Germany and the Black Diaspora Mischa Honeck,Martin Klimke,Anne Kuhlmann,2013-07-01 The rich history of encounters prior to World War I between people from German speaking parts of Europe and people of African descent has gone largely unnoticed in the historical literature not least because Germany became a nation and engaged in colonization much later than other European nations This volume presents intersections of Black and German history over eight centuries while mapping continuities and ruptures in Germans perceptions of Blacks Juxtaposing these intersections demonstrates that negative German perceptions of Blackness proceeded from nineteenth century racial theories and that earlier constructions of race were far more differentiated The contributors present a wide range of Black German encounters from representations of Black saints in religious medieval art to Black Hessians fighting in the American Revolutionary War from Cameroonian children being educated in Germany to African American agriculturalists in Germany s protectorate Togoland Each chapter probes individual and collective responses to these intercultural points of contact The Collected Short Stories of Louis L'Amour, Volume 4, Part 1 Louis L'Amour,2015-02-24 The Collected Short Stories of Louis L Amour Volume 4 Part 1 kicks off this collection of L Amour s classic adventures and includes his very first published short story Here are timeless tales of danger and daring wanderlust and heroism filled with ordinary men and women facing often life threatening challenges with courage dignity and honor The first of two parts this volume contains breathtaking thrills and dynamic characters from the down on his luck fortune hunter who risks everything to save a married couple in the wilds of Borneo to the mysterious hero aboard a downed airliner dangling six hundred feet above certain doom This unique collection is guaranteed to delight readers again and again proving why Louis L Amour remains America s favorite storyteller Humanistica Lovaniensia Gilbert Tournoy,1983-02-15 Volume 32

Rewriting/Reprising Georges Letissier,2009-10-02 This volume comprises sixteen essays preceded by an introductory chapter focusing on the diverse modalities of textual and more widely artistic transfer Whereas the first Rewriting Reprising volume coord by C Maisonnat J Paccaud Huguet its subversive potential is perceptible notably through its many attempts at emancipating the genre from the ideological fetters of gender Over the past two decades Victorian literature and culture has become an inescapable field of investigations to any study on intertextuality in the English speaking world In a second part diversity has been preferred to any single specific angle to approach the Victorian neo Victorian tropism The purpose is to provide as complete a spectrum as is reasonably possible in such a volume The practice of rewriting in the Victorian age is thus studied alongside contemporary appropriations of the Victorian canon The question is raised of whether literary fetishism may not result in a form of counterfeit classicism while the more challenging neo Victorian rewritings would make a claim for the need to choose one s literary heritage and ancestors This is where the post colonial agenda comes in Precisely the third part investigates the question of rewriting reprising as a way of writing back The myth of Frankenstein s creature bent on wreaking vengeance on his creator is of course seminal as it offers a myth of transgression which in its turn becomes a foundation myth Not only are post colonial responses to their disclaimed parent texts highly theory informed but they also evince an awareness of such contemporary issues which are direct consequences of the colonial past In the last section of this volume the scope of what comes within the range of intertextuality per se is widened to cover artistic dialogism In the exchanges between theatrical texts reprise may be construed as a metaphor standing for the pleasure inherent in the process of recreation The interaction between embedded paintings and the embedding canvas offers yet another variation on the reprise motif as does the meta aesthetic discourse of the critic on the work of art What begins as mere repetition is soon colored by the personal inflections of the interpreter In operatic performances updating a classical text to make it suitable to contemporary audiences and in close harmony with the role assigned to music is liable to spur on the creativity of recreation The Disperata, from Medieval Italy to Renaissance France Gabriella Scarlatta,2017-08-31 This study explores how the themes of the disperata genre including hopelessness death suicide doomed love collective trauma and damnations are creatively adopted by several generations of poets in Italy and France to establish a tradition that at times merges with and at times subverts Petrarchism A Critical Bibliography of French Literature V2 16th C ,

Architecture in France in the Eighteenth Century Wend Graf Kalnein,Wend von Kalnein,1995-01-01 Architecture in France in the Eighteenth Century Wend von Kalnein French architecture of the eighteenth century which exhibited great technical ability and refined taste influenced architectural style throughout Europe. This handsome book is a survey of the French architecture of the period. It begins with the origins of the style moderne under the last years of Louis XIV, discusses the end of Rococo and the return to antiquity and concludes with the Revolutionary architecture and the house of Madame R camier. Kalnein describes the development of palace and hotel architecture by the two great architects de Cotte and Boffrand, discussing such large urban projects as the reconstruction of Rennes and the Places Royales. He traces the return to antiquity which began when the scholars of the Académie d'Architecture were sent to Rome, the revolutionary architecture with its grand but never executed projects and the shift from neoclassicism to early romanticism. Kalnein also examines the decorative arts of the period which became even more important than architecture in the Rococo period. Focusing on such architects as Boffrand, Gabriel and Redoux, he shows how a study of their building decoration illuminates the evolution of style moderne, the battle between Rococo and Neoclassicism and the dissemination of French styles throughout Europe.
