Lampwick And Candlegrease Or Below The Salt:

Lampwick and Candlegrease Or Below the Salt Dalton Alexander, 2004-04 Writing of rural England in the thirties wartime Britain and post war London hospitals the author says It has given me great pleasure to put my early life down in print It brought back memories that made me laugh and gave a boosting lift away from today s Dead Pan existence In those days before the war folks were pleased with what they managed to get and looked after their possessions for years They were a different breed from today where no one is satisfied for very long There were no endless temptations to grab more and more A pleasant day in the country meant so much Now there is no time for genuine enjoyment when the TV and computer beckon one to waste vast amounts of money on nothing or very little People were amusing and characters were never forgotten Dalton Alexander
