Field Guide To Christianity:

A Field Guide to Christianity John Allan, 1987      A Child's Field Guide to Christianity Jordan Taylor, 2011-03-04 This kid friendly booklet describes the basics of what it means to be a follower of Jesus the big message of the Bible who God is and why he cares so much for us A great tool for children s ministry workers      An Ecumenical Field Guide For Fresh Expressions Michael Adam Beck, 2024-08-20 Learn the essentials of fresh expressions for your church An Ecumenical Field Guide for Fresh Expressions is a practical manual for understanding and implementing Fresh Expressions for a church in any denominational setting The Fresh Expressions movement is a new way of thinking about the local church and a new way of doing church as a congregation It refers to new fresh iterations or types expressions of ministry usually outside the confines of the church building These iterations or types of ministries are formed intentionally but organically out in the community where people are They are based on shared activities or interests where people are gathering already and where the people are open to or interested in learning about Jesus Christian people share their own stories of how Jesus is part of their lives Often these gatherings become regular and increasingly begin to adopt the practices of a church community like worship service study and giving Thus they become fresh expressions of the church from which they sprang      A Field Guide to Christian Nonviolence David C. Cramer, Myles Werntz, 2022-02-08 Christian nonviolence is not a settled position but a vibrant and living tradition This book offers a concise introduction to diverse approaches to proponents of and resources for this tradition It explores the myriad biblical theological and practical dimensions of Christian nonviolence as represented by a variety of twentieth and twenty first century thinkers and movements including previously underrepresented voices The authors invite readers to explore this tradition and discover how they might live out the gospel in our modern world

Matthew 25 Christianity Donald Heinz, 2022-09-23 A new movement in American Christianity calls itself Matthew 25 Christians It follows a long train of new religious movements founded in a rediscovered biblical text that migrates to a new context and sets the church on a new course Good news to the poor is Matthew s story grounded in the entire biblical witness In Jesus s famous last judgment story all the world is questioned whether they saw Christ the king enthroned by way of the cross in the least of these the poor the homeless the hungry the sick the imprisoned Are the corporal works of mercy Jesus requires to become new marks of the church in our times Is Matthew 25 the new John 3 16 a new sign to be held up to the world at football games Following this new social gospel comes another question Will the American church succeed in taking this public as a new errand into the wilderness Could the nonconforming resistance movement that is Christianity find a new voice in the public square collaborate with the academy and politicians and turn Matthew s call for social justice into a new deal for social democracy A Bonhoeffer moment in perilous times for the poor calls for no less      The New Christian's Field Guide Joseph Dindinger, 2009      Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa Christian Higher Education David S. Dockery, Christopher W. Morgan, 2018-12-10 Our world is growing increasingly complex and confused a unique and urgent context that calls for a grounded and fresh approach to Christian higher education Christian higher education involves a distinctive way of thinking about teaching learning scholarship curriculum student life administration and governance that is rooted in the historic Christian faith In this volume twenty nine experts from a variety of fields including theology the humanities science mathematics social science philosophy the arts and professional programs explore how the foundational beliefs of Christianity influence higher education and its disciplines Aimed at equipping the next generation to better engage the shifting cultural context this book calls students professors trustees administrators and church leaders to a renewed commitment to the distinctive work of Christian higher education for the good of the society the good of the church and the glory of God T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Theology and Climate Change Hilda P. Koster, Ernst M. Conradie, 2019-12-12 The T these essays are critically engaged by respondents situated in other geographic regions minority communities non Christian traditions or non theological disciplines Structured in seven main parts the handbook explores 1 the need for collaboration with disciplines outside of Christian theology to address climate change 2 the need to find common moral ground for such collaboration 3 the difficulties posed by collaborating with other Christian traditions from within 4 the questions that emerge from such collaboration for understanding the story of God s work and 5 God s identity and character 6 the implications of such collaboration for ecclesial praxis and 7 concluding reflections examining whether this volume does justice to issues of race gender class other animals religious diversity geographical divides and carbon mitigation This rich ecumenical cross cultural conversation provides a comprehensive and in depth engagement with the theological and moral challenges raised by anthropogenic climate change Christlikeness Robert P. Vande Kappelle, 2022-12-20 Human beings are happiest when they live virtuously For Jesus and his first followers living virtuously meant loving God and others as extensions of oneself However what began as an inclusive ethical way of life based on unconditional love gradually degenerated into an exclusive social and political religious movement that came to be known as Christendom Originally a continuation of Jewish messianism the Christian movement aligned itself with Platonic and Aristotelian elements comprising a marriage of specific elements of Greek philosophy with Roman imperialism What if instead of aligning with the dualist idealist exclusivist and supremacist Socratic movement perpetuated by Plato and his followers ancient Christians had aligned with the nondualist realist inclusivist and egalitarian Stoic movement spread by Zeno and his followers an ethical tradition that like the teachings of Jesus was guided by providential and natural law ethics The results of such a synthesis laid out in this innovative study are practical inspiring and transformative for they are based on the greatest vision possible for humanity a nondualist approach to life that counters authoritarian and exclusivist behavior fostered by supremacist political ethical and social religious ideologies Unlike Christendom based on ecclesiastical triumphalism the way of Christlikeness envisioned by Jesus for humanity is grounded in humility compassion service and love of others      Saturate Field Guide

Jeff Vanderstelt, Ben Connelly, 2018-09-28 Whether you're just beginning a relationship with Jesus or you've been a follower of Jesus for a long while many of us have a hard time translating the truths we believe in our mind to the reality of our everyday life Given our tendency to wander away from God we need both encouragement and tools to keep the gospel at the center of our action in the everyday stuff of our lives This 8 week guide offers an all of life approach to being disciples who make disciples of Jesus The questions activities prayers and exercises will prompt you to do exactly that put your thoughts and theology into hands on practice Designed for both group and individual use each week will build on the next aligning your heart with the will of God examining your core identity beliefs and launching you into mission When God's people commit together to sow gospel seeds in the everyday rhythms of life a ripple effect moves through our lives out toward the whole earth saturating it with the good news of Jesus      War, Peace, and Violence: Four Christian Views Paul

Copan, 2022-09-13 In a world of war terrorism and constant threats to global stability how should Christians honor Jesus Christ Four experts in Christian ethics political philosophy and international affairs present four different views of just war nonviolence Christian realism and church history orienting readers to today's key positions      Christian Faith and English Language Teaching and Learning Mary Shepard Wong, Carolyn Kristjansson, Zoltan Dornyei, 2013-02-15 Ideological and educational political aspects of the link between language and faith especially between Global English and Christianity is a topic of growing interest in the field of English language teaching This book explores the possible role and impact of teachers and students faith in the English language classroom Bringing together studies representing a diversity of experiences and perspectives on the philosophies purposes practices and theories of the interrelationship of Christianity and language learning and teaching it is on the front line in providing empirical data that offers firm insights into the actual role that faith plays in various aspects of the language learning teaching experience By adding a data based dimension the volume contributes to the cultivation of valid research methods and innovative ways to analyze and interpret studies of the intersection of Christian faith and the practice of teaching and learning language      Explorations In Global Ethics Sumner B

Twiss, 2018-03-08 Inspired by the 1993 Parliament of the World's Religions this volume for the first time brings the scholarly discipline of comparative religious ethics into constructive collaboration with the community of interreligious dialogue The contributors draw from both communities of discourse in addressing questions of method and theory and global moral issues such as human rights distributive justice politics of war international business the environment and genocide in a cross cultural context Inspired by the 1993 Parliament of the World's Religions this volume for the first time brings the scholarly discipline of comparative religious ethics into constructive collaboration with the community of interreligious dialogue Its design is premised on two important insights First interreligious dialogue offers to comparative religious ethics a new more persuasive rationale agenda of issues and practical orientation Second comparative religious ethics offers to interreligious dialogue an arsenal of critical tools and methods which will enhance the sophistication of its practical work In this way both theory a dominant concern and strength of comparative religious ethics and praxis a dominant concern and strength of interreligious moral dialogue are joined together in mutual effort each contributing to the benefit of the other The volumes contributors share this vision of collaboration drawing explicitly from both communities of discourse in a manner that crosses disciplinary and professional boundaries to deal creatively and constructively with important methodological and global moral issue Although theory and practice cannot easily be separated in such a collaborative project for the purpose of clarity the volume is divided into two main parts The first specifically engages questions of method theory and the social role of the public intellectual the second on substantive moral themes and issues many of which were raised at the 1993 Parliament Taken together the volumes essays articulate and illustrate new ways of approaching contemporary moral concerns cross culturally yet with a rigor appropriate to our complex and pluralistic world

Happiness and the Christian Moral Life Paul J. Wadell, 2008 A Sheed Ward book Includes bibliographical references and index Finding a path for life the quest for goodness and happiness Not going it alone friendship and community in the Christian moral life Facing shipwreck and bandits virtues and the quest for happiness Every person s truth made in the image of God called to do the work of God Freedom exploring a dangerous topic False steps on the path to happiness losing our way and finding it back Finding a story worth handing on narrative and the moral life Doing what the good requires conscience and prudence in the moral life The gift that makes all gifts possible learning the language of love Reimagining the world why the happiness of one demands justice for all

Christian Faith and University Life T. Laine Scales, Jennifer L. Howell, 2017-09-25 This book provides new insights on the unique role of doctoral students and new faculty as they join other stewards of the academy working within Christian higher education Weaving together a variety of voices graduate students pastors and seasoned scholars the book examines the Christian university s relationship to the Church and how faith and stewardship can guide the pursuit of teaching and scholarship

Christian Reflection in Africa Paul Bowers, 2018-07-05 This reference collection presents academic reviews of more than twelve hundred contemporary Africa related publications relevant for informed Christian reflection in and about Africa The collection is based on the review journal BookNotes for Africa a specialist resource dedicated to bringing to notice such publications and furnishing them with a one paragraph description and evaluation Now assembled here for the first time is the entire collection of reviews through the first thirty issues of the journal s history The core intention both of the journal and of this compilation is to encourage and to facilitate informed Christian reflection and engagement in Africa through a thoughtful encounter with the published intellectual life of the continent Reviews have been provided by a team of more than one hundred contributors drawn from throughout Africa and overseas The books and other media selected for review represent a broad cross section of interests and issues of personalities and interpretations including the secular as well as the religious The collection will be of special interest to academic scholars theological educators libraries ministry leaders and specialist researchers in Africa and throughout the world but will also engage any reader looking for a convenient resource relating to modern Africa and Christian presence there The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Nature Laura Hobgood, Whitney A. Bauman, 2018-05-17 Divided into four parts Earth Air Fire and Water this book takes an elemental approach to the study of religion and ecology It reflects recent theoretical and methodological developments in this field which seek to understand the ways that ideas and matter minds and bodies exist together within an immanent frame of reference The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Nature focuses on how these matters materialize in the world around us thereby addressing key topics in this area of study The editors provide an extensive introduction to the book as well as useful introductions to each of its parts The volume's international contributors are drawn from the USA South Africa Netherlands Norway Indonesia and South Korea and offer a variety of perspectives voices cultural settings and geographical locales This handbook shows that human concern and engagement with material existence is present in all sectors of the global community regardless of religious tradition It challenges the traditional methodological approach of comparative religion and argues that globalization renders a comparative religious approach to the environment insufficient

Conceptual Blending in Early Christian Discourse Aleksander Gomola, 2018-03-19 Cognitive linguists and biblical and patristic scholars have recently given more attention to the presence of conceptual blends in early Christian texts yet there has been so far no comprehensive study of the general role of conceptual blending as a generator of novel meanings in early Christianity as a religious system with its own identity This monograph points in that direction and is a cognitive linguistic exploration of pastoral metaphors in a wide range of patristic texts presenting them as variants of THE CHURCH IS A FLOCK network Such metaphors or blends rooted in the Bible were used by Patristic writers to conceptualize a great number of particular notions that were constitutive for the early church including the responsibilities of the clergy and the laity morality and penance church unity baptism and soteriology This study shows how these blends became indispensable building blocks of a new religious system and explains the role of conceptual blending in this process The book is addressed to biblical and patristic scholars interested in a new unifying perspective for various strands of early Christian thought and to cognitive linguists interested in the role of conceptual integration in religious language Produced with the support of the Faculty of Philology Jagiellonian University in Krak w Poland C.S. Lewis and Christian Postmodernism Kyoko Yuasa, 2017-05-25 Employing a postmodernist literary approach Kyoko Yuasa identifies C S Lewis both as an antimodernist and as a Christian postmodernist who tells the story of the Gospel to twentieth and twenty first century readers Lewis is popularly known as an able Christian apologist talented at explaining Christian beliefs in simple logical terms His fictional works on the other hand feature expressions that erect ambiguous borders between non fiction and fiction an approach similar to those typical in postmodernist literature While postmodernist literature is full of micronarratives that deconstruct the Great Story Lewis's fictional world shows the reverse in his world micronarratives express the Story that transcends human understanding Lewis's approach reflects both his opposition to modernist philosophy which embraces solidified interpretation and his criticism of modernised Christianity Here Yuasa brings to the fore Lewis's focus on the history of interpretation and seeks a new model
