Fighting For Time Vol 4 The Image Of War 1861 1865:

Andersonvilles of the North James Massie Gillispie, 2008 Andersonvilles of the North by James M Gillispie represents the first broad study to argue that the image of Union prison officials as negligent and cruel to Confederate prisoners is severely flawed This study is not an attempt to whitewash Union prison policies or make light of Confederate prisoner mortality But once the careful reader disregards unreliable postwar polemics and focuses exclusively on the more reliable wartime records and documents from both Northern and Southern sources then a much different less negative picture of Northern prison life emerges While life in Northern prisons was difficult and potentially deadly no evidence exists of a conspiracy to neglect or mistreat Southern captives Confederate prisoners suffering and death were due to a number of factors but it would seem that Yankee apathy and malice were rarely among them BOOK JACKET The Bell Irvin Wiley Reader Hill Jordan, James I. Rebel Watchdog: The Confederate States Army Provost Guard Radley, Kenneth J.,1989 Two Civil Wars Katherine Bentley Jeffrey,2016-04-11 Two Civil Wars is both an edition of an unusual Civil War era double journal and a narrative about the two writers who composed its contents The initial journal entries were written by thirteen year old Celeste Repp while a student at St Mary s Academy a prominent but short lived girls school in midcentury Baton Rouge Celeste s French compositions dating from 1859 to 1861 offer brief but poignant meditations describe seasonal celebrations and mention by name both her headmistress Matilda Victor and French instructor and priest Father Darius Hubert Immediately following Celeste s prettily decorated pages a new title page intervenes introducing An Abstract Journal Kept by William L Park of the U S gunboat Essex during the American Rebellion Park s diary is a fulsome three year account of military engagements along the Mississippi and its tributaries the bombardment of southern towns the looting of plantations skirmishes with Confederate guerillas the uneasy experiment with contrabands freed slaves serving aboard ship and the mundane circumstances of shipboard life Very few diaries from the inland navy have survived and this is the first journal from the ironclad Essex to be published Jeffrey has read it alongside several unpublished accounts by Park's crewmates as well as a later memoir composed by Park in his declining years It provides rare insight into the culture of the ironclad fleet and equally rare firsthand commentary by an ordinary sailor on events such as the sinking of CSS Arkansas and the prolonged siege of Port Hudson Jeffrey provides detailed annotation and context for the Repp and Park journals filling out the biographies of both writers before and after the Civil War In Celeste's case Jeffrey uncovers surprising connections to such prominent Baton Rouge residents as the diarist Sarah Morgan and explores the complexity of wartime allegiances in the South through the experiences of Matilda Victor and Darius Hubert She also unravels the mystery of how a southern youngster's school scribbler found its way into the hands of a Union sailor In so doing she provides a richly detailed picture of occupied Baton Rouge and especially of events surrounding the Battle of Baton Rouge in August 1862 These two unusual personal journals linked by curious happenstance in a single notebook open up intriguing provocative and surprisingly complementary new vistas on antebellum Baton Rouge and the Civil War on the Mississippi Meserve Civil War Record
