Fictional Biography 1 3:

The Biographical Dictionary of Literary Failure C. D. Rose, 2014-11-04 A darkly comic satirical reference book about writers who never made it into the literary canon A signal event of literary scholarship The Biographical Dictionary of Literary Failure compiles the biographies of history's most notable cases of a complete lack of literary success As such it is the world's leading authority on the subject Compiled in one volume by C D Rose a well educated person universally acknowledged in parts of England as the world's pre eminent expert on inept writers the book culls its information from lost or otherwise ignored archives scattered around the globe as well as the occasional dustbin The dictionary amounts to a monumental accomplishment the definitive appreciation of history's least accomplished writers Thus immortalized beyond deserving and rescued from hard earned obscurity the authors presented in this historic volume comprise a who's who of the talentless and deluded their stories timeless litanies of abject psychosis misapplication and delinquency It is in short a treasure

History: fiction or science?. Chronology 1 A. T. Fomenko, 2006 The author contends that all generally accepted historical chronology prior to the 16th century is inaccurate often off by many hundreds or even thousands of years Volume 1 of a proposed seven volumes

Imagining Gender in Biographical Fiction Julia Novak, Caitríona Ní Dhúill, 2022-12-15 This volume addresses the current boom in biographical fictions across the globe examining the ways in which gendered lives of the past become re imagined as gendered narratives in fiction Building on this research this book is the first to address questions of gender in a sustained and systematic manner that is also sensitive to cultural and historical differences in both raw material and fictional reworking It develops a critical lens through which to approach biofictions as fictions of gender drawing on theories of biofiction and historical fiction life writing studies feminist criticism queer feminist readings postcolonial studies feminist art history and trans studies Attentive to various approaches to fictionalisation that reclaim appropriate or re invent their raw material the volume assesses the critical revisionist and deconstructive potential of biographical fictions while acknowledging the effects of cliché gender norms and established narratives in many of the texts under investigation The introduction of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com Chapter 1 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com

Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1911 Historicizing Fiction/Fictionalizing History Nishevita J. Murthy,2014-10-16 Historicizing Fiction Fictionalizing History brings together two authors Umberto Eco and Orhan Pamuk not frequently studied in comparison By focusing on their non fictional works to present a unique study of the methods and concepts of representation Murthy uses contemporary historical novels to examine fictional depictions of reality and provides a fresh perspective on representation studies in literature Written in an accessible style and tapping into fields as varied as literary and critical theory the historical novel postmodernism and historiography Historicizing Fiction Fictionalizing History considers the ways in which reality as discourse confronts a text external reality and how this confrontation affects the autonomy of the fictional space topics that remain persistently problematic areas within literary studies Eco s The Name of the Rose and Baudolino and Pamuk s My Name is Red and Snow with their topical concerns and methods of representation promise a rewarding comparative study This book provides an early critical framework for these four works placing them within the rubric of the postmodernist historical novel as creative works that also comment on the process of literary writing through their recreation of historical pasts In this respect Historicizing Fiction Fictionalizing History promises to be an engaging read in literary criticism and historiography as well as a handy companion for Eco and Pamuk enthusiasts The Bookseller ,1913 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
