Valley of Heart's Delight Anne Marie Todd, 2022-10-25 This agricultural history explores the transformation of the Santa Clara Valley over the past one hundred years from America's largest fruit producing region into the technology capital of the world In the latter half of the twentieth century the region's focus shifted from fruits such as apricots and prunes to computers Both personal and public rhetoric reveals how a sense of place emerges and changes in an evolving agricultural community like the Santa Clara Valley Through extensive archival research and interviews Anne Marie Todd explores the concepts of place and placelessness arguing that place is more than a physical location and that exploring a community's sense of place can help us to map how individuals experience their natural surroundings and their sense of responsibility towards the local environment Todd extends the concept of sense of place to describe Silicon Valley as a non place where weakened or disrupted attachment to place threatens the environment and community The story of the Santa Clara Valley is an American story of the development of agricultural lands and the transformation of rural regions

Barbarians, Maps, and Historiography Walter Goffart, 2023-05-31 To complement his first collection of articles Rome's Fall and After 1989 Walter Goffart presents here a further set of essays all but two published between 1988 and 2007 They mainly focus on two types of historiography early medieval narratives with special attention to Bede's Historia ecclesiastica and printed maps designed to portray and teach history with special attention to the ubiquitous map of the barbarian invasions The wide ranging concerns represented extend from the underside of the Life of St Severinus of Noricum and further evidence for dating Beowulf to the questions whether the barbarian invasions period was a heroic age and how Charlemagne shaped his own succession Attention is also paid to the earliest map illustrating the Anglo Saxon Heptarchy and to the historical vignettes of the Vatican Galleria delle carte geografiche The collection opens with the appraisal of certain writings dealing with what is now called ethnogenesis theory To conclude Professor Goffart adds brief second thoughts about each of these essays and supplies an annotated list of his articles that have not been reprinted
