Indian Women's Writing in English Joel Kuortti, 2002 This is a remarkable collection of information on Indian women's writing written originally in English Beginning from the 19th century it introduces 444 writers of poetry and fiction Now it has been a part of common critical parlance to say that the Indian English women's writing is in ascendance One aim of this bibliography is to illustrate this phenomenon and to emphasise the variety of writing Writers included in the bibliography come from all over India and from the Indian diaspora all over the world Another aim of this bibliography is to make us aware of the constructed nature of writerhood A given writer's texts do not exist and circulate in a vacuum but in a context We can see that Indian English women's writing is taking place But what we do not see is the critical establishment that is literary scholars and critics taking much note of it

Constructing a New Canon of Post-1980s Indian English Fiction Sahdev Luhar, Madhurita Choudhary, 2017-08-21 The literary canon implies the evaluation or estimation of certain literary texts as the most important during a particular time The canon is not merely a set of texts it is a set of standards evaluative procedures and values Belonging to a canon confers a guarantee of literary greatness A canon is formed by a particular group to channelize cultural hegemony over others or can be constructed by a governed group to bring about cultural symmetry The rise of diverse literatures in English in different parts of the world after the colonial rule of England was the consequence of an urge to articulate a cultural equilibrium or an urge to strike back The process of canon formation is also a focused and bigoted act and is always carried out to accomplish certain self centred objectives It is commonly accepted that canon formation is executed to accomplish or naturalize certain ideological functions In the sphere of Indian English literature Indian English fiction after the end of the 1980s has emerged as a new canon This book looks into the process of literary canon formation in Indian universities and examines such fiction as an alternative literary canon and as an anti imperialistic response to the British literary canon The book ascertains the anti imperialistic design involved in forming the canon of post 1980 Indian English fiction examines the gradual emerging trends in such fiction and discerns the role of language culture and native ethos in the formation of a canon It also differentiates post 1980s Indian English fiction from British fiction bhasa fiction and even from pre 1980s Indian English fiction
