Lamb In Love:

Lamb in Love Carrie Brown, 1999-04-01 Carrie Brown's triumphant first novel Rose's Garden garnered high praise from the critics for its simple beautiful language and for plumbing the emotional depths of ordinary human beings Just a year later she does it again Lamb in Love is set in a rural English village the year of the Apollo moon landing and tells of two people surprised halfway through their lives by what passion desire love They haven't the experience to quite identify it Norris and Vida have known each other forever Neither has had any idea how to go about falling in love Vida Stephen has been nanny for twenty years to the mentally handicapped son of a rich American widower Every day for most of her life she nods to Norris Lamb the postmaster when calling for her mail Sometimes Norris offers pretty stamps to the boy A fussy stamp collecting bachelor and church organist Norris has fallen suddenly amazingly and secretly in love with Vida Witness to Norris and Vida's halting at times embarrassing courtship is Vida's charge Manford mute and clumsy and yet possessed of an odd and gentle intelligence It is through Manford even thanks to him that Norris and Vida finally come to recognize each other and themselves Carrie Brown has an affinity for the way love transforms the most ordinary and imperfect people In Lamb in Love she celebrates a man and a woman who discover in themselves a bravery that allows them to become the heroes of their own story

Encountering Islam

Richard Sudworth, 2017-10-30 What do Christian Churches say Islam is What does the Church of England say Islam is And in the end what space is there for genuine engagement with Islam Richard Sudworth's unique study takes as its cue the question of political theology and brings this burgeoning area of debate into dialogue with Christian Muslim relations and Anglican ecclesiology The vexed subject of Christian Muslim Relations provides the presenting arena to explore what political theologies enable the Church of England to engage with the diverse public square of the twenty first century Each chapter concludes with an Anecdotes from the Field section setting themes from the chapter in the context of Richard Sudworth's own ministry within a Muslim majority parish Album Verses and Romantic Literary Culture Samantha Matthews, 2020 This is the first book to tell the story of the Romantic album and its original poetry It rediscovers a huge number of overlooked Romantic poems and reconstructs how albums and their owners were represented in print Trust Love Christof Breitsameter, 2025-07-21 This study explores the plausibility of a sexual morality that was primarily intended to ensure the production of legitimate offspring in the traditional lifeworld With this goal in mind it is not surprising that adultery contraception homosexual relationships divorce and remarriage were subject to moral disapproval and in some cases even legal proscription In this context Christian theology followed its own path by drastically devaluing sexual lust and increasingly attempting to prohibit divorce and remarriage despite the fact that no models for this approach existed in either the biblical or the pagan world Both of these tendencies can be explained with reference to their socio historical origins which also necessarily include the establishment of the church as an organization In the process of tracing these histories it becomes clear that traditional sexual morality is a product of its time For this reason the book also includes a systematic section devoted to considering why this traditional sexual morality has largely lost its validity in modern society as well as which norms may take its place Louise de la Valliere, Or, the Love of Bragelonne Alexandre Dumas, 1910
