

The background of the book cover is a stylized landscape of rolling hills and mountains. The hills are rendered in various shades of green, with the foreground being a darker green and the background hills being lighter, creating a sense of depth. The sky is a pale yellow. The title 'Land Diving' is printed in a bold, orange-red serif font across the middle of the green hills.

The Afterlife of the Shoah in Central and Eastern European Cultures Anna Artwinska, Anja Tippner, 2021-11-08 The Afterlife of the Shoah in Central and Eastern European Cultures is a collection of essays by literary scholars from Germany the US and Central Eastern Europe offering insight into the specific ways of representing the Shoah and its aftereffects as well as its entanglement with other catastrophic events in the region Introducing the conceptual frame of postcatastrophe the collected essays explore the discursive and artistic space the Shoah occupies in the countries between Moscow and Berlin Postcatastrophe is informed by the knowledge of other concepts of post and shares their insight into forms of transmission and latency in contrast to them explores the after effects of extreme events on a collective aesthetic and political rather than a personal level The articles use the concept of postcatastrophe as a key to understanding the entangled and conflicted cultures of remembrance in postsocialist literatures and the arts dealing with events phenomena and developments that refuse to remain in the past and still continue to shape perceptions of today's societies in Eastern Europe As a contribution to memory studies as well as to literary criticism with a special focus on Shoah remembrance after socialism this book is of great interest to students and scholars of European history and those interested in historical memory more broadly Granite ,1974 The State ,1977-06 Cosmopolitan Cultures and Oceanic Thought Dilip M Menon, Nishat Zaidi, 2023-03-29 This book imagines the ocean as central to understanding the world and its connections in history literature and the social sciences Introducing the central conceptual category of ocean as method it analyzes the histories of movement and traversing across connected spaces of water and land sedimented in literary texts folklore local histories autobiographies music and performance It explores the constant flow of people material and ideologies across the waters and how they make their presence felt in a cosmopolitan thinking of the connections of the world Going beyond violent histories of slavery and indenture that generate global connections it tracks the movements of sailors boatmen religious teachers merchants and adventurers The essays in this volume summon up this miscegenated history in which land and water are ever linked A significant rethinking of world history this volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of history especially connected history and maritime history literature and Global South studies
