Times nice work if you can get it The proud Bank has always considered itself beyond the laws governing ordinary institutions Just like the Met Is it a criminal organisation Borrowing the words of Lord Butler and ducking the point it is not for the Good Trader to judge Nor for anybody else Etc etc But the defining coordinates of the enfranchised Bank increasingly influential indeed sinister as a geo political force remain obscure The bulletins trace the history of an idea that of central banking independence Simple in outline allow the enfranchised local central bank to set interest rates the concept has proven to be lethal in its application It has brought the UK crammed to the gills with debt in all the wrong places virtually to its knees Or onto its back But not the Bank The Old Lady rides a mean machine Bane and Shadow Jon
