

5 Reasons to become a truck driver

Truck driving is a big job, but someone has to do it, why not you? Here are 5 reasons why you should consider this exciting career:

1: Job Security

If you're going to train for a new career, why not make it a stable one as well?

The ATA projected a shortage of qualified truck drivers to hit an all-time high of 50,000 by the end of 2017 which puts YOU in a much needed position- the driver's seat!

2. Make Good Money in the FIRST YEAR

Let's be honest, we all need a steady paycheck. And it's even better if you also receive health benefits as well as retirement options. First-year drivers can make $45,000 - $55,000 or more, depending on their abilities.

3. You're great under pressure and not afraid of hard work

The situations you face as a truck driver can vary from severe weather to complex road construction, or extreme traffic.

Being a truck driver means running a tight ship, getting to your destinations SAFELY and on time. You can read a map, GPS, and manage your time well. You have a patient manner and can keep a clear head when unexpected issues come your way. For someone like you, these problems can actually be fun challenges.

4. Freedom!

If you crave independence at work and sitting in an office every day sounds like your idea of punishment then truck driving might be right up your ally! As a truck driver, the only thing routine about your day will be the sun rising and the sun setting. On the road, you're the boss!

5. You just like to drive

For you, hitting the open road AND conquering major city rush-hour traffic in a big rig is a thrilling accomplishment. While being in control of a large vehicle can be daunting for some, it's exciting for you! And what better way to travel the roads and see the sights our nation has to offer?

For all you eat, drink, live in, drive,
play, wear, buy or do -

I Want To Be A Truck Driver:

How To Become a Truck Driver HowExpert, Bruce Stimson, 2016-09-23 Let's talk about the money most truck drivers can expect to earn 30 000 40 000 in their 1st year I know some drivers who work as Solo drivers and decide to give up their apartments so they can stay in the truck all year long and save money They still take days off from time to time and stay with friends family or rent a hotel for a few days so they can take a break Once you have 6 months experience you may be able to find a job that pays more money I've seen motivated drivers earning in the 60 000 range in their 1st year The money is there to earn if you look for it Too many drivers get complacent and they stay with the same company in the same position making low wages for years and years Sometimes all you need to do to increase your income is switch positions within the company If the company you work for doesn't offer anything that will take you to the next level then find another company that will I know a Walmart driver who earns 100 000 year and he's home every night and weekend Companies pay you in cents per mile CPM so the more mileage you drive the more you earn The bottom line is company drivers can make anywhere from 30 000 to around 100 000 per year Stay away from company lease options 99% of the time only the company does well with this type of position They will make their lease program sound perfect touting how you will be your own boss and make lots of money Drivers often find themselves making just enough to cover the WEEKLY truck lease payment If you want to truly be your own boss as a owner operator of your own truck then save up the money to buy a used truck cash or you may be able to find a 3rd party not company sponsored lease program I have seen a couple of decent 3rd party lease programs these will allow you to contract with any company you want So if you're not making enough money with one company then you can easily switch to another Owner operators can make anywhere from 50 000 250 000 per year About the Expert I have been driving a truck full time for over 4 years at the time of this publishing I have been a company driver for 3 of those years and an owner operator for a bit over one In the 4 years that I've been driving I have spent one year driving most of the lower 48 states I haven't made it up to North Carolina and a few other states in the northeast but all of the others I have For the last two years I have been truck driving with my team from Los Angeles to the Kansas City area and back We did that twice a week After doing that for about a year I was able to get a driving position working nights and being home every day I did that for almost year I left there because the company did a pathetic job of maintaining their equipment I was afraid of getting stopped by law enforcement So I left them and got my own truck to take care of Now I am contracted with a carrier to move their freight and it works out a lot better HowExpert publishes quick how to guides on all topics from A to Z by everyday experts Do You Really Want to Be a Truck Driver? Randy Marco, 2011-07-01 I Want to Be a Truck Driver Dan Liebman, 2001 Summary Photos and easy to read text describe the job of a truck driver So, You Want to be a Truck Driver? Les Auger, 2012-06-19 Learn what it takes to be a truck driver from this experienced driver See if you have what it takes to live this life Written in a down to earth style and includes a personality test as well as stories from the road to help you see if you would like making your living driving the Big Rigs from now on I will have a much greater respect for the wonderful long haulers on the freeways cross country highways etc I will also try to give them the courtesy of knowing the masses that they carry and must account for when having to brake I have always tried to give them plenty of room when passing but I will now know to even give them more consideration on the roads I wish everyone could read your book and learn more about what it takes to be a long hauler Bea Mack Truck Driver Connor Syrewicz,2014-09-02 For many high school graduates college is a way to get ahead but going to college is not the only way for young adults to succeed Many people choose to enter the workforce after high school to start earning money and gaining experience right away These motivated young workers can have rewarding jobs without ever having to earn a 4 year college degree If you re interested in seeing the country from behind the wheel and don t know that you want to or can go to college a career as a truck driver might be right for you Young people need only a high school diploma or equivalent to start work as a truck driver and they can eventually earn more than 50 000 a year driving In Truck Drivers you ll learn how to start a career as a driver and what you need to succeed in the field Find out about the prospects for these careers in the future how much drivers can make each year and whether your path to success includes a career as a truck driver I Want to be a Truck-driver Carla Greene,1960 Two children learn from their father about the many uses of trucks and a truck driver shows them his truck and tells them about his job
