Field Of Ones One Gender Land Rights:

A Field of One's Own Bina Agarwal, 1994 This is the first major study of gender and property in South Asia In a pioneering and comprehensive analysis Bina Agarwal argues that the single most important economic factor affecting women's situation is the gender gap in command over property In rural South Asia the most significant form of property is arable land a critical determinant of economic well being social status and empowerment But few women own land fewer control it Drawing on a vast range of interdisciplinary sources and her own field research and tracing regional variations across five countries the author investigates the complex barriers to women's land ownership and control and how they might be overcome The book makes significant and original contributions to theory and policy concerning land reforms bargaining and gender relations women's status and the nature of resistance

Wherever there is a person's right there is a corresponding duty imposed upon that person to respect the rights of others This co-existence of rights and duties may be explained better by the principle of reciprocity of rights and duties Such is the basis of Land as a Human Right A History of Land Law and Practice in Tanzania The esteemed author documents Tanzanian land law along its line of historical development pre and post independence whereby the thorny issues about rights and duties of the landed landless and the intermediaries are elucidated This volume is not limited to events in Tanzania but includes jurisprudence of land law of other countries in order to tap some interpretative devices of our own by way of analogies Various case types reported and unreported local and foreign provide a tangible content to what would otherwise be pure theory He also makes references to local newspapers as a way of tapping the public responses about land related matters His survey of such cases in and outside Tanzania led automatically to judgments touching on women's right to matrimonial property and inheritance individual and collective rights to land and the right to land of the indigenous peoples It is the author's view that land law has remained poorly documented in Tanzania There is plenty of literature about Land Law yet these sources are not easily available or even accessible to every interested person Equally some of the available literature is so old that it may not always depict land law and or practice as we tend to understand it today This volume is a comprehensive text on land law in which all the necessary land law principles are highlighted with great precision Advocate Rwegasira does this with a human rights approach believing that it is through this approach that a person's right to land whether individual or collective can best be explained especially in this era when conflict over land is unabatedly becoming central in family communal and societal relations The language of human rights is for all of us to speak It follows therefore that practitioners both of the bar and the bench will also find it useful for quick reference much as will do policy makers law reformers and the general public in and outside Tanzania

Frontiers of Environmental Economics Henk

Folmer, 2002-01-01 This is a book of uncompromising technical excellence which does exactly what it promises to do chart the cutting edge frontiers of environmental and ecological economics for the benefit of graduate students professional academics and policy making elites The authors are mostly academic leaders in the field the topics are hot the contributors make the links between abstract theorizing and the concrete mental framing of issues that is a prerequisite for sound policy design The papers in this collection exhibit rigorous and robust analytical frameworks presented intuitively in clear words as well as mathematically and harnessed to wide ranging up to date bibliographies which quickly open the door into recent literature this will be a book to keep on a convenient shelf for reference purposes it is hard to imagine a graduate student reading this book and failing to spot opportunities to colonize new theoretical territory beyond the present frontier or to explore empirically the areas outlined in these chapters Geoffrey Bertram Papers in Regional Science Top European and American scholars contribute to this cutting edge volume on little researched areas of environmental and resource economics Topics include spatial economics poverty and development experimental economics large scale risk and its management organizational economics technological innovation and diffusion and many more The common thread is the language and methodology of economics yet the work aims to reach an audience wider than academia others such as researchers and policymakers in the public sector professional staff in research institutes and think tanks and environmental consultants will all benefit from an awareness of these crucial issues which if not considered now will become the problems of the future

The Work of Kings H. L. Seneviratne, 1999 The Work of Kings is a stunning new look at the turbulent modern history and sociology of the Sri Lankan Buddhist Monkhood and its effects upon contemporary society Using never before translated Sinhalese documents and extensive interviews with monks Sri Lankan anthropologist H L Seneviratne unravels the inner workings of this New Buddhism and the ideology on which it is based Beginning with Anagarika Dharmapala's rationalization of Buddhism in the early twentieth century which called for monks to take on a more activist role in the community Seneviratne shows how the monks have gradually revised their role to include involvement in political and economic spheres The altruistic morally pure monks of Dharmapala's dreams have become Seneviratne trenchantly argues self centered and arrogant concealing self aggrandizement behind a facade of social service A compelling call for reform and a forceful analysis The Work of Kings is essential to anthropologists historians of religion and those interested in colonialism nationalism and postcolonial politics

Land, Trees, and Women Maria Agnes R. Quisumbing, 2001-01-01 How do women's land rights change as customary tenure systems give way to individualized land tenure While the individualization of land rights creates incentives for poor farmers in marginal areas to adopt agroforestry not much is known about its impact on women's land rights Land Trees and Women examines the evolution of customary land tenure institutions in areas of Western Ghana and Western Sumatra where traditional matrilineal inheritance systems have been changing In these two areas the authors find that

individualization of land tenure has contributed to both increased gender equity and greater efficiency in agroforestry management While property rights institutions are moving toward providing proper incentives for efficient natural resource management the authors conclude that any program or legal framework that assigns rights to resources must be evaluated for barriers to women s participation Contested Lands in Southern and Eastern Africa Robin H. Palmer,1997 Questions of land tenure and land reform and their impact on poor and vulnerable communities are of vital importance throughout Southern and Eastern Africa From the vast literature on the subject Robin Palmer has selected and summarized more than 300 recent books articles academic theses and reports of conferences and workshops This survey includes studies of Angola Botswana Kenya Lesotho Malawi Mozambique Namibia Rwanda South Africa Swaziland Tanzania Uganda Zambia and Zimbabwe In addition to major sections on economic and legal issues special sections feature studies of Land and Pastoralism and Land and Women The Elgar Companion to Feminist Economics Janice Peterson,Margaret Lewis,2001-01-01 Comprehensive reference work introducing readers to the field of feminist economics It addresses key concepts as well as feminist economic critiques and reconstructions of major economic theories and policy debates Developmental Dilemmas Peter Ho,2005-05-24 Developmental Dilemmas singles out land as an object of study and places it in the context of one of the world s largest and most populous countries undergoing institutional reform the People s Republic of China The book demonstrates that private property protected by law the principle of getting the prices right and the emergence of effectively functioning markets are the outcome of a given society s historical development and institutional fabric Peter Ho argues that the successful creation of new institutions hinges in part on choice and timing in relation to the particular constellation of societal economic political and cultural parameters Disregarding these could result in rising inequality bad land stewardship and the eruption of land related grievances The SAGE Encyclopedia of World Poverty Mehmet Odekon,2015-06-15 The SAGE Encyclopedia of World Poverty Second Edition addresses the persistence of poverty across the globe while updating and expanding the landmark work Encyclopedia of World Poverty originally published in 2006 prior to the economic calamities of 2008 For instance while continued high rates of income inequality might be unsurprising in developing countries such as Mexico the Organization of Economic Co operation and Development OECD reported in May 2013 even countries with historically low levels of income inequality have experienced significant increases over the past decade including Denmark Sweden and Germany The U N and the World Bank also emphasize the persistent nature of the problem It is not all bad news In March 2013 the Guardian newspaper reported Some of the poorest people in the world are becoming significantly less poor according to a groundbreaking academic study which has taken a new approach to measuring deprivation The report by Oxford University s poverty and human development initiative predicts that countries among the most impoverished in the world could see acute poverty eradicated within 20 years if they continue at present rates On the other hand the U N says environmental threats from climate change could push billions more into extreme poverty in coming decades All of these points lead to the need for a revised updated and expanded edition of the Encyclopedia of World Poverty Key Features 775 evaluated and updated and 175 entirely new entries New Reader s Guide categories Signed articles with cross references Further Readings will be accompanied by pedagogical elements Updated Chronology Resource Guide Glossary and thorough new Index The SAGE Encyclopedia of World Poverty Second Edition is a dependable source for students and researchers who are researching world poverty making it a must have reference for all academic libraries

Feminism and "race" Kum-Kum Bhavnani,2001 The past two decades have seen the incursion of feminist thought into many academic areas Within the academy feminist approaches have gained some legitimacy and yet simultaneous with these disciplinary advances there have been charges of racism directed at feminist scholarship and practice These charges have resulted in feminist work continuously reshaping itself This volume represents the strength as well as diversity of writings which discuss race and feminism showing how these two areas usually considered to be distinct and therefore discrete from each other have developed Feminism and Race includes articles spanning a number of disciplinary areas such as history literary analysis sociology and psychology and provides a history of how second wave feminisms have negotiated race as well as suggesting what future directions these debates may take Gender and Forests Carol J. Pierce Colfer,Bimbika Sijapati Basnett,Marlène Elias,2016-04-14 This enlightening book brings together the work of gender and forestry specialists from various backgrounds and fields of research and action to analyse global gender conditions as related to forests Using a variety of methods and approaches they build on a spectrum of theoretical perspectives to bring depth and breadth to the relevant issues and address timely and under studied themes Focusing particularly on tropical forests the book presents both local case studies and global comparative studies from Africa Asia and Latin America as well as the US and Europe The studies range from personal histories of elderly American women s attitudes toward conservation to a combined qualitative quantitative international comparative study on REDD to a longitudinal examination of oil palm and gender roles over time in Kalimantan Issues are examined across scales from the household to the nation state and the global arena and reach back to the past to inform present and future considerations The collection will be of relevance to academics researchers policy makers and advocates with different levels of familiarity with gender issues in the field of forestry Governance Feminism Janet Halley,Prabha Kotiswaran,Rachel Rebouché,Hila Shamir,2019-03-26 An interdisciplinary multifaceted look at feminist engagements with governance across the global North and global South Governance Feminism Notes from the Field brings together nineteen chapters from leading feminist scholars and activists to critically describe and assess contemporary feminist engagements with state and state like power Gathering examples from North America South America Europe Asia and the Middle East it complements and expands on the companion volume Governance Feminism An Introduction Its chapters argue that governance feminism GF is institutionally diverse and globally distributed emerging from traditional sites of state power as well as from various forms of governance and operating at the grassroots level in the private sector in civil society and in international relations The book begins by confronting the key role that crime and punishment play in GFeminist projects Here contributors explore the ideological and political conditions under which this branch of GF became so robust and rethink the carceral turn Other chapters speak to another face of GFeminism feminists finding in mundane and seemingly unspectacular bureaucratic tools leverage to bring about change in policy and governance practices Several contributions highlight the political strategic and ethical challenges that feminists and LGBT activists must negotiate to play on the governmental field The book concludes with a focus on feminist interventions in postcolonial legal and political orders looking at new policy spaces opened up by conflict postconflict and occupation Providing a clear cross cutting critical lens through which to map developments in feminist governance around the world Governance Feminism Notes from the Field makes sense of the costs and benefits of current feminist realities to reimagine feminist futures Contributors Libby Adler Northeastern U Aziza Ahmed Northeastern U Elizabeth Bernstein Barnard College Amy J Cohen Ohio State U Karen Engle U of Texas at Austin Jacob Gersen Harvard U Leigh Goodmark U of Maryland Aeyal Gross Tel Aviv U Aya Gruber U of Colorado Boulder Janet Halley Harvard U Rema Hammami Birzeit U Palestine Vanja Hamzi U of London Isabel Cristina Jaramillo Sierra Prabha Kotiswaran King s College London Maleiha Malik King s College London Vasuki Nesiah New York U Dianne Otto Melbourne Law School Helen Reece Darren Rosenblum Pace U Jeannie Suk Gersen Harvard U Mariana Valverde U of Toronto
