Business Service Bulletin, 1956 Small Business Bibliography, 1962 Living the Magnificat Mark Chapman, 2007-10-15 This book offers a sustained reflection by leading Roman Catholic and Anglican writers on Mary's great song of praise and transformation the Magnificat in the context of contemporary struggles across the world and global inequalities The different contributors relate the story of Mary to issues of international justice regarding this as one of the key themes of mission and evangelism In his sparkling essay on the implications of Mary's making space for God James Alison challenges the reader to make space for an inclusive God From their very different perspectives Linda Hogan Margaret Magdalen and Mongezi Guma go on to address the issue of justice and what it means to be human in the light of Mary's story

Mark Chapman takes up the problem of Christian politics and how easy it is for Christians to become overly fixated on church affairs at the expense of the suffering world Similarly Michael Doe sees the contemporary Anglican struggles about issues in human sexuality as a distraction from far more pressing matters challenging the Anglican Communion to learn from the many examples of new life across the globe In a lively piece Joe Cassidy challenges Christians to think again about the universality of Christian ethics Finally Stephen Cottrell offers a vision of a world turned upside down and presents a call for a renewed sense of mission to combat the inherent destructiveness of so much recent political thinking Congressional Record United States.
