Land Labor In Europe 1900 195:

The Imperial Underbelly Gunnel Cederlöf, 2022-11-01 The volume introduces a new analysis of interconnected labour and economic history of colonial India and Scandinavia From a recently found archive of a railway contractor's private and business papers the studies revise both Indian labour history and Scandinavian modern history and ties south Sweden into the British Empire With deep insights into everyday work practices of Indian and European contractors and manual labourers the book establishes a bridge across the globe between two poor regions as sites of extraction and industrial transformation resulting from global migration and capital flows Drawing on rich archival sources such as the Joseph Stephens Archive Maharashtra State Archives the National Archives of India and the British Library the book offers deep insights into everyday business practices of European contractors in India which were rarely documented and have remained largely inaccessible so far A unique look into the labour and entrepreneurship practices under British colonial rule in India as well as its impact on the most transformative years of modern southern Scandinavia the book will be of great interest to students academics and teachers of history labour studies subaltern studies colonialism imperialism economic history railways economics and Scandinavian and South Asian studies

Twenty-Six Centuries of Agrarian Reform Elias H. Tuma, 2023-11-10 Have land reform movements ever managed to redistribute wealth to encourage economic development to improve standards of living to ensure political stability This book answers in the negative Drawing upon land reform movements over twenty six centuries of history Tuma develops a hypothesis about land tenure reform that should enable other scholars to evaluate the success of past reform movements and to see the trends of present and future ones more clearly In the first part of the study a general definition of land tenure reform is advanced Starting with the ordinary meaning of reform as a redistribution of land to benefit the small farmer or landless agricultural worker this definition is modified so as to take into account various forms of tenure of title to land patterns of cultivation terms of holding and scale of operation The middle section of the book presents a comparative study of different types of land reform movements Eight major case histories are considered the Greek reforms of Solon and Pisistratus in the sixth century B C the Roman reforms of the Gracchi in the second century B C the English tenure changes covering the commutations of the Middle Ages and the enclosures of the sixteenth and eighteenth centuries the reforms accompanying the French Revolution the three Russian reforms the emancipation of 1861 the Stolypin reforms of 1906 1911 and the Soviet reform beginning in 1917 the Mexican reform after the 1910 revolution the Japanese reform after the Second World War and the Egyptian reform starting in 1952 In sum the book relates the land reform movements of past centuries to those now in progress in underdeveloped countries It argues that the land reforms of the last two decades have dealt with symptoms rather than causes have affected only a small percentage of either the population or the cultivable area and warns that even if high concentrations of the land holdings are broken down reconcentration is likely to recur unless strong preventive measures are taken This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1965 Aging in the Past David I. Kertzer, 2024-07-26 Thanks to improved food medicine and living conditions the average age of the population is increasing throughout the modern industrialized world Yet despite the recent upsurge of scholarly interest in the lives of older people and the blossoming of historical demography little historical demographic attention has been paid to the lives of the elderly A landmark volume Aging in the Past marks the emergence of the historical demographic study of aging Following a masterly explication of the new field by Peter Laslett leading scholars in family history and historical demography offer new research results and fresh analyses that greatly increase our understanding of aging historically and across cultures Focusing primarily on post Industrial Europe and the United States they explore a range of issues under the broad topics of living arrangements widowhood and retirement and mortality This important work provides a much needed historical perspective on and suggests possible alternative solutions to the problems of the aged Contributors George Alter Rudolf Andorka Allen C Goodman Myron P Gutmann Michael R Haines E A Hammel Tamara K Hareven Nancy Karweit David I Kertzer Peter Laslett Andrejs Plakans Roger L Ransom Daniel Scott Smith Richard Sutch Peter Uhlenberg Richard Wall Charles Wetherell This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1995 Migration in European History Colin Holmes, 1996 Migration in European History is a comprehensive collection of articles focusing on European migration during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries This major two volume set examines the motivations for migration drawing on the particular experience of Irish German Scottish Italian Scandinavian and other European migrants as well as those who migrated to Europe such as West Indian migrants into Britain After presenting historical overviews of migration in Europe the first volume examines the hostility faced by migrants both in their countries of origin and their countries of destination The second volume addresses the contributions migrants have made to the countries in which they settled as well as studies comparing the experience of different migrant groups The continuing links of migrants with their countries of origin is also explored through an extensive series of essays and papers These authoritative and wide ranging volumes offer students and scholars from many disciplines a distillation of the key texts and issues which have been addressed in the historical study of migration in Europe
