Ladies Of The Bois De Bologne:

The Seduction of Space Jules O'Dwyer, 2025-03-11 A bold and far reaching new study of French queer cinema reimagines the relationship between sexuality and space Spatiality has long been a crucial and potent lens for understanding French culture and aesthetics While canonical greats of French cinema such as Jean Luc Godard Agn s Varda and Louis Malle invoked the notion of fl nerie to explore ideas of modernism spatial exploration and urban sociality Jules O Dwyer demonstrates how a more recent generation of French queer filmmakers continues to engage with and contest this legacy by focusing attention on the cognate practice of cruising Through the work of Jacques Nolot S bastien Lifshitz Christophe Honor Vincent Dieutre Alain Guiraudie and others The Seduction of Space draws film theory queer studies and spatial inquiry into close proximity to examine the politics of cruising and the gendering of space Making the case that cinema not only documents the queer spaces of the past but continues to produce them O Dwyer maps the relationships between sex and spatiality as he takes up such varied topics as public sex in the porn theater racial eroticization in the banlieue and the ecocritical valences of rural cruising Foregrounding the crucial role that spatiality plays in shaping the parameters of France s visual cultures and political imaginary The Seduction of Space is both an urgent queer reconceptualization of this tradition and a clarion call for film scholars to tarry with the politics of sexuality in all its messiness Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions Lady's Realm ,1897
