primary sourced research while others detail aspects of form and style Together the chapters in this book show a history shaped by multiple theses and voices and interests      Historical Dictionary of Taiwan Cinema Daw-Ming Lee,2012-11-08 Taiwan was able to solidly build and sustain a film industry only after locally produced Mandarin films secured markets in Hong Kong and Southeast Asia during the 1960s and 1970s Though only a small island with a limited population in its heyday Taiwan was among the top 10 film producing countries areas in the world turning out hundreds of martial arts kung fu films and romantic melodramas annually that were screened in theaters across Southeast Asia and other areas internationally However except for one acclaimed film by director King Hu Taiwan cinema was nearly invisible on the art cinema map until the 1980s when the films of Hou Hsiao hsien Edward Yang and other Taiwan New Cinema directors gained recognition at international film festivals first in Europe and later throughout the world Since then many other Taiwan directors have also become an important part of cinema history such as Ang Lee and Tsai Ming liang The Historical Dictionary of Taiwan Cinema covers the history of cinema in Taiwan during both the Japanese colonial period 1895 1945 and the Chinese Nationalist period 1945 present This is accomplished through a chronology highlighting the main events during the long period and an introduction which carefully analyses the progression The bulk of the information however appears in a dictionary section including over a hundred very extensive entries on directors producers performers films film studios and genres Photos are also included in the dictionary section More information can be found through the bibliography Taiwan cinema is truly unique and this book is a good place to find out more about it whether you are a student or teacher or just a fan      The Routledge Companion to Film History William Guynn,2010-09-13 The Routledge Companion to Film History is an indispensable guide for anyone studying film history for the first time Incorporating a series of 11 introductory critical essays on key subject areas with a dictionary of key names and terms it serves to introduce the reader to the field of film history in a comprehensive and well rounded manner      Chinese Modernity and Global Biopolitics Sheldon H. Lu,2007-05-31 This ambitious work is a multimedia interdisciplinary study of Chinese modernity in the context of globalization from the late nineteenth century to the present Sheldon Lu draws on Chinese literature film art photography and video to broadly map the emergence of modern China in relation to the capitalist world system in the economic social and political realms Central to his study is the investigation of biopower and body politics namely the experience of globalization on a personal level Lu first outlines the trajectory of the body in modern Chinese literature by focusing on the adventures pleasures and sufferings of the male and female body in the writings of selected authors He then turns to avant garde and performance art tackling the physical self more directly through a consideration of work that takes the body as its very theme material and medium In an exploration of mass visual culture Lu analyzes artistic reactions to the multiple uneven effects of globalization and modernization on both the physical landscape of China and the interior psyche of its citizens This is followed by an inquiry into contemporary Chinese urban space in popular cinema and experimental photography and art Examples are offered that capture the daily lives of contemporary Chinese as they struggle to make the transition from the vanishing space of the socialist lifestyle to the new capitalist economy of commodities Lu reexamines the history and implications of China's belated integration into the capitalist world system before closing with a postscript that traces the genealogy of the term postsocialism and points to the real relevance of the idea for the investigation of everyday life in China in the twenty-first century

The Asian Influence on Hollywood Action Films Barna William Donovan, 2014-09-17 Filmmakers of the Pacific Rim have been delivering punches and flying kicks to the Hollywood movie industry for years This book explores the ways in which the storytelling and cinematic techniques of Asian popular culture have migrated from grainy low budget martial arts movies to box office blockbusters such as The Magnificent Seven Star Wars The Matrix and Transformers While special effects gained prominence the raw and gritty power of live combat emerged as an audience favorite spawning Asian stars Bruce Lee and Jackie Chan and martial arts trained stars Chuck Norris and Steven Seagal As well as capturing the sheer onscreen adrenaline rush that characterizes the films discussed this work explores the impact of violent cinematic entertainment and why it is often misunderstood Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

David Bowie and Film Stephen Glynn, 2022-10-31 This book constitutes the first monograph dedicated to an academic analysis of David Bowie's appearances in film Through close textual analysis together with production and reception histories Bowie's silver screen career is explored in full The book covers performance documentaries such as Ziggy Stardust and the Spiders from Mars star vehicles ranging from the eulogised The Man Who Fell to Earth to the excoriated Just a Gigolo plus roles from the horror chic of The Hunger and cult fantasy of Labyrinth to the valiant high brow Baal and vainglorious high budget Absolute Beginners ending with Bowie as Bowie in Bandslam and others as Bowie in Velvet Goldmine and Stardust Alongside showing his willingness to experiment and at times fail across a variety of genres this study investigates Bowie's performative style that while struggling to accommodate the requirements of cinematic realism fits more harmoniously with alternative production codes and aesthetics More broadly by exploring the commercial socio cultural and ideological significance of Bowie on film the book demonstrates how notions of gender sexuality and identity formation plus commodity and cultural capital function and fluctuate in contemporary society

Journeys of Desire Alastair Phillips, Ginette Vincendeau, 2019-07-25 A comprehensive guide to European actors in American film this book brings together 15 chapters with A-Z entries on over 900 individuals It includes case studies of prominent individuals and phenomena associated with the emigres such as the stereotyping of European actresses in bad women roles and the irony of Jewish actors playing Nazis

Studies on Cinematography and Narrative in Film: Sequels, Serials, and Trilogies Seçmen, Emre Ahmet, 2024-07-18 Visual continuity in sequels poses a daunting challenge for filmmakers as they strive to maintain coherence while expanding upon established narratives and visual aesthetics With cinema's evolution audiences' expectations have grown more sophisticated demanding seamless transitions and immersive experiences across film series However achieving this continuity requires a delicate balance between honoring the original work and introducing innovative elements to captivate viewers Addressing this complication is the book Studies on Cinematography and Narrative in Film Sequels Serials and Trilogies which emerges with a comprehensive approach By delving into the interplay between cinematography and narrative structure this book offers invaluable insights for filmmakers seeking to navigate the complexities of sequel production Through meticulous analysis of prominent film series and theoretical frameworks it provides a roadmap for achieving visual coherence while pushing creative boundaries

Negotiating the auteur Julia Dobson, 2019-01-25 This book provides the first detailed analysis of the work of four important contemporary directors whose work falls between the reductive labels of auteur cinema and popular cinema Their work is contextualised within this timely investigation into the shifting relationship between the privileged status of the auteur and questions of genre gender and cinematic production in France today This important contribution to understanding the shifting landscapes of contemporary French film identifies an essential intermediacy in the films of these directors which works to undo a series of dominant oppositions generic template and contestation public collectivity and personal intimacy to offer a new perspective on the location of the political in contemporary French cinema The four chapters provide detailed critical analysis of films by Dominique Cabrera Laetitia Masson No mie Lvovsky and Marion Vernoux and present common thread including the possible construction of social intimacy the political demystification of romance narratives and the role of nostalgia to argue that their work uses popular genres in order to challenge dominant cultural representation that resonates beyond the immediate parameters of contemporary French cinema This book will be of interest to researchers working in French and European cinema to students of Film Studies and French and Francophone Studies and to film enthusiasts

Historical Film Jonathan Stubbs, 2013-03-28 Although precise definitions have not been agreed on historical cinema tends to cut across existing genre categories and establishes an intimidatingly large group of films In recent years a lively body of work has developed around historical cinema much of it proposing valuable new ways to consider the relationship between cinematic and historical representation However only a small proportion of this writing has paid attention to the issue of genre In order to counter this omission this book combines a critical analysis of the Hollywood historical film with an examination of its generic dimensions and a history of its development since the silent period Historical Film A Critical Introduction is concerned not simply with the formal properties of the films at hand but also the ways in which they have been promoted interpreted and discussed in relation to their engagement with the past

An Introduction to Film Studies Jill Neldes, 2003 An Introduction to Film Studies has established itself as the leading textbook for students of cinema This revised and updated third edition guides students through the key issues and concepts in film studies and introduces some of the world's key national cinemas including British Indian Soviet and French Written by experienced teachers in the field and lavishly illustrated with over 122 film stills and production shots it will be essential reading for any student of film Features of the third edition include full coverage of all the key topics at undergraduate level comprehensive and up to date information and new case studies on recent films such as Gladiator Spiderman The Blair Witch Project Fight Club Shrek and The Matrix annotated key readings further viewing website resources study questions a comprehensive bibliography and indexes and a glossary of key terms will help lecturers prepare tutorials and encourage students to undertake independent study Individual chapters include Film form and narrative Spectator audience and response Critical approaches to Hollywood cinema authorship genre and stars Animation forms and meaning Gender and film Lesbian and gay cinema British cinema Soviet montage Cinema French New Wave Indian Cinema      Reframing Screen

Performance Cynthia Baron, Sharon Marie Carnicke, 2010-02-11 A significant contribution to the literature on screen performance studies Reframing Screen Performance brings the study of film acting up to date It should be of interest to those within cinema studies as well as general readers Frank P Tomasulo Florida State University Reframing Screen Performance is a groundbreaking study of film acting that challenges the long held belief that great cinematic performances are created in the editing room Surveying the changing attitudes and practices of film acting from the silent films of Charlie Chaplin to the rise of Lee Strasberg's Actor's Studio in the 1950s to the eclecticism found in contemporary cinema this volume argues that screen acting is a vital component of film and that it can be understood in the same way as theatrical performance This richly illustrated volume shows how and why the evocative details of actors' voices gestures expressions and actions are as significant as filmic narrative and audiovisual design The book features in depth studies of performances by Anjelica Huston John Cusack and Julianne Moore among others alongside subtle analyses of directors like Robert Altman and Akira Kurosawa Sally Potter and Orson Welles The book bridges the disparate fields of cinema studies and theater studies as it persuasively demonstrates the how theater theory can be illuminate the screen actor's craft Reframing Screen Performance brings the study of film acting into the twenty first century and is an essential text for actors directors cinema studies scholars and cinephiles eager to know more about the building blocks of memorable screen performance Cynthia Baron is Associate Professor of Film Studies at Bowling Green State University and co editor of More Than a Method Trends and Traditions in Contemporary Film Performance Sharon Carnicke is Professor of Theater and Slavic Studies and Associate Dean of Theater at the University of Southern California and author of Stanislavsky in Focus      Race in American Film

Daniel Bernardi, Michael Green, 2017-07-07 This expansive three volume set investigates racial representation in film providing an authoritative cross section of the most racially significant films actors directors and movements in American cinematic history Hollywood has always reflected current American cultural norms and ideas As such film provides a window into attitudes about race and ethnicity over the last century This comprehensive set provides information on hundreds of films chosen based on scholarly consensus of their importance regarding the subject examining aspects of race and ethnicity in American film through the historical context themes and people involved This three volume set highlights the most important films and artists of the era identifying films actors or characterizations that were considered racist were tremendously popular or hugely influential attempted to be progressive or some combination thereof Readers will not only learn basic information about each subject but also be able to contextualize it culturally historically and in terms of its reception to understand what average moviegoers thought about the subject at the time of its popularity and grasp how the subject is perceived now through the lens of history     New Zealand Filmmakers Ian Conrich, Stuart Murray, 2007 The most thorough study on the filmmakers who have defined New Zealand cinema from its origins to its current successes
