Kevane, Juanita Heredia, 2000 Embracing Chicana Cuban Dominican and Puerto Rican writers and writers descended from a combined U S and Latin American heritage Latina literature is one of the fastest growing and most exciting fields in fiction This literature is characterized by revisionist views of recent history a concern with exile and borders a blending of genres and a complex understanding of the term feminist In these ten interviews Kevane and Heredia give writers the opportunity to talk about how they began to write the craft of writing the conjunction of life art and politics literary influences and their goals as artists Readers will meet Julia Alvarez Denise Chavez Sandra Cisneros Rosario Ferrer Cristina Garcia Nicholasa Mohr Cherr e Moraga Judith Ortiz Cofer Esmeralda Santiago and Helena Maria Viramontes The writers personal and literary journeys vividly portrayed in these interviews will enrich and enhance the readers understanding of this exciting field The volume also includes bibliographies of the writers work Toxic Feedback Joni B. to be a Southern writer in the 1970s What is the nature of today's South and what prospects does it offer a writer These twelve interviews with writers of fiction poetry and nonfiction elicit some thoughtful and revealing answers Because the interviews were taped there is a spontaneity that brings forth the personality of each writer and provides a text that is interesting and entertaining as well as instructive In the first interview with Shelby Foote to appear since the early 1950s the Mississippi novelist discusses his fiction and extensive writing on Civil War history A thoughtful conversation with Walker Percy ranges over his three novels and reveals their philosophical roots Marion Montgomery speaks perceptively about his fiction and poetry as ceremonial efforts to reconcile the private act with the public act A two part interview with Reynolds Price suggests the nature of one novelist's mind as he chronicles a world beneath the one other people perceive that world which seems to impinge upon to color to shape the daily world we inhabit Willie Morris tells about growing up in Mississippi about going home to Yazoo and about the effect of New York on his Southernness while Larry L King speaks of race relations literature and Texas and talks frankly about how he and Morris came to resign from Harper's The short story is Doris Betts forte and she comments significantly on the form which allows her to speak briefly on long subjects The business of writing is as irrational as kite flying observes George Garrett in a candid discussion of the publishing world his own ups and downs as a writer and his latest novel The Death of the Fox Jesse Hill Ford talking about his fiction and his writing career speaks up proudly for the South Nest to a bulldozer blade a magnolia is probably the hardest damned thing in the world Both the mountain country of North Carolina and the fantastic landscapes of his imagination have influenced Fred Chappell who remarks on the grotesque in his novels and poetry Guy Owen tells about his interacting roles as fiction writer poet editor and teacher his compelling interest in the Lumbee Indians of North Carolina and his experience with Hollywood Poetry the novel football and a passion for teaching are the subjects of a provocative and free wheeling conversation with James Whitehead Have you ever stopped to think that for the first time there have been no rational rewards for writing in the way that there were in the past Nowadays it's about as rational as saying What do you do for a living Well I'm a kite flyer I mean there's not a great demand for kite flyers around There may be a few who draw a little money Therefore today writing appeals to a different mentality A Shakespeare today might be doing something else that's more rational Now the other thing is that because this is true fundamentally writing doesn't matter in the world of commerce It has a certain kind of I wouldn't say purity but freedom that is never had George Garrett
