Lady From Toledo An Historical Novel In Santa Fe:

The Lady from Toledo Angelico Chavez, 1960 Fray Angélico Chávez Ellen McCracken, 2012-07-15 New Mexico's first Franciscan priest Fray Angélico Chávez 1910-1996 is known as a prolific historian, a literary and artistic figure, and an intellectual who played a vital role in Santa Fe's community of writers. The original essays collected here explore his wide-ranging cultural production: fiction, poetry, architectural restoration, journalism, genealogy, translation, and painting and drawing. Several essays discuss his approach to history, his archival research, and the way in which he re-centers ethnic identity in the prevalent Anglo-American master historical narrative. Others examine how he used fiction to bring history alive and combined visual and verbal elements to enhance his narratives. Two essays explore Chávez's profession as a friar. The collection ends with recollections by Thomas E. Chávez, historian, and Fray Angélico's nephew. Readers familiar with Chávez's work as well as those learning about it for the first time will find much that surprises and informs in these essays. Part of the Pas por Aquí Series on the New Mexican Literary Heritage.

Our Lady of Controversy Alicia Gaspar de Alba, Alma López, 2011-04-01 Months before Alma López's digital collage Our Lady was shown at the Museum of International Folk Art in 2001, the museum began receiving angry phone calls from community activists and Catholic leaders who demanded that the image not be displayed. Protest rallies, prayer vigils, and death threats ensued, but the provocative image of la Virgen de Guadalupe, hands on hips, clad only in roses, and exalted by a bare-breasted butterfly angel, remained on exhibition. Highlighting many of the pivotal questions that have haunted the art world since the NEA debacle of 1988, the contributors to Our Lady of Controversy present diverse perspectives ranging from definitions of art to the artist's intention, feminism, queer theory, colonialism, and Chicano nationalism. Contributors include the exhibition curator Tey Marianna Nunn, award-winning novelist and Chicana historian Emma Pérez, and Deena González, recognized as one of the fifty most important living women historians in America. Accompanied by a bonus DVD of Alma López's I Love Lupe video that looks at the Chicana artistic tradition of reimagining la Virgen de Guadalupe, featuring a historic conversation between Yolanda López, Ester Hernández, and Alma López, Our Lady of Controversy promises to ignite important new dialogues.

The Short Stories of Fray Angelico Chavez Angelico Chavez, 1987 This anthology is the first collection of fiction published since 1957 by one of New Mexico's leading men of letters.

Recovering Hispanic Religious Thought and Practice of the United States Nicolás Kanellos, 2009-05-05

The primary role played by religion in the development of the Spanish nation in the Iberian Peninsula and its subsequent role in the Spanish conquest and colonization of the Americas has been well studied Similarly Hispanics around the world and in the United States have been characterized in scholarship and popular opinion by the dimensions of their predominant Catholic faith To date neither their diversity of faith nor their ethnic and racial diversity have been adequately addressed thus contributing to a widely held perception of a monolithic culture with its own Catholic world view a world view often categorized as obscurantist mystical and anachronistic Most important the role of religion in all of its diversity and historical evolution in building Hispanic culture in the United States has not been adequately studied or understood Today because a corpus of Hispanic religious thought from across the ages in the United States has been reconstituted and there are scholars dedicated to understanding this thought and the experience it reveals publication of this present volume has been made possible The chapters of Recovering Hispanic Religious Thought and Practice in the United States have resulted from the research underwritten by the eponymous Recovery project and initially presented at Recovery conferences in 2004 and 2005 After scholarly debate and re working of the research papers the articles contained in this volume were selected They represent original work on topics rarely addressed before in recognition that these articles are laying the groundwork on which an entire sub discipline of Hispanic history literature and theology will be constructed The material addressed is so rich and the themes so numerous and promising that their presentation and elaboration here most certainly will entice scholars from other disciplines to broaden their perspectives on Hispanic life in the United States and perhaps to look to these religious and other alternative sources in conducting their own disciplinary research The Searcher, 2002

The Life and Writing of Fray Angélico Chávez Ellen McCracken, 2010-01-16 Winner of the Southwest Book Award from the Border Regional Library Association As a teenager Manuel Ch vez 1910 1996 left his native New Mexico for over a decade of study at the St Francis Seraphic Seminary in Cincinnati Ohio and other midwestern institutions Included in his curriculum was an introduction to literature and the arts that piqued an interest that would follow him the remainder of his life Upon returning to New Mexico he was ordained Fray Ang lico Ch vez and would become one of New Mexico s most important twentieth century writers In The Life and Writing of Fray Ang lico Ch vez Ellen McCracken provides a literary biography that includes a deep look into the intellectual and cultural contributions of this Renaissance man McCracken moves chronologically through a substantial body of work that includes fiction poetry plays essays spiritual tracts sermons historical writing translation painting church renovation and journalism From the prolific creativity of the years of his first assignment in Pe a Blanca to the decades he spent researching Hispano genealogy in New Mexico McCracken traces Ch vez s complex and changing identity as an ethnic American and religious subject who was also an historian artist creative writer and preservationist The year 2010 will mark the centenary of Fray Ang lico Ch vez s birth and this volume will serve as a fitting tribute Timeless Caravan Thomas E. Chavez, 2020-07-02 Based on extensive research as well as on a career working for cultural institutions historian Thomas E Ch vez has created a historical novel about the American southwest specifically in New Mexico and Arizona a place where Europeans settled in 1598 Here is a historical narrative about one of those families The story begins and ends with Edward Romero who became the United States ambassador to Spain and is prototypical of the thousands of young men and some women who sought a new life in the new world and became American These were people taking risks accepting fate succeeding failing loving and hating The Romero story is an American odyssey shared by any number of families in a region and whose cultural legacy is part of the heritage of the United States that only recently has come to the fore in the United States national consciousness This story delineates a part of the heritage of every American and enriches an already beautiful history A bibliographic essay maps and genealogical charts will assist the reader to differentiate places names and generations The Publishers Weekly, 1906 Women Writers of the American West, 1833-1927 Nina Baym, 2012-08-17 Women Writers of the American West 1833 1927 recovers the names and works of hundreds of women who wrote about the American West during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries some of them long forgotten and others better known novelists poets memoirists and historians such as Willa Cather and Mary Austin Holley Nina Baym mined literary and cultural histories anthologies scholarly essays catalogs advertisements and online resources to debunk critical assumptions that women did not publish about the West as much as they did about other regions Elucidating a substantial body of nearly 650 books of all kinds by more than 300 writers Baym reveals how the authors showed women making lives for themselves in the West how they represented the diverse region and how they represented themselves Baym accounts for a wide range of genres and geographies affirming that the literature of the West was always more than cowboy tales and dime novels Nor did the West consist of a single landscape as women living in the expanses of Texas saw a different world from that seen by women in gold rush California Although many women writers of the American West accepted domestic agendas crucial to the development of families farms and businesses they also found ways to be forceful agents of change whether by taking on political positions deriding male arrogance or as their voluminous published works show speaking out when they were expected to be silent
