Secret Rovers James

Taylor,Douglas Cooke,2025-04-29 In the late 1960s the old Rover Company put everything it knew into a complex luxury saloon codenamed P8 At the same time it planned to branch out into a new sector of the market with a stunningly advanced mid engined sports car prototype that became a formal project with the codename of P9 However with the forced merger into British Leyland in 1968 Rover found itself squeezed between Triumph and Jaguar neither marque welcomed the new sports car and Jaguar particularly did not welcome the new luxury saloon Little by little Rover s plans were undermined and in 1970 the sports car was killed off followed by the luxury saloon which was axed in 1971 a mere six months before production was due to start Just a year later Rover itself ceased to exist as a separate business after a forced merger with Triumph
