Iconophilia Francesca Dell'Acqua, 2020-05-07 Between the late seventh and the mid ninth centuries a debate about sacred images conventionally addressed as Byzantine iconoclasm engaged monks emperors and popes in the Mediterranean area and on the European continent The importance of this debate cannot be overstated it challenged the relation between image text and belief A series of popes staunchly in favour of sacred images acted consistently during this period in displaying a remarkable iconophilia or love for images Their multifaceted reaction involved not only council resolutions and diplomatic exchanges but also public religious festivals liturgy preaching and visual arts the mass media of the time Embracing these tools the popes especially promoted themes related to the Incarnation of God which justified the production and veneration of sacred images and extolled the role and the figure of the Virgin Mary Despite their profound influence over Byzantine and western cultures of later centuries the political theological and artistic interactions between the East and the West during this period have not yet been investigated in studies combining textual and material evidence By drawing evidence from texts and material culture some of which have yet to be discussed against the background of the iconoclastic controversy and by considering the role of oral exchange Iconophilia assesses the impact of the debate on sacred images and of coeval theological controversies in Rome and central Italy By looking at intersecting textual liturgical and pictorial images which had at their core the Incarnate God and his human mother Mary the book demonstrates that between c 680 880 by unremittingly maintaining the importance of the visual for nurturing beliefs and mediating personal and communal salvation the popes ensured that the status of sacred images would remain unchallenged at least until the Protestant Reformation in the sixteenth century The Ladder from Earth to Heaven Robert Aitken, The Swedenborg Concordance John Faulkner Potts, 1895 The Collected Works of Witness Lee, 1963, volume 3 Witness Lee, 2021-05-28 The Collected Works of Witness Lee 1963 volume 3 contains the messages and fellowship given by Brother Witness Lee from July 13 through September 1 1963 with the exception of messages he gave in a series on the Gospel of John which are published in Life study of John not included in The Collected Works The eight sections that constitute this volume are composed largely of messages that were given during the summer training held in Los Angeles and Altadena California from July 13 through August 22 The training covered four main areas life truth the church and service The messages on life and on truth were given in the evening of each Monday Tuesday and Saturday and the messages on the church and on service were given in the evening of each Thursday The messages given in the evening focused on these four main areas and the messages given in the morning were devoted to fellowship concerning personal problems spiritual problems the church the local churches the Lord's Day gathering practical service prayer and Christian practices The contents of this volume are as follows 1 Eighteen messages concerning life given on July 13 through August 20 as part of the summer training These messages have been published under the title Basic Principles of the Experience of Life One message chapter 9 is included also in The Collected Works of Witness Lee 1965
