Bulletin Ontario. Department of Agriculture,1929 Talkin' Up to the White Woman Aileen Moreton-Robinson,2021-10-12 A twentieth anniversary edition of this tour de force in feminism and Indigenous studies now with a new preface The twentieth anniversary of the original publication of this influential and prescient work is commemorated with a new edition of Talkin Up to the White Woman by Aileen Moreton Robinson In this bold book of its time and ahead of its time whiteness is made visible in power relations presenting a dialogic of how white feminists represent Indigenous women in discourse and how Indigenous women self present Moreton Robinson argues that white feminists benefit from colonization they are overwhelmingly represented and disproportionately predominant play the key roles and constitute the norm the ordinary and the standard of womanhood They do not self present as white but rather represent themselves as variously classed sexualized aged and abled The disjuncture between representation and self presentation of Indigenous women and white feminists illuminates different epistemologies and an incommensurability in the social construction of gender Not so much a study of white womanhood Talkin Up to the White Woman instead reveals an invisible racialized subject position represented and deployed in power relations with Indigenous women The subject position occupied by middle class white women is embedded in material and discursive conditions that shape the nature of power relations between white feminists and Indigenous women and the unjust structural relationship between white society and Indigenous society Shakespeareana ,1885 The Woman in White Adrian Flynn,Wilkie Collins,1999-05 Collins disturbing tale of deceit and trickery set against a backdrop of Victorian madness and melodrama has been captured in this compelling stage version Walter Hartright the drawing teacher re tells the fascinating story of the sisters Laura and Marian and of the strange appearance of the Woman in White American Berkshire Record American Berkshire Association,1910

McGilvray,Michele R. Gamburd,2013-05-13 The Indian Ocean Tsunami which devastated 70 percent of Sri Lanka s coastline and killed an estimated 35 000 people was remarkable both for the magnitude of the disaster and for the unprecedented scale of the relief and recovery operations mounted by national and international agencies The reconstruction process was soon hampered by political patronage by the competing efforts of hundreds of foreign humanitarian organizations and by the ongoing civil war The book is framed within this larger political and social context offering descriptions and comparisons between two regions southwest vs eastern coast and four ethnic communities Sinhalese Tamils Muslims and Burghers to illustrate how disaster relief unfolded in a culturally pluralistic political landscape Approaching the issue from four disciplinary perspectives anthropology demography political science and disaster studies chapters by experts in the field analyse regional and ethnic patterns of post tsunami reconstruction according to different sectors of Sri Lankan society Demonstrating the key importance of comprehending the local cultural contexts of disaster recovery processes the book is a timely and useful contribution to the existing literature
