Christian Register and Boston Observer... , 1908      Homo Ecophagus Warren M. Hern, 2022-09-30 Home Ecophagus by Warren M Hern is a wide ranging look at the major problems for the survival of not just the human species but all other species on Earth due to human activities over the past tens of thousands years The title of the book indicates Hern s new name for the human species The man who devours the ecosystem Over the course of its evolution Hern observes humans have evolved cultures and adaptations that have now become malignant and that the human species at the global level has all the major characteristics of a malignant neoplasm converting all plant animal organic and inorganic material into human biomass or its adaptive adjuncts and support systems Hern contends that this process is incompatible with continued survival of the human species and most other species on the planet offering a diagnosis and prognosis of the current environmental impasse      Nasha Bil Hoga, He Who Walks Alone Mike Wyant, 2013-02-22 An eleven year old Navajo boy is taken by force from his Arizona reservation home and bussed to Fort Sill Indian School near Lawton and Fort Sill Oklahoma in 1949 The U S law requires the Navajo children to attend school in a federally operated boarding school The boy is treated roughly at his capture and on the bus trip He vows to escape from the school and walk run back the eight hundred miles back to his home realizing he has no money and does not trust the white man He is forced to rely on his survival skills He makes several friends at the school However in the spring he leaves at night and starts his journey home The challenges he faces at the school and also his journey and how he overcomes those challenges are detailed When he finally reaches his home area he hears crying from several people and creeps through the sagebrush to see what is happening The same government agents who seized him are trying to wrestle an eight year old girl from her mother and grandmother and put her on the bus But while that happens the boy slips unnoticed on to the bus and invites all the children to follow him and he will hide and protect them until the agents have gone and stopped looking for them Twenty one of the children come with him and he hikes for two days covering his trails until he reaches an old unknown cliff dwelling that he and his family had stayed at many times It is well hidden For close to a year the children survive in the cliff dwelling learning Indian skills from the boy and school skills from a twelve year old girl Meanwhile a large political battle takes place for many months and finally the law is changed so the Navajo children can stay on the reservation to learn the white mans ways and education When all the papers have been signed by the Congress and the president the childrens group is able to return home A large dinner is planned by the tribal council for their return At this dinner the boy Jeff White Cloud has his name formally changed by the tribal leaders to Nasha Bi Hoga He Who Walks Alone      Boys' Life ,1929-08 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting
