the biography of a difficult man who could inspire devotion but came to a tragic end Voices from History: Essex Land Girls Dee Gordon, 2015-03-02 As much as 70 per cent of Essex is agricultural and given its proximity to the capital it is not surprising that so many members of the Women's Land Army found themselves on Essex farms and in Essex fields during the two world wars doing their bit to make sure that Britain did not starve This book not only includes interviews with some of the last surviving land girls but also contains a wealth of material unearthed in diaries letters and in the stories handed down from one generation to the next about women in Essex who were literally wearing the trousers They were not all local girls and many arrived from the cities never having seen a cow or a tractor before But the British spirit persevered and the wit and camaraderie that served us so well during those tumultuous years shines through in every story Juggernaut Drivers Leslie Purdon, 2006-11-01 Leslie Purdon lives and breathes trucking Truck and Driver It's the 1970s Trucker Dennis Richardson Rich revels in the laughs and camaraderie of his life on the road He sets up a transport company North Kent with two pals Benny is the one with the short fuse Rich tries to calm him down when he's not winding him up The irrepressible Chuckles has his own way of dealing with tachographs and then there's the indispensable Jean the rock on which they rest The determined team go through humorous and sometimes extreme exploits as they strive to stay afloat They run legal when they can and cut corners when necessary gambling on the new Scandinavian trucks that are changing the industry They are cheated out of their earnings but still come up smiling Front-line Suffolk Michael Foley, 2007-05-24 Suffolk's coastline faces east and through most of its history has therefore been one of the areas of this country that has been at risk from invasion during times of conflict This title delves into history of military Suffolk from Saxon shore forts to castles or castle sites Napoleonic martello towers and Second World War airfields Women on the Land Carol Twinch, 2021-06-24 Women on the Land tells the remarkable story of women's contribution to agriculture and forestry during the two World Wars It traces the formation and history of the Women's Land Army and shows how women mostly untrained and from non farming backgrounds helped maintain food production for a beleaguered nation by filling the places of men away at the war At the height of the First World War the Land Army had a full time membership of 23 000 members a number that was to exceed 80 000 during the Second World War The book pays tribute to women like Lady Denman who administered the Land Army during the Second World War and who was its chief inspiration and driving force and also outlines the part played by other women's groups in wartime Containing many first hand reminiscences by the women who served and a number of evocative illustrations Women on the Land highlights the years when women were effectively to challenge long established preconceptions as to what properly constituted women's work Truckers North Truckers South Leslie Purdon, 2007-09-28 In the late 1940s Shay leaves school as soon as he can to become a trailer boy on a Gardner truck that is noisy cold and limited in speed The driver Fred is one of the old school a transport man through and through who knows the best cafes and pubs and all the tricks of the trade Shay soon comes to love this life on the road despite long hours and frequent absences from his home in Kent In those days lorries were less able to cope with bad weather Truckers North includes a vivid account of the terrible winter of 1947 when twenty miles an hour was an achievement and the powerful vehicles were dangerous to handle Shay encountered some lively characters the drivers who worked played and joked hard the kindly landladies who provide a home from home Rosy who awoke the man in the boy Shay progressed in his career moving on to become a driver himself and finally the proud owner of his own HGV E. J. Rudsdale's Journals of Wartime Colchester Catherine Pearson,2010-09-06 E J Rudsdale s role as a museum curator and air raid shelter superintendent at Colchester Castle during the Second World War gave him the perfect opportunity to record life on the Home Front in his journals Seventy years later the selected extracts gathered here provide a remarkable insight into wartime life Rudsdale s writing is characterised throughout by his wry observations of wartime officialdom and his lack of conformity with the prevailing views of the time He was a pacifist which gives his journals an unusual perspective However even as a civilian he could not escape the conflict living in a garrison town threatened by invasion and regular bombing raids His journals therefore record anxious and tragic events but throughout it all his sense of humour is never diminished This absorbing collection demonstrates Rudsdale s ability to bring a scene vividly to life and each account highlights the daily pressures that people endured as they valiantly tried to carry on with normal life in spite of the war A Christmas Baby at Goodwill House Fenella J Miller,2023-08-31 Don t miss the final instalment in Fenella J Miller s heartwarming and emotional Goodwill House series You ll need to have your tissues ready July 1941 As the war grinds on Lady Joanna Harcourt knows that her time at Goodwill House is drawing to close A new chapter awaits one that she never expected to happen to her she is going to be a wife and mother again Excited with their new arrival and with her beloved Flying Officer John Sergeant back in her life Joanna hopes that even though war clouds gather love will prevail and the future will look brighter than ever for the Harcourt family John has just one last mission to complete before they can be together But even though John is an experienced and competent pilot the threat of the enemy is still close Will this be one risk too far Or will their be another goodbye for the Harcourts before they close the doors of Goodwill House forever Don t miss the emotional finale in the Goodwill House series Perfect for fans of Lizzie Lane Patricia McBride and Rosie Clarke Praise for Fenella J Miller Yet again Fenella Miller has thrilled me with another of her historical stories in the Goodwill House saga series She brings alive a variety of emotions and weaves in facts relating to the era all of which keep me reading into the small hours Glynis Peters Curl up in a chair with Fenella J Miller s characters and lose yourself in another time and another place Lizzie Lane Engaging characters and setting which whisks you back to the home front of wartime Britain A fabulous series Jean Fullerton If your heart does not soar reading this story I would be very surprised A wonderful story of resilience love and hope Reader Review The Summer-land ,1855 Yorkshire Women at War Marion Jefferies,2015-11-30 In Yorkshire 2015 marks the centenary of the founding of the first Land Girl Hostel near Boroughbridge by Lady Margery Lawson Tancred Yorkshire Women at War deals with the Women s Land Army Hostel policy during the First World War and it is the first exhaustive account to examine hostel life in the austerity of war and post war Yorkshire between 1939 50 Marion Jefferies s account of over fifty Women s Land Army hostels is filled with quirky stories about the hectic lives of tired noisy and hungry girls There are tales of how the girls slept ate and socialized in shared dormitories It records how one old farmhouse had only a single oil lamp which lit the dormitory how candles were stuck to the bunk beds and the girls were forced to complain about wax spilling on to their clothes and bedding and how at Stockton bats flew freely in the the girls dormitories Some wardens were domineering neglectful spiteful and inefficient One warden was bitter towards her charges and even boxed a girl s ears However several other wardens were homely kind and a real friend to the young girls and they were remembered with great affection Included in the book are Miss Jacob Smith s inspection reports of hostel life which illustrate the real trials worries and happiness of the girls some only 16 or 17 years old and away from home for the first time This is a serious well researched history of the Women s Land Army Hostels in Yorkshire and thanks to the excellent memories and joviality of many veterans contacted by the author it has been illumined by numerous light hearted moments of what was to them the great adventure of their lives St. Nicholas Mary Mapes Dodge,1915 St. Nicholas ,1915
