was reborn as the baby Yulucia of the Holy Kingdom of Talitelud and it's time to celebrate Thanks to a decree by her grandfather the king her birthday party is being held at the castle There Yulucia finally meets her devious older sisters who try to play pranks on her only to be met with the little devil's laughter What's more the four attendants Yulucia's father assigned to her are lazy selfish and greedy perfect Just when Yulucia thinks her day couldn't get any better the so-called silver princess decides to hold a tea party by moonlight The princess smells of blood and Yulucia can't help but be intrigued by her invitation Looks like life as a five-year-old is going to be lots of fun Isaac Albéniz Walter Aaron Clark, 1999 Walter Aaron Clark here presents for the first time in English a detailed and accurate account of one of the most intriguing figures in the Romantic period Isaac Albeniz 1860-1909 a renowned concert pianist created a national style of Spanish piano music and also fostered the growth of the concerto orchestral music and opera in Spain As a touring child prodigy who supposedly stowed away on a steamer to the New World later studied with Liszt and eventually got ensnared in a Faustian pact with the wealthy English librettist Frances Burdett Money Coutts Albeniz has become somewhat of a legend Based on a wealth of new and previously overlooked documentary evidence this biography debunks the mythology surrounding his career much of it spun by the composer himself Testamenta Vetusta Sir Nicholas Harris Nicolas, 1826 The Architectural Antiquities of Great Britain Represented and Illustrated in a Series of Views, Elevations, Plans, Sections and Details of Ancient English Edifices John Britton, 1835 Conflicting Femininities in Medieval German Literature Karina Marie Ash, 2016-05-23 Drastic changes in lay religiosity during the High Middle Ages spurred anxiety about women forsaking their secular roles as wives and mothers for religious ones as nuns and beguines This anxiety and the subsequent need to model an ideal of feminine behavior for the laity is particularly expressed in the German versions of Latin and French narratives Using thirteenth-century penitentials monastic exempla and sermons Karina Marie Ash clarifies how secular wifehood was recast as a quasi-religious role and in German epics and romances from the late twelfth and early thirteenth centuries how female characters are adapted to promote the salvific nature of worldly love in ways that echo the pastoral reevaluation of women at that time Then she argues that mid and late thirteenth-century German literature not only reflects this impulse to idealize women's roles in lay society but also to promote an alternative model of femininity that deploys ways of privileging secular roles for women over religious ones These continuously evolving readaptations of female protagonists across cultures and across centuries reflect fictive solutions for real historical concerns about women that not only complement contemporary pastoral and legal reforms but are also unique to medieval German literature The British Critic: v.1: October [1825] and January 1826, 1826 Reviews of new British and European publications and correspondence from readers Between Saint James and Erasmus: Studies in Late-Medieval Religious Life – Devotion and Pilgrimage in the Netherlands Jan van Herwaarden, 2021-10-25 This volume is divided into four sections late medieval devotion in the Netherlands medieval Christian pilgrimage the medieval cult of St James the Great and Erasmiana Variety and coherence sound the keynote in the title and the contents of the book Religious concepts and expressions of religious faith such as pilgrimages and indulgences are representative of late medieval Christianity In this book they refer specifically to the medieval cult of St James the Great while for Erasmus they were an object of his critical consideration The whole book can be read in the light of the debate about the tension between an appreciation for outward signs of faith and the inward experience of religious belief which Erasmus considered an absolute necessity
