Lacan and Psychoanalytic Obsolescence

Jean-Michel Rabaté, 2024-09-23 This book explores the importance of Lacan's role as an irritant within psychoanalysis and how Freud and Lacan saw that as key to ensuring that psychoanalysis remained fresh and vital rather than becoming obsolescent Drawing on Freud's thinking as well as Lacan's Rabaté examines how Lacan's unwillingness to allow psychoanalytic thinking to become stale or pigeonholed into one part of life was key in his thinking By constantly returning to psychoanalytic ideas in new and evolving ways Lacan kept psychoanalysis moving and changing much as Socrates did for philosophical thinking in classical Athens This gadfly or irritant role gave him free reign to explore all aspects of psychoanalytic thinking and treatment and how it can permeate all aspects of life both in the consulting room and beyond Drawing on a deep understanding of Lacan's work as well as Freud's this book is key reading for all those seeking to understand why Lacan's work remains so important and so challenging for contemporary psychoanalysis

Lacan and the Posthuman

Svitlana Matviyenko, Judith Roof, 2018-04-30 When Posthumanism displaces the traditional human subject what does psychoanalysis add to contemporary conversations about subject object relations systems perspectives and values This book discusses whether Posthumanism itself is a cultural indication of a shift in thinking that is moving from language to matter from a politics focused on social relations to one organized according to a broader sense of object in environments Together the authors question what is at stake in this shift and what psychoanalysis can say about it Promoting psychoanalysis focus on the cybernetic relationships among subjects language social organizations desire drive and other human motivations this book demonstrates the continued relevance of Lacan's work not only to continued understandings of the human subject but to the broader cultural impasses we now face Why Posthumanism Why now In what ways is Posthumanist thought linked to the emergence of digital technologies Exploring Posthumanism from the insights of Lacan's psychoanalysis chapters expose and elucidate not only the conditions within which Posthumanist thought arises but also reveal symptoms of its flaws the blindness to anthropomorphization projection and unrecognized shifts in scale and perspective as well as its mode of transcendental thought that enables many Posthumanist declarations This book explains how Lacanian notions of the subject inform current discussions about human complicity with and resistance to algorithmic governing regimes which themselves more wholly produce a post humanism than any philosophical displacement of human centrality could

Lacan and the Nonhuman Gautam Basu Thakur, Jonathan Michael Dickstein, 2018-01-22 This book initiates the discussion between psychoanalysis and recent humanist and social scientific interest in a fundamental contemporary topic the nonhuman The authors question where we situate the subject as distinct from the human in current critical investigations of a nonanthropocentric universe In doing so they unravel a less than human theory of the subject explore implications of Lacanian teachings in relation to the environment freedom and biopolitics and investigate the subjective enjoyments of and anxieties over nonhumans in literature film and digital media This innovative volume fills a valuable gap in the literature extending investigations into an important and topical strand of the social sciences for both analytic and pedagogical purposes gradually introduces conceptual tools following the emergence of this object of objects step by step The book makes clear the impact of the social in the genesis of objet a as a concept with the inevitable sharing of the subject s being with others at its core Lucchelli demonstrates that there can be no true autonomy of the individual without recognizing the dependence on the other thus like Winnicott s transitional object Lacan s objet a is what connects us to others despite the individualistic pretensions that emerge from the ego This book will be essential reading both for Lacanian analysts in practice and in training who wish to deepen their knowledge of the concept of the objet a and for students of psychoanalysis philosophy and psychology

Joyce and Lacan Daniel Bristow, 2016-07-15 What happens when the intellectual giant of twentieth century literature James Joyce is made an object of consideration and cause of desire by the intellectual giant of modern psychoanalysis Jacques Lacan This is what Joyce and Lacan explores in the three closely interrelated areas of reading writing and psychoanalysis by delving into Joyce s own relationship with psychoanalysis in his lifetime The book concentrates primarily on his last text Finnegans Wake the notorious difficulty of which arises from its challenging the intellect itself and our own processes of reading As well as the centrality of the Wake concepts of Joycean ontology sanity singularity and sexuality are excavated from sustained analysis of his earliest writings onward To be post Joycean as Lacan describes it means then to be in the wake not only of Joyce but also of Lacan s interventions on the Irish writer made in the mid 70s It was this encounter that gave rise to concepts that have gained currency in today s psychoanalytic theory and practice and importance in wider critical contexts The notions of the sinthome lalangue and Lacan s use of topology and knot theory are explored within as well as new theories being launched The book will be of interest to psychoanalysts literary theorists and students and teachers of literature theory or the works of Joyce and Lacan

Lacan and Klein, Creation and Discovery Adam Rosen-Carole, 2012-07-10 On the one hand Creation and Discovery Lacan and Klein An Essay of Reintroduction seeks to disclose the often suppressed or unacknowledged proximity even intimacy between Lacan and Klein and thereby to facilitate a re introduction between Lacan and Klein such that their works can read anew both independently and together On the other hand by reconstructing the highly divergent metapsychological theories and clinical orientations of Jacques Lacan and Melanie Klein from their discussions of the same case material the text seeks to demonstrate the irreducible plurality of psychoanalysis and the ethico political significance of this plurality Siding with neither Lacan nor Klein s perspective Adam Rosen Carole argues that within and between these exaggerated positions a dialectic of creation and discovery emerges that affords the reader unique insights into the nature and status of psychoanalytic knowing and its particular objects Special attention is paid to the indelible exaggerations and distortions the guiding sensitivities and urgencies and the concomitant structures of blindness and insight organizing various psychoanalytic perspectives Written for clinicians as well as for students and scholars interested in psychoanalysis and philosophy this book serves not only as a comprehensive introduction to Lacan but also a reassessment of psychoanalytic method

The Blue Box Frances Restuccia, 2012-03-01 Informed by the theory of Julia Kristeva Frances Restuccia analyzes a variety of contemporary films replete with psychoanalytic subject matter and styles She examines films that present elaborate fantasies and through them prompt the viewer to cut across a crippling fundamental fantasy by enabling a mapping of his or her private fantasy onto the one being played out on the screen Such absorption is a function of the semiotic dimension of the film which offers the spectator an experience of intimacy negativity the gaze and death Kristeva stresses that cinema has the power to bestow desiring subjectivity as a way of resisting the society of the spectacle through the specular Through analyses of complex films such as Streitfeld s Female Perversions Lynch s Mulholland Drive Almod var s Volver and Haneke s Cach The Blue Box Kristevan Lacanian Readings of Contemporary Film demonstrates Julia Kristeva s concept of the thought specular from her fascinating chapter Fantasy and Cinema in Intimate Revolt Kristeva deserves our full attention as a film theorist

Lacan and Addiction Yael Goldman Baldwin, 2018-05-08 With chapters from Rik Loose Fabian Naparstek Patricia Gherovici Bruce Fink Thomos Svolos and many others the anthology is for people interested in the topic of addictions or in Lacanian psychoanalysis and especially for those interested in how the two intersect Lacan and Addiction is based on papers presented at a 2006 conference where Lacanians from around the world gathered to speak about addictions Conference participants explored the complexity of the problem for the individual society clinicians and for treatment In the current climate where addiction is mostly treated by variations of twelve step approaches and psychopharmacological countermeasures it is all too easy to lose sight of the dimensions of addiction that render it not just a disease to be managed

but rather a significant form of human suffering and a subjective responsibility both of which are critical components of addiction treatment More and more addiction treatment is turning away from psychological and psychoanalytic theorization and towards psychopharmacological measures this anthology attempts to rectify that situation     Critical Theory Between Klein and Lacan Mari Ruti, Amy Allen, 2019-08-08 Critical Theory Between Klein and Lacan explores convergences and divergences in the psychoanalytic theories of Melanie Klein and Jacques Lacan with a special focus on the implications of their work for critical theory broadly construed The book is co authored in the form of a dialogue between Amy Allen a prominent representative of Frankfurt School critical theory with expertise on Klein and Mari Ruti a leading Lacanian critical theorist Klein and Lacan are among the two most important and influential psychoanalytic theorists after Freud Their work has profound implications for how we understand subjectivity intersubjectivity autonomy agency desire affect trauma history and the potential for individual and social change Allen and Ruti offer distinctive interpretations of Klein and Lacan that not only bring out their complexities but also highlight productive points of convergence where most psychoanalytic and critical theorists see irreconcilable differences The book is organized around key themes that cut across and through the work of Klein and Lacan culminating in an assessment of the implications of their theories for thinking about politics     Reading Seminar XI Richard Feldstein, Bruce Fink, Maire Jaanus, 1994-12-23 This book provides the first truly sustained commentary to appear in either French or English on Lacan's most important seminar The Four Fundamental Concepts of Psychoanalysis The 16 contributors unpack Lacan's notoriously difficult work in simple terms and supply elegant illustrations from a variety of fields psychoanalytic treatment film literature art and so on Each of Lacan's fundamental concepts the unconscious transference drive and repetition is discussed in detail and related to other important notions such as object a cause of desire the gaze the Name of the Father the subject and the Other This volume also includes a translation of Lacan's companion piece to Seminar XI Position of the Unconscious an article from the French edition of the Ecrits that has never before appeared in English by one of the foremost translators of Lacan's work Bruce Fink As an indication of the importance of this article Lacan considered it to be the sequel to his Function and Field of Speech and Language in Psychoanalysis arguably his most important paper in the 1950s The contributors include many of the best minds in the Lacanian psychoanalytic world in Paris today Chapters include Excommunication Context and Concepts by Jacques Alain Miller The Subject and the Other I and II by Colette Soler Alienation and Separation I and II by Eric Laurent Science and Psychoanalysis by Bruce Fink The Name of the Father by Francois Regnault Transference as Deception by Pierre Gilles Gueguen The Drive I and II by Marie Hele ne Brousse The Demontage of the Drive by Maire Jaanus The Gaze as an Object by Antonio Quinet The Phallic Gaze of Wonderland by Richard Feldstein The Evil Eye of Painting Jacques Lacan and Witold Gombrowicz on the Gaze by Hanjo Berressem Art and the Position of the Analyst by Robert Samuels The Relation between Voice and the Gaze by Ellie Ragland The Lamella of David Lynch by Slavoj Zizek The Real Cause of Repetition by Bruce Fink Introductory Talk at Sainte Anne
