Marketing Literature C. Squires, 2007-10-11 This is an important study of the publishing of contemporary writing in Britain It analyzes the changing social economic and cultural environment of the publishing industry in the 1990s 2000s and investigates its impact on genre authorship and reading It includes case studies of Trainspotting and the His Dark Materials trilogy      The Rise of the Graphic Novel Alexander Dunst, 2023-07-20 Using digital methods this book traces the emergence of the graphic novel at the intersection of popular and literary culture      Composing Ambiguity: The Early Music of Morton Feldman Alistair Noble, 2016-05-23 American composer Morton Feldman is increasingly seen to have been one of the key figures in late twentieth century music with his work exerting a powerful influence into the twenty first century At the same time much about his music remains enigmatic largely due to long standing myths about supposedly intuitive or aleatoric working practices In Composing Ambiguity Alistair Noble reveals key aspects of Feldman s musical language as it developed during a crucial period in the early 1950s Drawing models from primary sources including Feldman s musical sketches he shows that Feldman worked deliberately within a two dimensional frame allowing a focus upon the fundamental materials of sounding pitch in time Beyond this Feldman s work is revealed to be essentially concerned with the 12 tone chromatic field and with the delineation of complexes of simple proportions in crystalline forms Through close reading of several important works from the early 1950s Noble shows that there is a remarkable consistency of compositional method despite the varied experimental notations used by Feldman at this time Not only are there direct relations to be found between staff notated works and grid scores but much of the language developed by Feldman in this period was still in use even in his late works of the 1980s      Reflections on Art and Culture Claudia Moscovici, 2025-03-18 Reflections on Art and Culture From Diderot s Salons to Panodyssey and Art Explora offers a series of art reviews of some of the most exciting and artistically diverse trends in contemporary painting sculpture and photography presented in light of art history aesthetics and intellectual history It also introduces two of the most promising cultural ventures that build upon the Enlightenment tradition of the salons Panodyyssey founded by French entrepreneur and music executive Alexandre Leforestier and Art Explora founded by two of the leaders of Paris's top museums Fr d ric Jousset and Bruno Julliard In emphasizing a wide range of styles of art this book also covers a critical blind spot by including contemporary artists influenced by Realism and Romanticism who are extremely popular with galleries buyers and the general public but tend not to get the attention they deserve from art critics and museums of contemporary art At the same time in the spirit of promoting artistic pluralism Reflections on Art and Culture also presents much discussed trends such as Damien Hirst's neoconceptual art as well as some of the most popular artistic photographers in the world who successfully straddle the domains of marketing and art

Minority Accommodation through Territorial and Non-Territorial Autonomy Tove H. Malloy,Francesco Palermo,2015-10-08 Minority Accommodation through Territorial and Non Territorial Autonomy explores the relationship between minority territory and autonomy and how it informs our understanding of non territorial autonomy NTA as a strategy for accommodating ethno cultural diversity in modern societies While territorial autonomy TA is defined by a claim to a certain territory NTA does not assume that it is derived from any particular right to territory allocated to groups that are dispersed among the majority while belonging to a certain self identified notion of group identity In seeking to understand the value of NTA as a public policy tool for social cohesion this volume critically dissects the autonomy arrangements of both NTA and TA and through a conceptual analysis and case study examination of the two models rethinks the viability of autonomy arrangements as institutions of diversity management This is the second volume in a five part series exploring the protection and representation of minorities through non territorial means examining this paradox within law and international relations with specific attention to non territorial autonomy NTA

Advancing Media Production Research Chris Paterson,David Lee,Anamik Saha,Anna Zoellner,2016-01-26 This anthology explores challenges to understanding the nature of cultural production exploring innovative new research approaches and improvements to old approaches such as newsroom ethnography which will enable clearer fuller understanding of the workings of journalism and other forms of media and cultural production

The Business of Ethnography Brian Moeran, 2021-01-07 Can an anthropologist help us understand the world of business Armed with this question veteran anthropologist Brian Moeran embarks on an in depth study of cultural production and creative industries in Japan At once the blundering ethnographer and shrewd observer Moeran is able to shed light not only on social behavior and human relations in general but more specifically on the importance of strategic exchange to all business practices Moeran's fieldwork rooted in participant observation of business life in communities and corporations leads him to an original theory of how business operates Culture is not all powerful Moeran shows Instead social structures strongly influence behavior At the heart of Moeran's analysis is a firm belief in fieldwork and ethnography terms much bandied about in business management and cultural studies but rarely undertaken in depth The Business of Ethnography not only provides a useful methodology for people studying or wishing to understand business but also acts as a clarion call for anthropologists to rethink their discipline beyond traditional fieldwork sites

The Selling and Self-Regulation of Contemporary Poetry J.T. Welsch, 2020-03-31 The Selling and Self Regulation of Contemporary Poetry is the first book length study of the contemporary poetry industry By documenting radical changes over the past decade in the way poems are published sold and consumed it connects the seemingly small world of poetry with the other wider creative industries In reassessing an art form that has been traditionally seen as free from or even resistant to material concerns the book confronts the real pressures and real opportunities faced by poets and publishers in the wake of economic and cultural shifts since 2008 The changing role of anthologies prizes and publishers are considered alongside new technologies new arts policy and re conceptions of poetic labour Ultimately it argues that poetry's continued growth and diversification also leaves individuals with more responsibility than ever for sustaining its communities

Building Institution Kim Förster, 2024-02-21 Building Institution chronicles the expansion of architecture as a profession and discipline in the postmodern era Kim Förster traces the compelling history of the Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies which was active in New York from 1967 to 1985 Drawing on extensive archival research and oral histories he constructs a collective biography that details the Institute's diverse roles and the dynamic interplay between research and design education culture and publishing By exploring the transformation of cultural production into a practice as well as the culturalization and global postmodernization of architecture the volume contributes significantly to the institutional history of architecture

Art, Global Maoism and the Chinese Cultural Revolution Jacopo Galimberti, Noemi de Haro García, Victoria H. F. Scott, 2019-11-18 This is the first book to explore the global influence of Maoism on modern and contemporary art Featuring eighteen original essays written by established and emerging scholars from around the world and illustrated with fascinating images not widely known in the west the volume demonstrates the significance of visuality in understanding the protean nature of this powerful worldwide revolutionary movement Contributions address regions as diverse as Singapore Madrid Lima and Maputo moving beyond stereotypes and misconceptions of Mao Zedong Thought's influence on art to deliver a survey of the social and political contexts of this international phenomenon At the same time the book attends to the similarities and differences between each case study It demonstrates that the chameleonic appearances of global Maoism deserve a more prominent place in the art history of both the twentieth and twenty first centuries

Paper Monsters Samuel Fallon,2019-06-07 In Paper Monsters Samuel Fallon charts the striking rise at the turn to the seventeenth century of a new species of textual being the serial semifictional persona When Thomas Nashe introduced his charismatic alter ego Pierce Penilesse in a 1592 text he described the figure as a paper monster not fashioned but begotten into something curiously like life The next decade bore this description out as Pierce took on a life of his own inspiring other writers to insert him into their own works And Pierce was hardly alone such figures as the polemicist Martin Marprelate the lovers Philisides and Astrophil the shepherd laureate Colin Clout the prodigal wit Euphues and in an odd twist the historical author Robert Greene all outgrew their fictional origins moving from text to text and author to author purporting to speak their own words even surviving their creators deaths and installing themselves in the process as agents at large in the real world of writing publication and reception In seeking to understand these paper monsters as a historically specific and rather short lived phenomenon Fallon looks to the rapid expansion of the London book trade in the years of their ascendancy Personae were products of print the medium that rendered them portable free floating figures But they were also the central fictions of a burgeoning literary field they embodied that field s negotiations between manuscript and print and they forged a new form of public textual selfhood Sustained by the appropriative rewritings they inspired personae came to seem like autonomous citizens of the literary public Fallon argues that their status as collective fictions passed among writers publishers and readers positioned personae as the animating figures of what we have come to call print culture

Urban Regeneration and Neoliberalism Clare Kinsella,2020-10-29 This book explores the concept of home in Liverpool over phases of regeneration following the Second World War Using qualitative research in the oral history tradition it explores what the author conceptualises as forward facing regeneration in the period up to the 1980s and neoliberal regeneration interventions that prioritise the past from the 1980s to the present The author examines how the shift towards city centre focused redevelopment and event led initiatives has implications for the way residents make sense of their conceptualisations of home and demonstrates how the shift in regeneration focus discourse and practice away from Liverpool s neighbourhood districts and towards the city centre has produced changes in the ways that residents identify with neighbourhoods and the city centre with prominence being given to the latter Employing Pierre Bourdieu s concepts of habitus and field as mechanisms for understanding different senses of home and shifts from localised views to globalised views this book will appeal to those with interests in urban sociology regeneration geography sociology home cultures and cities

Reframing Translators, Translators as Reframers Dominique Faria,Marta Pacheco Pinto,Joana Moura,2022-07-29 This collection explores the notion of reframing as a framework for better understanding the multi agent and multi level nature of the translation process generating new conversations in current debates on translational agency authority and power The volume puts forward reframing as an alternative metaphor to traditional conceptualizations and descriptions of translation which often position the process in such terms as transformation reproduction transposition and transfer Chapters in the book reflect on the translator figure as a central agent in actively moving a translated text to a new context and the translation process as shaped by different forces and subjectivities when translational agency comes into play The book brings together cross disciplinary perspectives for viewing translation through the lens of agents drawing on a wide range of examples across geographic settings historical eras and language pairs The volume integrates analyses from the translated texts themselves as well as their paratexts to offer unique insights into the different layers of mediation in translation and the new frame s created for those texts This book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies comparative studies reception studies and cultural studies

Museum Architecture Suzanne MacLeod, 2013-04-12 Recent decades have witnessed an explosion of museum building around the world and the subsequent publication of multiple texts dedicated to the subject Museum Architecture A new biography focuses on the stories we tell of museum buildings in order to explore the nature of museum architecture and the problems of architectural history when applied to the museum and gallery Starting from a discussion of the key issues in contemporary museum design the book explores the role of architectural history in the prioritisation of specific stories of museum building and museum architects and the exclusion of other actors from the history of museum making These omissions have contemporary relevance and impact directly on the ways in which the physical structures of museums are shaped Theoretically the book places a particular emphasis on the work of Pierre Bourdieu and Henri Lefebvre in order to establish an understanding of buildings as social relations the outcome of complex human interactions and relationships The book utilises a micro history an in depth case study of the National Gallery of the North the Walker Art Gallery in Liverpool to expose the myriad ways in which museum architecture is made Coupled with this detailed exploration is an emphasis on contemporary museum design which utilises the understanding of the social realities of museum making to explore ideas for a socially sustainable museum architecture fit for the twenty first century

Live Literature Ellen Wiles, 2021-05-21 This ground breaking book explores the phenomenal growth of live literature in the digitalizing 21st century Wiles asks why literary events appeal and matter to people and how they can transform the ways in which fiction is received and valued Readers are immersed in the experience of two contrasting events a major literary festival and an intimate LGBTQ salon Evocative scenes and observations are interwoven with sharp critical analysis and entertaining conversations with well known author performers reader audiences producers critics and booksellers Wiles s experiential literary ethnography represents an innovative and vital contribution not just to literary research but to research into the value of cultural experience across art forms This book probes intersections between readers and audiences writers and performers texts and events bodies and memories and curation and reception It addresses key literary debates from cultural appropriation to diversity in publishing the effects of social media and the quest

The Top Books of the Year Field Of Cultural Production Essays On Art And Literature The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Field Of Cultural Production Essays On Art And Literature : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
