitive history of modern military thought A one volume collection of Azar Gat's acclaimed trilogy it traces the quest for a general theory of war from its origins in the Enlightenment Drastically re-evaluating B H Liddell Hart's contribution to strategic theory the author argues that in the wake of the trauma of the First World War and in response to the Axis challenge Liddell Hart developed the doctrine of containment and cold war long before the advent of nuclear weapons He reveals Liddell Hart as a pioneer of the modern western liberal way in warfare which is still with us today German Ideology Louis Dumont,1994

In Dumont's words the Frenchman sees himself as being a man by nature and a Frenchman by accident while the German feels he is a German in the first place and a man through his being a German Furthermore while individualism in the French fashion stresses equality and centers in the sociopolitical domain in Germany it focuses on the uniqueness the irreplaceability of the individual subject and the duty to cultivate it by self education Bildung German Images of the Self and the Other F. Rash,2012-10-17

This book provides a detailed linguistic analysis of the nationalist discourses of the German Second Reich which most effectively demonstrate the contrasting images of the German Self and its various Others such as Jews native Africans gypsies and the enemy Other during the First World War Danube Claudio Magris,2011-01-11

Neither a travel book nor a vast prose poem nor a history nor philosophy nor voyage of discovery but often all at once Independent on Sunday WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY RICHARD FLANAGAN In this fascinating journey Claudio Magris whose knowledge is encyclopaedic and whose curiosity limitless guides his reader from the source of the Danube in the Bavarian hills through Austro-Hungary and the Balkans to the Black Sea Along the way he raises the ghosts that inhabit the houses and monuments from Ovid to Kafka and Canetti and in so doing sets his finger on the pulse of Central Europe the vital crucible of a culture that draws on influences of East and West of Christendom and Islam Modes of Thought in Western and Non-Western Societies Ruth Finnegan,Robin Horton,2017-10-04

Is there a basic difference in thinking between Western and non Western societies This long debated yet highly topical problem forms the central question to which distinguished contributors in the fields of psychology linguistics history and sociology and more particularly of social anthropology and philosophy address themselves in this interdisciplinary collection They are Barry Barnes Benjamin N Colby and Michael Cole Ruth Finnegan Ernest Gellner Robin Horton J M Ita Hilary Jenkins Steven Lukes Nobuhiro Nagashima S J Tambiah W H Whiteley and Sybil Wolfram The central ideas of this classic work are reformulated and refined in the various contributions with different possible dichotomies discussed such as traditional modern industrial non industrial or scientific non scientific and thinking analyzed in terms of its thought processes content logic or social background The material in the book which is dedicated to Sir Edward Evans Pritchard falls within the general area of the comparative sociology of knowledge and will thus particularly interest philosophers social anthropologists and sociologists The volume is however conceived in an interdisciplinary spirit and will be of interest to anyone seriously concerned to examine the nature of thinking in our own and other societies

Kloppenberg, 1986 The first comparative study of ideas and politics in France Germany the US and Great Britain between 1870 and 1920 Theories of Bildung and Growth Pauli Siljander, Ari Kivelä, Ari Sutinen, 2012-12-30 Continental philosophy of education and North American educational thinking are two traditions of their own yet it is fruitful to compare for similarities and differences between the two and thus generate interest in a mutual dialogue and exchange between European and North American of philosophy of education The present book analyzes theoretical thinking on education from the standpoints of both traditions The book deals with continental educational thinking while discussing the notion of Bildung and its diversity from J A Comenius to Th Adorno In addition the book discusses the idea of growth inherited from American progressive education and classical Pragmatism The various contributors to the book offer insights to the theoretical discussion on education and specify the historical and thematic connections between different thinking models The book shows that connections between continental educational theories and classical Pragmatism are stronger than generally assumed As such the book invites the readers to challenge their own prejudices and views on Bildung and growth and the relationship between them Education would be tyranny if it did not lead to freedom J F Herbart The teacher who can get along by keeping spontaneous interest excited must be regarded as the teacher with the greatest skill W James Hurrah And Hallelujah : The Spirit Of New-Germanism, A Documentation J. Smith, 1989-02-09 This study traces the evolution of imperialist ideology in Germany from Bismarck in the mid 19th century through Hitler and the Third Reich Although much has been written about the virulently racist and anti communist ideologies of the Nazi party this is the first book to treat Nazi imperialism as a separate ideology and set it within a sturdy theoretical framework Smith contends that Nazi imperialism represented the last ambitious attempt to integrate two century old ideologies the elite pro industrial Weltpolitik and the popular based pro agrarian Lebensraum into a single system In fact Smith argues that it was largely the way in which the Nazis attempted to reconcile these contradictory ideologies that explains Germany s disastrous policies during World War II This wide ranging study also contributes to the debates over several other aspects of German history including German military aims in World War II the continuity or discontinuity of German policy from Bismarck to Hitler and the relation between ideology and social political life A Companion to Global Historical Thought Prasenjit Duara, Viren Murthy, Andrew Sartori, 2014-01-21 A COMPANION TO GLOBAL HISTORICAL THOUGHT A Companion to Global Historical Thought provides an overview of the development of historical thinking from the earliest times to the present directly addressing issues of historiography in a globalized context Questions concerning the global dissemination of historical writing and the relationship between historiography and other ways of representing the past have become important not only in the academic study of history but also in public arenas in many countries With contributions from leading international scholars the book considers the problem of the global in the multiplicity of traditions of narrating the past in the global dissemination of modern historical writing and of the global as a concept animating historical imaginations It explores the different intellectual approaches that have shaped the discipline of history and the challenges posed by modernity and globalization while illustrating the shifts in thinking about time and the emergence of historical thought Complementing A Companion to Western Historical Thought this book places non Western perspectives on historiography at the center of discussion helping scholars and students alike make sense of the discipline at the start of the twenty first century
