Art Song Keith E. Clifton, 2008-09-05 Recent American Art Song A Guide is a reference source devoted to songs with English texts by American composers written for solo voice and piano The book focuses exclusively on art song since 1980 a substantial period largely ignored by scholars This is the first study to examine this repertory in detail and many of the songs and composers are discussed in print for the first time Keith E Clifton has examined approximately 1000 songs by nearly 200 composers Many songs employ musical idioms well beyond traditional classical styles including references to jazz musical theater rap and rock roll and several songs blur the boundaries between recital and stage works Organized alphabetically by composer entries contain complete biographical and bibliographical information with major works and links to print resources and composer websites when available In addition Clifton provides detailed information on the vocal range musical style and appropriate voice type for individual songs The book concludes with a full discography and bibliography as well as indexes listing the works by poet song cycle title voice type and level of difficulty The Roberto Gerhard Companion Monty Adkins,2016-02-24 More than forty years after the composer s death the music of Roberto Gerhard 1896 1970 continues to be recorded and performed and to attract international scholarly interest The Roberto Gerhard Companion is the first full length scholarly work on this composer noted for his sharp intellect and original exploring mind This book builds on the outcomes of two recent international conferences and includes contributions by scholars from Spain the USA and UK The essays collected here explore themes and trends within Gerhard s work using individual or groups of works as case studies Among the themes presented are the way Gerhard s work was shaped by his Catalan heritage his education under Pedrell and Schoenberg and his very individual reaction to the latter s teaching and methods notably Gerhard s very distinctive approach to serialism The influence of these and other cultural and literary figures is an important underlying theme that ties essays together Exiled from Catalonia from 1939 Gerhard spent the remainder of his life in Cambridge England composing a string of often ground breaking compositions notably the symphonies and concertos composed in the 1950s and 1960s A particular focus in this book is Gerhard s electronic music He was a pioneer in this genre and the book will contain the first rigorous studies of this music as well as the first accurate catalogue of this electronic output His ground breaking output of incidental music for radio and the stage is also given detailed consideration Essays on Roberto Gerhard Monty Adkins,Michael Russ,2017-03-07 For much of the mid twentieth century Roberto Gerhard found himself an outsider He was airbrushed from much writing on contemporary music in Spain during the Franco regime and was known in England more for his commercial music for theatre film and radio than his concert works However his significance as a musical innovator in developing serial technique and in the field of electro acoustics is now being gradually recognised in both Spain and England as well as further afield The volume explores an extensive range of Gerhard s work from the early Wind Quintet and the Spanish ballets Pandora and Don Quixote with their overt political overtones through to the late period Metamorphoses and a newly discovered chance based composition Claustrophilia written in response to a request by John Cage for his book Notations One of the key themes presented throughout the book is Gerhard s innovative use of serialism Gerhard s development of Schoenberg s technique led him to explore the serialization of both pitch and time This volume suggests evidence for the first time that situates Gerhard s idiosyncratic experiments alongside rather than after the total serialist works of his European counterparts Pierre Boulez Olivier Messiaen and Karlheinz Stockhausen The New Criterion ,2005
