Modernities , 2008-05-31 This is the first major publication in the West to study modernity and its impact on contemporary Tibet Based on field work by researchers from the fields of anthropology sociology environmental science literature art and linguistics it presents essays on education economics childbirth environment caste pop music media and painting in Tibetan communities today The findings emerge from studies carried out in Ladakh Golok Lhasa Xining Shigatse and other areas of the Tibetan world It will provide important and sometimes surprising results for students of Tibet China Himalayan studies as well as an important contribution to our understandings of modernity and development in the modern world The Frontier Complex Kyle J. Gardner, 2021-01-21 Kyle J Gardner reveals the transformation of the historical Himalayan entrep t of Ladakh into a modern disputed borderland through an examination of rare British Indian Ladakhi and Kashmiri archival sources In so doing he provides both a history of the rise of geopolitics and the first comprehensive history of Ladakh s encounter with the British Empire He examines how colonial border making practices transformed geography into a political science and established principles that a network of imperial frontier experts would apply throughout the empire and bequeath to an independent India Through analyzing the complex of imperial policies and practices The Frontier Complex reveals how the colonial state transformed and was transformed by new ways of conceiving of territory Yet despite a century of attempts to craft a suitable border the British failed The result is an imperial legacy still playing out across the Himalayas Homeland or Religion? Personal Identity Building in Zangskar, Indian Himalayas Salomé Deboos, 2023-07-10 Who are you Where do you come from These two simple questions have so many answers and are sometimes even difficult to answer This book tells the story of a Buddhist Muslim community from Padum in the Zangskar Valley Indian Greater Himalayas The author has gained a unique insight into this community during twenty years of research while the people shared doubts and joys with her These experiences showed her that the meaning of belonging to a homeland or a confessional group and therefore the transformation of the process of identity building in our modern world is bridging the gap between tradition and modernity

Trans-Himalayan Linguistics Thomas Owen-Smith, Nathan Hill, 2013-12-12 The Himalaya and surrounding regions are amongst the world's most linguistically diverse places Of an estimated 600 languages spoken here at Asia's heart few are researched in depth and many virtually undocumented Historical developments and relationships between the region's languages also remain poorly understood This book brings together new work on under researched Himalayan languages with investigations into the complexities of the area's linguistic history offering original data and perspectives on the synchrony and diachrony of the Greater Himalayan Region The volume arises from papers given and topics discussed at the 16th Himalayan Languages Symposium in London in 2010 Most papers focus on Tibeto Burman languages These include topics relating to individual mostly small and endangered languages such as Tilung Shumcho Rengmitca Yongning Na and Tshangla comparative research on the Tibetic East Bodish and Tamangic language groups and several papers whose scope covers the whole language family The remaining paper deals with the origins of Burushaski whose genetic affiliation remains uncertain This book will be of special interest to scholars of Tibeto Burman and historical as well as general linguists
