A Philosophy of the Christian Religion Edward J. Carnell, 2007-11-01 Introducing the Edward Carnell Library Nine Titles Listed Inside A Philosophy of the Christian Religion is not a defense of the Christian faith in the conventional sense The gamut of contending values and the systems of thought preoccupying the contemporary mind are analyzed here with admirable comprehension and lucidity These competing philosophies are severally evaluated by the whole perspective of the Christian system and demonstrated as partial here and now values incapable of satisfying the demands of the whole man Christianity is a coherent religion It never asks the heart to trust values which the reason is obliged to discard as contradictory No value commitment is completely satisfying until the complete man is satisfied from the preface Scottish

Philosophy in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Gordon Graham, 2015-03-05 A History of Scottish Philosophy is a series of collaborative studies each volume being devoted to a specific period Together they provide a comprehensive account of the Scottish philosophical tradition from the centuries that laid the foundation of the remarkable burst of intellectual fertility known as the Scottish Enlightenment through the Victorian age and beyond when it continued to exercise powerful intellectual influence at home and abroad The books aim to be historically informative while at the same time serving to renew philosophical interest in the problems with which the Scottish philosophers grappled and in the solutions they proposed This volume covers the history of Scottish philosophy after the Enlightenment period through the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Leading experts explore the lives and work of major figures including Thomas Brown William Hamilton J F Ferrier Alexander Bain John Macmurray and George Davie and address important developments in the period from the Scottish reception of Kant and Hegel to the spread of Scottish philosophy in Europe America and Australasia and the relation of Common Sense philosophy and American pragmatism A concluding chapter investigates the nature and identity of a Scottish philosophical tradition General Editor Gordon Graham Princeton Theological Seminary

The Trinity and the Vindication of Christian Paradox BA Bosserman, 2015-02-26 The Trinity and the Vindication of Christian Paradox grapples with the question of how one may hold together the ideals of systematic theology apologetic proof and theological paradox by building on the insights of Cornelius Van Til Van Til developed an apologetic where one presupposes that the Triune God exists and then proves this Christian presupposition by demonstrating that philosophies that deny it are self defeating in the specific sense that they rely on principles that only the Trinity as the ultimate harmony of unity and diversity can furnish A question raised by Van Til's trademark procedure is how he can evade the charge that the apparent contradictions of the Christian faith render it equally self defeating as non Christian alternatives This text argues that for Van Til Christian paradoxes can be differentiated from genuine contradictions by the way that their apparently opposing elements discernibly require one another even as they present our minds with an irresolvable conflict And yet Van Til failed to sufficiently vindicate the central Christian paradox the doctrine of the Trinity along the lines required by his system Hence the present text offers a unique proof that God can only exist as the pinnacle of unity in diversity and as the ground of a coherent Christian system if He exists as three and only three divine persons The Journal of Philosophy ,1918 Covers topics in philosophy psychology and scientific methods Vols 31 include A Bibliography of philosophy 1933 The Moral, Social and Political Philosophy of the British Idealists William Sweet,2017-03-17 The British idealists of the late 19th and early 20th century are best known for their contributions to metaphysics logic and political philosophy Yet they also made important contributions to social and public policy social and moral philosophy and moral education as shown by this volume Their views are not only important in their own right but also bear on contemporary discussion in public policy and applied ethics Among the authors discussed are Green Caird Ritchie Bradley Bosanquet Jones McTaggart Pringle Pattison Webb Ward Mackenzie Hetherington Muirhead Collingwood and Oakeshott The writings of idealist philosophers from Canada South Africa and India are also examined Contributors include Avital Simhony Darin Nesbitt Carol A Keene Stamatoula Panagakou David Boucher Leslie Armour Jan Olof Bengtsson Thom Brooks James Connelly Philip MacEwen Efraim Podoksik Elizabeth Trott and William Sweet Twentieth-Century Western Philosophy of Religion 1900-2000 Eugene Thomas Long,2012-12-06 In the fall of 1994 Hendrik Jan van Leusen an acquisitions editor from Kluwer Academic Publishers visited me in my home to discuss a proposal for a handbook in the philosophy of religion He reported that he had been talking about this with philosophers of religion at several universities and that the response to the idea had been quite favorable I suggested that given the different approaches to the philosophy of religion it might be good for him to meet with philosophers representing different philosophical traditions at an upcoming meeting of the Eastern Division of the American Philosophical Association Jude Dougherty Joseph Kockelmans Robert Neville William Rowe and Merold Westphal kindly agreed to attend that meeting They made many substantial and helpful suggestions and a summary of the discussions was sent to van Leusen Some months later he wrote to inquire whether I might consider editing the series and writing the first volume which was to provide a historical map of twentieth century western philosophy of religion Although I could imagine myself editing the series I was initially reluctant to undertake the task of writing a volume that would take me across the lines of many different philosophical traditions By coincidence I had been asked some months earlier to contribute an essay on the philosophy of religion for a conference being held at the Catholic University of America on the general topic One Hundred Years of Philosophy God, Revelation and Authority (Set of 6) Carl F.
