Ladies Of The Grand Tour:

Ladies of the Grand Tour Brian Dolan, 2001 According to The Art of Governing A Wife 1747 women in Georgian England were supposed to alay up and save look to the house talk to few and take of all within However some broke from these taboos and took up the previously male privilege of travelling to the Continent to develop mind spirit and body The Grand Tour Diary of Frederica Murray, 1819-1820 Mark Guscini, 2024-01-15 In 1819 the Murray family set out on one of the last Grand Tours before railways forever changed the way people travelled The eldest daughter of the Second Earl of Mansfield Lady Frederica Murray later Stanhope as she married James Hamilton Stanhope the youngest son of the 3rd Earl of Stanhope kept a diary on the tour which this book explores in detail The diary has never been published not even mentioned in any of the Grand Tour literature and is a fascinating and essential look at the Murray Mansfield family and Europe at the time Frederica was a deeply observant traveller and noted down numerous picturesque and historical details she was also very open and sometimes even cutting in her opinions when she came across something or someone she did not like Frederica s diary shows a very mature 19 year old with clear opinions on art literature and the world around her This book will therefore be interesting for scholars of travel Grand Tours and Regency England and its society as well as anyone with an interest in travel and history Women of Fortune Linda Levy Peck, 2018-10-25 Offers a compelling story of mercantile wealth and merchant heiresses who asserted their rights despite loss imprisonment and murder British Women Travellers in the Long Nineteenth Century Marilyn D. Button, Jessica A. Sheetz-Nguyen, 2025-03-05 During the long nineteenth century British women reframed the masculine paradigm of the Grand Tour They created a feminist travel gaze intentionally or unintentionally that differed from that of male peers Unlike their brothers who went for personal edification women with means left their English homes for the great Italian cities of Florence Naples and Rome to escape personal disappointments and the social limitations imposed by parents spouses and society The anonymity of travel to a distant land and new freedoms fostered political and creative achievements including entrepreneurial journalism literary masterpieces and social advocacy for their gender which redefined the contours of the Anglo Italian cultural landscape The historical evidence presented here testifies to the life changing capacity of travel and firmly demonstrates how British women s history and literature enriches and broadens narratives about Britain and the World The Classical Tradition Anthony Grafton, Glenn W. Most, Salvatore Settis, 2010-10-25 A vast cabinet of curiosities Stephen Greenblatt Eclectic rather than exhaustive less an encyclopedia than a buffet Frederic Raphael Literary Review How do we get from the polis to the police Or from Odysseus s sirens to those of an ambulance The legacy of ancient Greece and Rome is all around us imitated resisted reworked and misunderstood In this beautifully illustrated and encyclopedic compendium a team of leading scholars investigates the afterlife of this rich heritage in the fields of literature philosophy art architecture history politics religion and science From Academy to Zoology Aristotle and the Argonauts to Pegasus and Persia The Classical Tradition looks at facts and adages people places and ideas to reveal how the Classical tradition has shaped human endeavors from government to medicine drama to urban planning legal theory to popular culture At once authoritative and accessible learned and entertaining it illuminates the vitality of these enduring influences

Before Victoria Elizabeth Denlinger,2005-04-20 It might not have been the revolution that Mary Wollstonecraft called for in A Vindication of the Rights of Woman 1792 but the Romantic era did witness a dramatic change in women s lives Combining literary and cultural history this richly illustrated volume brings back to life a remarkable though frequently overlooked group of women who transformed British culture and inspired new ways of understanding feminine roles and female sexuality What was this revolution like Women were expected to be more moral more constrained and more private than in the eighteenth century when women such as Georgiana Cavendish Duchess of Devonshire crafted bold public personas Genteel women no longer laughed aloud at bawdy jokes and noblewomen ran charity bazaars instead of private casinos By 1800 motherhood had become a sacred calling and women who could afford to do so devoted themselves to the home While this idealization of domesticity kept some women off the streets it afforded others new opportunities Often working from home women wrote novels and poetry sculpted busts painted portraits and conducted scientific research They also seized the chance to do good and crafted new public roles for themselves as philanthropists and reformers Now obscure female astronomers photographers sculptors and mathematicians share these pages with celebrated writers such as Mary Shelley her mother Mary Wollstonecraft and Mary Robinson who in addition to being a novelist and actress was also the mistress of the Prince of Wales This book also makes full use of The New York Public Library's extensive collections including graphic works and caricatures from the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries manuscripts hand colored illustrations broadsides drawings oil paintings notebooks albums and early photographs These vivid beautiful and often humorous images depict these women their works and their social and domestic worlds The Ladies of Llangollen Fiona Brideoake,2017-04-06 The Ladies of Llangollen is the first book length critical study of Lady Eleanor Butler and Miss Sarah Ponsonby whose 1778 elopement and five decades of retirement turned them into eighteenth century celebrities and pivotal figures in the historiography of female same sex desire Debates within the history of sexuality have long foundered over questions of what constitutes proof of past sexual desires and practices and the nature of Butler and Ponsonby's intimacy has been deemed inimical to productive critical consideration In this ground breaking study Fiona Brideoake attends to the archive of their shared life written performed and enacted in the vernacular of the everyday to argue that they embodied an early iteration of female celebrity in which their queerness registered less as the mark of some specified non normativity than as the effect of their very public very visible resistance to sexual legibility Throughout their lives and afterlives Butler and Ponsonby have been figured as chaste romantic friends prototypical lesbians Bluestockings Romantic domestic archetypes and proleptically feminist modernists The Ladies of Langollen demonstrates that this heterogeneous legacy discloses the queerness of their performatively instantiated identities Famous Ladies of the English Court Jerusha D.

Richardson,1899 Companion to Women's Historical Writing M. Spongberg,A. Curthoys,B. Caine,2016-04-30 This A Z reference work provides the first comprehensive reference guide to the wide range of historical writing with which women have been involved particularly since the Renaissance The Companion covers biographical writing travelogue and historical fictions broadening the concept of history to include the forms of writing with which women have historically engaged The focus is on women writing in English internationally but historical and historiographical traditions from beyond the English speaking world are also examined Brief biographies of individual writers are included Transatlantic Women Travelers, 1688-1843 Misty Krueger,2021-03-12 This important new collection explores representations of late seventeenth through mid nineteenth century transatlantic women travelers across a range of historical and literary works While at one time transatlantic studies concentrated predominantly on men's travels this volume highlights the resilience of women who ventured voluntarily and by force across the Atlantic some seeking mobility adventure knowledge wealth and freedom and others surviving subjugation capture and enslavement The essays gathered here concern themselves with the fictional and the historical national and geographic location racial and ethnic identities and the configuration of the transatlantic world in increasingly taught texts such as The Female American and The Woman of Colour as well as less familiar material such as Merian's writing on the insects of Surinam and Falconbridge's travels to Sierra Leone Intersectional in its approach and with an afterword by Eve Tavor Bannet this essential collection will prove indispensable as it provides fresh new perspectives on transatlantic texts and women's travel therein across the long eighteenth century Women's Travel Writings in Italy, Part I Vol 1 Stephen Bending, Stephen Bygrave, Donatella Badin, Catherine Dille, Betty Hagglund, 2024-10-28 Chawton House Library Women's Travel Writings are multi volume editions with full texts reproduced in facsimile with new scholarly apparatus The texts have been carefully selected to illustrate various themes in women's history TALLIE'S KNIGHT Anne Gracie, 2014-11-15 MAGNUS HAD DECIDED TO SELECT A BRIDE Miss Thalia Robinson a destitute orphan was fortunate that she had been allowed to look after her cousin Laetitia's three adorable children Tallie usually spent her quiet life lost in daydreams but the arrival of a house party to aid Magnus Earl of d Arenville to find a wife turned her world upside down Magnus's cold facade had been pierced by a delightful small girl and now he'd decided he wanted children of his own For that he needed a wife But things didn't go according to Laetitia's plan for he ignored all the debutantes that were presented to him and taken with Tallie's loving treatment of the children in her charge decided that she was the one he would marry

Woman's Work for Woman and Our Mission Field, 1890 Bath and Beyond Hillary Burlock, Robin Eagles, Tatjana LeBoff, 2025-04-16 This book re-examines spa and assembly culture as key venues for sociability in the eighteenth century Focused chiefly on the eighteenth century this book looks forward into the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries While many of the chapters concern aspects of the city of Bath the book stretches beyond Bath's confines taking in comparative British towns such as Tunbridge Wells European spa towns such as Nice and the impact Bath had on spa towns in America The chapters not only reconsider familiar themes such as the marriage market but also offer new insights into the architectural development of the city and the role of Masters of Ceremonies the officials who oversaw Assembly Rooms rules and culture There are also insights into the musical culture of spa towns and the varied backgrounds of the artists and performers As places that attracted the wealthy and powerful the book rounds off with consideration of Bath and other spa towns importance as centres of culture and diplomacy and of their place in the tourist industry This accessibly written book appeals to a broad readership including undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as academics and informed non-specialists interested in social and cultural history British history and modern history Excursions into Modernism Joyce Kelley, 2017-05-15 Positioned at a crossroads between feminist geographies and modernist studies Excursions into Modernism considers transnational modernist fiction in tandem with more rarely explored travel narratives by women of the period who felt increasingly free to journey abroad and redefine themselves through travel In an era when Western artists writers and musicians sought primitive ideas for artistic renewal Joyce E Kelley locates a key similarity between fiction and travel writing in the way women authors use foreign experiences to inspire innovations with written expression and self articulation She focuses on the pairing of outward journeys with more inward introspective ones made possible through reconceptualizing and mobilizing elements of women s traditional corporeal and domestic geographies the skin the ill body the womb and the piano In texts ranging from Jean Rhys s Voyage in the Dark to Virginia Woolf s The Voyage Out and from Evelyn Scott s Escapade to Dorothy Richardson s Pilgrimage Kelley explores how interactions between geographic movement identity formation and imaginative excursions produce modernist experimentation Drawing on fascinating supplementary and archival materials such as letters diaries newspaper articles photographs and unpublished drafts Kelley s book cuts across national and geographic borders to offer rich and often revisionary interpretations of both canonical and lesser known works
